CONCEALING WHISKY'S WORK.

American Paper Exposes Method of Concealment—Deaths From Sickness and Accidents Really Due to Whisky.

It is well known that very many calamities for which liquor is really responsible are attributed to other causes in the published accounts. The Pittsburgh Dispatch, in a recent article, exposes the various explanations which are commonly given in this connection. The Dispatch says: "Apoplexy, heart disease, gastritis, and pneumonia frequently appear on the death certificates sent to the Allegheny county morgue, but were the truth told, these deaths, in hundreds of cases, each year have been superinduced by alcohol.

"The mortuary records of the county during the past few years show that there has been a remarkably large number of sudden deaths for which habitual intoxication was the primary or direct cause. Fatalities and tragedies in many cases may be attributed to the use of alcoholic drinks, and in nine cases out of every ten, the persons who have committed suicide during the past decade in and about Pittsburgh were driven insane or rendered destitute and despondent by drink's curse.

"Death due to pneumonia is the cause often ascribed by physicians for the death of their patients. In order that the friends of the dead be not subjected to humiliation, the words 'superinduced by acute alcoholism' are frequently omitted from the certificate which is sent to the coroner. 'Pneumonia alama perhaps the larger share of drunkards. While under the influence of drink men subject themselves to exposure. While on a prolonged debauch they are careless about their dress and have no regard for the condition of the weather, with the result that they contract severe colds while their system is not in condition to fortify them against illness, and death follows.

"The old stereotyped phrase, 'killed by a train' is used hundreds of times in a year by the Pittsburgh newspapers, and it is brought into daily use as a result of drunkenness. Investigation into the death of most persons killed while walking the railroad tracks has proved that the victims were under the influence of liquor.

"Records of the local hospitals show that seventy per cent. of the victims of accidents placed under their care are due to intoxication, and in ninety out of every hundred cases brought to the hospitals in patrol wagons, Demon Alcohol has signed prominently.

"If any man or body of men in Pittsburgh thinks he is fully alive to the deplorable conditions that have been wrought by alcohol and its kindred destroyers of life, homes, and happiness, he is wrong.

"The whisky bottle is in evidence in most of the novels in the districts inhabited by the families who are frequent applicants for aid at the office of the Department of Charities and Correction.

"The liquor laws in Allegheny County are stringent as in any other place in the United States, but notwithstanding this there are multiplying, our prisons are filling up and records of charitable institutions show that intemperance is flourishing, and nothing is being accomplished toward curing the drunkard."

THE CANNINGTON CONVENTION AT THE CHURCHES SUNDAY.

HELD AT LITTLE BRITAIN -- AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

Many Instructive Addresses Delivered—Work of Auxiliaries Progressing.

The Cannington District Convention of the Bay of Quinte Conference held its annual session at the Methodist church, Little Britain, on Wednesday, May 23rd. Mrs. D. W. King, of Oakwood district, organizer, presided and opened the meeting with the psalm and the Lord's prayer, after which Mrs. (Rev.) Brown, of Oakwood, conducted the devotional exercises.

Miss V. Coone, of Manilla, was appointed secretary. The several auxiliaries and mission bands of the district were well represented, and the reports from these were interesting and encouraging, showing an increase on the whole, both in membership and finances.

A letter from Miss Laura Hamby, of Chentu, China, sent in time for convention was read, giving a description of the place, its people, their habits of life, which added much to the interest of the morning session.

The devotional exercises were led in the afternoon by the secretary, in the absence of Mrs. (Rev.) Craig, of Manilla, followed by a consecration service conducted by Mrs. Caleb Weldon, Oakwood.

A good practical paper on, "How to Secure and Retain the Interest of Mission Band Members", was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Brown. Miss Richardson, of Oakwood, gave an instructive map talk on Africa. "Review of British Columbia Work" was the subject of a paper by Mrs. Wm. Till, of Wilfrid, and Miss Anderson, of Woodville, gave an excellent talk on "Our work in Japan." Mrs. T. Taylor and Mrs. B. Graham favored the convention with a much appreciated sketch, after which the Question Question Drawer," opened by Mrs. R. Vallentyne, of Derryville, brought out some good points on giving in our society.

The district organized reviewed her work into the district, stating that two auxiliaries had been organized, one at Woodville and the other at Salem on the Manilla Circuit. She stated the work was growing and had prospects of the formation of other auxiliaries in the near future.

In discussing the improvements of the society a motion was carried in effect that "We memorialize the board to have our district organizer elected at the district convention instead of at the branch meeting."

This session closed with prayer, led by Mrs. (Rev.) Harrison, Woodville. The evening session was presided over by Rev. W. G. Clarke, Little Britain. After giving a few introductory remarks he called upon Rev. L. Moore, of Pickering, who gave a helpful address on missionary work.

"Enthusiasm and Missions" was the subject of an enthusiastic address given by Rev. G. E. Craig, of Manilla. Music was furnished by Miss L. Glendinning, Manilla, and the Little Britain choir.

A very pleasing feature of the evening was a dialogue entitled "Temperance," by Misses Tweener, D. Diver and Sparks, of Salem.

This session was brought to a close by tendering thanks to all who had helped to make the convention a success.

MEMBERS OF C.O.F. PARADED TO QUEEN-ST. CHURCH.

Great Number of Communicants at St. Mary's at Early Mass.

From Evening Post of June 4

The Canadian Order of Foresters attended in a body at Queen-st. Methodist church last night, and listened to a fine discourse. Mr. Phelps took his text from 1st Peter, 4:8, "And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves, for charity shall cover a multitude of sins" and 1st Corinthians, 13th chapter, last verse, "And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity." This was a charity that endureth—that believeth the best in men. (Rev. Mr. Phelps in his remarks said the brotherhood of race is growing—we are members of one another. So far as sympathy for individual cases goes it seems that with all we have to do business with, that the tone of sympathy is very low indeed. Jesus saw men low down and meek and held out a helping hand for all. Too often we find in church, in business and in the lodge a too ready impulse to use criticisms. Too often we condemn men because of their folly; have fervent laws. We must remember that our friends also have thoughts. There was too much of the sectarian spirit growing up in the church to-day. At the day of judgment there will be no lives of denunciation. All God would say would be, "Where is the man who loves his brother." The speaker emphasized the fact that a spirit was needed that hated evil and evil thoughts. Christ's love throws a mantle of charity over evil. We should make up our mind that there is not one in the lodge who is not without a fault. His very perfect people, said Mr. Phelps, that I don't want anything to do with. Make up your mind that every man and woman you know has some fault. You have to live with people, like yourself, who have some fault, and must make allowances for other people as well as for ourselves. There's good in the worst, but it was easier for those to be good, who were surrounded in comfort than those in the slums, surrounded with poverty. The speaker concluded by emphasizing the need to extend the mantle of charity over all—have fervent charity among yourselves, charity that covers a multitude of sins.

The choir rendered an appreciated anthem with a pleasing solo and a soprano duet, which was well rendered. A quartette was also well rendered.

CAMBRIDGE-ST. METHODIST

Yesterday morning at Cambridge-st. Methodist church, Rev. Dr. Bishop took as his text Ephesians 3:14. His remarks on Paul's prayer were very earnest and instructive. This prayer was comprehensive, fervent and caringly, and furnished many inducements to reach forth to things before it. It was a well-considered prayer of a practical man of God and a careful study of the word of God would convince every student that God designed it to be a prayer for all. The prayer was divided into three parts.

The first setting forth the fact that God designed His people to be strong—strong in inward heart when Christ might be weak.

The second brings forth the words rooted and grounded; a figure of a tree and building—the idea of permanence and stability, settled and established. The strengthening of Jesus Christ within is necessary in order that we might become rooted and love was the soil in which the root may take hold, and it was only so we became familiar with love that we could fully comprehend it. Dr. Bishop spoke on the breadth, length, depth and height of God's divine love.

The third division was that of the glorious climax—filled with Jesus Christ, the fullness of His grace that fills all in all—life, faith, love, joy, peace. What a prayer, what a subject to contemplate, what an experience to have, what a life to live. (Was it really intended of God that we should fully comprehend it. Dr. Bishop said, "Can we live out a life like that? Surely such an experience was too wonderful. The speaker then spoke briefly on the standard set by God. Paul did not ask God for some things, but for the things which we should have as a standard. But rather the making of a statement, and he (Dr. Bishop), thanked God that He made it possible to meet all.

In the anthem Miss Mildred Cowie took the solo, and at the evening service Miss Gertrude Bate took the solo in the anthem. During the offertory a solo, "Ours Sweetly Sounded," was rendered by Miss M. Flavelle, of Toronto, was much appreciated.

DISCOVERED AT LAST.

(Chicago News.)

"Eureka!" exclaimed the shade of Darwin, I have discovered it at last!

"Discovered what?" queried the shade of Huxley.

"This missing link that makes a man out of a monkey," answered Darwin, "It's the golf link."

AT ST. MARY'S.

A congregation numbering fully 800 persons attended 8 o'clock mass yesterday (Whit Sunday) and almost one-half received holy communion in commemoration of the Feast of Pentecost. Mass was celebrated by Ven. Archbishop Casey, who also read the gospel of the day and delivered a short but impressive sermon thereon. Gospel John xiv. 23-31—"At that time Jesus said to his disciples, if any one love me he will keep my word and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and will make our abode with him. He that loveth me, but keepeth not my words, and the word which you have heard is not mine, but the Father's, who sent me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you; but the Paraclete, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatsoever I shall have said to you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. You have heard that I said to you, I go away and I come unto you. If you loved me you would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it came to pass, that when it shall come to pass you may believe. I will not speak many things to you, for the prince of this world cometh, and in me he hath not any thing. But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father hath given me commandment, so do I." . . .

PREPARING FOR THE REMOVAL OF FOUR OR FIVE FAMILIES.

The following excerpt from a letter sent to the Toronto World by a resident of the city, now in Bartle, Cuba, will interest our readers:

Mr. Wetherup had, as you know, purchased forty acres and one town lot. He has since purchased nine additional town lots and taken an option on another eighty acres. Mr. Wetherup is selecting for a number of his friends. He intends to have five houses erected on the ten lots this fall, and to have them occupied by five families from Lindsay. He is letting the contract this morning for the erection of the first house. The land that has been cleared looks remarkably well, and this is going to be the prettiest and liveliest spot on the island this winter.

Notwithstanding the fact that the rainy season is on, this is one of the pleasantest times here, as it rains about an hour every day and cools the atmosphere and makes it very pleasant.

I met Sir William Van Horne in Camaguey. He is delighted with the progress we are making. His men are here to build our new Bartle station, and the material is arriving every day, which will be of cement blocks and one of the best in Cuba. Quite a number of the Bartle people have gone north for their families, and it is certain that there will be a great rush here in September.

THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND.

Baby's Own Tablets is not for babies only. It is a medicine for children of all ages. It is gentle, laxative and comforting. It cures indigestion, all forms of stomach troubles, constipation, simple fevers, diarrhoea and makes teething pleasant. It is a medicine in every dose. Mrs. Henry Master, London, Ont., says: "Having used Baby's Own Tablets I can say with sincerity that I know nothing as good for simple fevers or stomach and bowel troubles. My baby has thrived splendidly since I began giving her the Tablets." You can get Baby's Own Tablets from any medicine dealer or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DO YOU GET DUNS.

Some people regard every request made to them, either verbal or in writing, to settle a bill as a dun. A dun is supposed to be more or less persistent. Just why any man should find fault when someone to whom he owes money asks him to pay it is more than we have been able to comprehend. If you owe a man money you ought to pay him if you can. If you cannot, it is your business to explain why you cannot. Most people pretend some thing or other to pay their bills. But not many are as prompt as they should be or as they would like others to be. It is a very easy matter when asked to pay a bill, to explain to the creditor why you cannot do it and ask for more time. The debtor will generally get a more time if he is dealing with a reasonable man. The expediting thing in connection with creditors is to write letter after letter, or send statement after statement to a debtor, and have him ignore them apparently with silent contempt. It is under such circumstances that the creditor gets irritated and gives the account perhaps to an attorney, when exercising a little sense on the part of the debtor, the matter could be easily and amicably adjusted. Do not look on a dun to irritate you. It is right for a creditor to ask for his money when he does not get it, and to keep asking at intervals till he does get it.

About Store-Keeping

The Wise Man said: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches"—and in store-keeping a good name is one of the best assets.

The store-keeper who means to stay in business has a great practical advantage when his goods are known as simply, surely, and perpetually reliable.

The reputation we have obtained for complete reliability, has been steadily earned and constantly maintained through the thirty years we have been in business. That good name is a guarantee to all who buy here. We cannot afford to sell inferior goods, nor can we afford to advertise anything, no matter how low the price, unless the article is good.

That is one strong reason why you can always depend on getting only the best and purest Groceries here, and why our Teas and Coffees are famous from one end of the county to the other. No profit temptation can lead us to tamper with the quality—it is always the same—First Class.

SPRATT & KILLEN, THE FAMILY GROCERS.

OBITUARY.

Death of a Former Oakwood Lady in Michigan.

This following from the Cass City (Mich.) Chronicle of Friday, May 18, will be read with deep regret by Lindsay and Oakwood vicinity, the deceased being a sister of Williamson brothers, formerly of this town, but now of Edmonton, Alta;

Mrs. A. A. P. McDowell departed this life Wednesday afternoon, May 16, at six o'clock after an illness of about a year's duration. Her death came as a severe shock to the family who were making preparations to leave for Edmonton, Alberta, next week to make their future home. In hopes that the change of climate would prove a benefit to Mrs. McDowell's health.

Euphemis J., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williamson, was born December 11, 1862, at Oakwood, near Lindsay, Ont. She was a member of the first class of graduates in 1893 from the training school for nurses connected with Nicholls' hospital at Peterboro, Ont., and enjoyed the honor of winning the special medal offered for bandaging. She engaged in private nursing in that locality until in November 1896, when she was united in marriage to A. A. P. McDowell of this place, at the home of her parents in Lindsay, Ont. They came directly to Mr. McDowell's home at Cass City, where they have since resided.

Prior to coming to Michigan she was a member of the Canada Presbyterian church, but after coming here she united with the local M. E. church. She was also an endowment member of Hazel Hive, L. O. T. M. M. In November, 1901, she lost her sight, yet retaining very good health until about a year ago, when serious illness proved the existence of an intercranial tumor. She partially regained her health, but the physician's best efforts were unable to stay the progress of the malady. She suffered intensely at times, but towards the last fell into a stupor from which she did not rally.

Mrs. McDowell was a most affectionate and loving wife and mother. Her affliction prevented her from enjoying many socialities, but many have learned to love her for her cheerful and winning ways. She was well educated and a brilliant conversationalist, attractive in manner and above all a true, christian woman. She never gave up the hope that some day she would gain her sight.

STALLION ANNOUNCEMENT

We have for service the pure bred Clydesdale Stallion 'SIR BEN' (No. 12739, Vol. XIV. Imp.)

The Clydesdale Horse has long been recognised by breeders, dealers and farmers to be the best draft horse in the world, no other breeds rivalling his weight, finish and quality of horses. Being hard to obtain they are not so prominent in this country as in Scotland, where they have been kept for generations in pure bred stock.

SIR BEN is a massive horse of great substance and quality, standing on short legs and wearing the best of feet, bone and hair; beautiful deep brown color, with four white feet and strip on face; stands 17 hands high and weighs about 2,000 pounds. He was bred by Peter Algie, Old Maives, Inshinnan, Renfrewshire, Scotland; imported 1905 by John Anderson, Paisley; owned by Edward Costello, Downeyville, Ont. This horse is one of the best bred Clydesdales in Canada, and farmers are invited to inspect him and decide for themselves.

SIR BEN will make the season of 1906 for the most part at his own stable, one mile east of Downeyville, but will be taken every Friday morning to John Murray's, on the boundary of Ope, and he will stand FRIDAY afternoon and SATURDAY at the Central House, Lindsay. Terms to insure $14.00, payable 13th February, 1907.

EDWARD COSTELLO, Owner. Downeyville, May 9th.—w8.

Joseph and William; and a daughter, Janet, are left motherless. Her husband and parents of this place; four brothers who reside at Edmonton, Alberta; and one sister, who resides in Toronto, Ont., are also living.

The funeral services will be held in the M. E. church this (Friday), afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. E. N. Mulholland officiating and her remains laid to rest in Elkland cemetery.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their affliction. Peterboro papers, please copy.
