EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINMENT

Young People of Cambridge-st. Methodist Church Enjoyed Themselves.

There have been a number of successful social evenings in connection with the Epworth League of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, but perhaps none more enjoyable than the pleasant one given last Monday. There was an unusually large attendance and everyone present seemed to appreciate the excellent programme. Miss B. Bowers occupied the chair. The Floral Courtship proved an excellent means of mingling the young together and promoting a spirit of sociability, the competition for the prize being keen. They were secured by Miss McIlhenny and Mr. Wilmut Webster.

The programme prepared by the League workers proved to be of much interest. Mr. McCarty with his large Edison machine, was present and added a great deal to the pleasure of all by giving pleasing selections. Miss B. Bowers opened the programme with a few preliminary remarks, after which the Misses Pattinson rendered an instrumental duet in an effective way. Miss Wilson recited in good style, and was heartily cheered. Miss Spence rendered a solo in her usual excellent manner, after which a mixed quartette, comprising the Misses Dark and Bates, and Messrs. Schwan and Moyne, was well received by the pleased audience. An instrumental duet by Miss Pearl White and Miss Nora Balfour, was much appreciated. Messrs. Schwain and Lamont rendered an excellent duet, and Miss Bate a vocal solo, displaying a voice of rich quality and pleasing expression. Mr. W. J. Carsile president of the League, made a few remarks, after which a selection from the phonograph ended the programme. Refreshments were then served and a social time was spent.

SHORT STREET CHATS.

Conversational Tidbits Picked up by the Post Man on his Travels.

Mr. John O'Reilly, Valencia—"As regards the storm which broke over our section Wednesday night, 25th, I may say that it eclipsed anything ever experienced by the oldest residents. The escape of myself and family from instant death was nothing in the history of miraculous. My wife, who had been around fastening the windows, was standing in the beds room, about to retire, when a blizzard of light seemed to fill the room. I was lying awake and all at once I felt as though dazed. Hearing a low moan I rushed to my wife's side and found her prostrate. I then went to look after the children, two of them slept across the hall from our bedroom. I found them uninjured, and returned to where my wife lay. I saw that her system had received a very severe shock. A dark spot was visible on her forehead for some time but has almost disappeared. I am happy to state that she is now almost fully recovered."

Busy at the Creamery.
Our local Creamery man is busy these days. The output is nearly double what it has been in the past, and he now churns twice a day. On Thursday last the Creamery was visited by a buyer from England, who pronounced the butter to be A1 in quality. Large lots of cream are being delivered at the Creamery daily by Mariposa farmers.

Bracebridge Pays Damages.
The suit of the widow William McDonald, who was killed by an electric wire, against the town of Bracebridge, has been settled by the town agreeing to pay her $500 per year for ten years. It will be remembered that a corporation workman laid a live wire hanging down on a barbed wire fence, which McDonald taking hold of, received a shock that killed him.

A Shooting Accident in Which Two Lindsay Lads Figured.

On Saturday evening about 9 o'clock, Master Alfred Parkin, eldest son of Capt. Jos. Parkin, and Master Lance Bell, a playmate, both aged about 12 years, were in close communion on Mr. S. G. Parkin's lawn. They had unearthed a prize in the form of a revolver of 38 calibre, and while Master Parkin was examining its mechanism the weapon exploded and an instant later Lance exclaimed, "Oh, Albie, I'm shot!" and fell.

Assistance soon arrived and the boy was carried to Dr. McAlpine's office where it was discovered that the bullet had entered the right shoulder, and passing downward under the skin had passed out on the same side without injuring any vital part. Dr. McAlpine, after cleaning and dressing the wound, conveyed the young lad to Royal Hospital, where he occupied a private ward and was able to receive his friends Sunday.

A Veterinary's Good Work.

Uxbridge Journal: Last summer a road mare belonging to Geo. Dick, of Scott, had a leg broken at the fetlock. Veterinary Plank was called in and incised the part in plaster of paris, although he himself was not particularly optimistic of the result. The plaster was kept on for seven or eight weeks, and when it was taken off it was found that the bone had knit. Mr. Dick is now working the horse with the others. The case is regarded as out of the common.

Little Britain Young Lady Praised.

Toronto Saturday Night: Miss Louie E. Jenkins, pupil of Mr. J. Parbell Morris, Lindsay, gave a piano recital last week in the Conservatory Music Hall, assisted by Miss Nora Hayes, violin, and Miss Edna Heron and Mr. Frank Wilcox, vocalists. Recitals by pupils of teachers outside Toronto are becoming quite a feature of the Conservatory work.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty house wedding took place on Tuesday, May 24th, at the residence of Mr. Broad. Queen-st. when Mr. Oscar R. Jinks and Miss Alice Sparrow were united in marriage. Rev. A. J. H. Strike performed the ceremony. Miss Rae, of Valencia, played the wedding march, and at 3 o'clock the bridal party entered the drawing room. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. W. Jinks, of town, and Miss A. Tynkham, of Toronto, was bridesmaid. The bride and the bridesmaid were becomingly dressed in white, carrying large bouquets of roses and carnations. Some 30 guests were present. The gifts were pretty and useful. The happy couple went on the 6.30 train to visit Western cities.
