LINDSAY BAPTIST CHURCH

The Annual Business Meeting Disclosed

a Prosperous State of Affairs. The Lindsay Baptist church has held its annual business meeting, and the reports from the different des rartments of work were very encouraging. During the year, 19 have been added to the church, 12 by letter and 7 by baptism. Fourteen have been dismissed to other churches, and ore member has died, leaving a net increase of 4. The membership now numbers 157. The reports showed an ircreased attendance at the different services and evidence of a deepened interest in the religious life. This is especially true of the prayer-meetings. The Sunday school also, under Superintendent Hardy, has the largest attendance in its history, and enlarged accommodation is a number of new books have been added to the library. The Young People's Society is doing effective work along bible study lines under the direction of the paster, Rav. G. R. Welch. Contidence in the pastor and officers was expressed and also appreciation of their services.

During the year much needed improvements to the church property were undertaken and successfully completed. The church building has been put in good repair and beautifully decorated; the parsonage has been enlarged and remode led. These improvements have cost about $2,-400, most of which has been raised by voluntary subscriptions. The year has been marked by financial prosperity and creditable liberality the sum of $3,379.76, of which $578.06 has been given to missions and benthe leadership of Mrs. J. W. Anderraised $340 since last October. The Woman's Mission Circle, with Mrs. Gillespic, president, raised $79.50 for missions, and the recently re-organized Mission Band, $6.40.

Most of the old officers were re-el ucted. Messrs. Robert Keanedy, W J. Morton and T. A. Fisher were elected the Trustee Board The church was never in better condition for successful work, and the pastor and members are looking forward to another year of happy and effective

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Was Unaffected.

" My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did not do any good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura Remedies he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. his skin peeled off twenty times, but it the Cuticura Resolvent for his blood and now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthler boy you never saw than he is to-day." Obituary.

The sudden death of Mrs. E. J Kingsley May 26th has cast gloom over the hearts of many friends and has evoked the sympath; of all for the boreaved husband and family, the youngest child being an infant not yet three weeks old. The untoward event was entirely unexpected, Mrs. Kingsley having made an excellent recovery. It is supposed that an attack of heart failure was the cause of death. The occurrence is one of the saddest that has been noted in Lindsay for years.

Few persons believe that the salvation of a Roman Catholic depends upon repurciation of his faith, and it can hardly be doubted that the world would profit greatly from a more sympathetic understanding between the accient church and the younger Protestant denominations. Many times in Canada there has arisen stern necessity for resisting the political aims of ultramontanism but there has never been ground for quarrel over the simplicity and purity of Roman Catholic teaching in life and morals. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is a Roman Catholic, and during all the hard politireal struggles with the church which Quebec he has never uttered word in disparagement or in denial of the faith in which he was born. His action is in finest contrast with the Catholic leaders of France who are resisting ultramontanism with an energy and an intolerance which seem certain to destroy some hallowed institutions and to leave the naof materialism. It would be better surely to teach, as did Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the doctrines of civil liberty with respect for the Roman Catholic church as a religious institution than thus to dastroy the whole religious structure of the nation and strike the Christian faith in the dust. The Catholics of France are not turning to Protestartism, but to agnosticism, and that is too commonly the fruit of civil persecution, and the overthrow of inherited and established Christian agloving habitants of Quebec than the dechristianized masses of old France. and better a rigid faith than no faith at all.
