KINMOUNT. (From Our Own Correspondent.) A serious accident was narrowly averted on the evening of the picnic, a mix up between two rigs being the cause. Mr. Harry Kelly, of South Verulam, was driving along the road leisurely, unconscious of the presence in close proximity of Mr. M. Cairns' swift racer, who turned out to pass, the result being a general scramble in which Mr. Cairns' rig got the worst of it. No serious casualties are reported.

A sad accident occurred to a little boy of Mr. Martin McGee's lately. It seems another child, a little girl got between the rig and the car, and it proved to be loaded and struck the child in the face, one abut entering the eye. It was thought advisable to have the little sufferer removed to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. It is thought that it was thought possible to save one eye.

A social function was held Wednesday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Burns, Galway. All the youth and beauty of the neighborhood were there. Games, music, dancing, etc., was indulged in and a pleasant evening was spent.

The picnic which was held here on June 28th, under the auspices of the C.M.B.A. society, was a most gratifying success. Henderson's grove was the ground selected for the day's outing, and a more suitable could scarcely be found in the whole north country. A dance platform was erected and was well patronized by the young people all day. Booths were also set up for the sale of various most tempting forms were prepared by the ladies. Games were on the programme of the day's sports and were keenly contested. The proceeds amounted to about one hundred dollars.

CANNINGTON. (From Our Own Correspondent.) A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Thomas Kennedy, Cannington, on Wednesday, June 25th, when Miss Annie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, was united in marriage to Mr. James Scorrison, farmer, of the township of Cannington. The ceremony was conducted into the parlor by her father, Miss M. Anderson playing the wedding march. Miss Harrison, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. The bride was dressed in a light blue gown, and the bridesmaid in a light blue gown. The wedding party consisted of twenty-four persons. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives. The ceremony was a most successful one, and the bride and groom were both very happy.

Mr. L. Clarke, of Toronto, spent Dominion Day at home in our burg. (From Our Own Correspondent.) The anniversary services held here on Sunday and Monday last were most successfully carried out in every detail. On Sunday both services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clarke, of Little Britain. The church was crowded at both meetings. Mr. Clarke is an earnest and forcible speaker, and was just to the point, and with rapid attention. On Monday morning, a service was held at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Clarke, of Little Britain. The church was crowded at both meetings. Mr. Clarke is an earnest and forcible speaker, and was just to the point, and with rapid attention.

A barn raising at the home of Mr. John Williams, sr., last week, was the chief attraction. It being one of the most successful of the kind, it required an unusually large force of men to erect it. The captains were Messrs. Geo. Marjams and Harry Chapman, who selected the site with the best possible care. The race from start to finish was both keen and spirited. After a most exciting contest, Harry's side was declared the winner by only two rafters.

Supper was served on the lawn of Mr. John Williams, sr., by a number of the young ladies of the neighborhood, and everything passed off without a hitch. Mr. Frank Scully is the contractor, and he deserves much credit for his work as a mechanic. (Balance Next Week.)

DALRYMPLE. (From Our Own Correspondent.) A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. Mary Newby, on the town line. The bride was Miss Mary Newby, daughter of Mr. G. O. Hewitt, of Ardara. The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock by Rev. R. A. Deive, of Dalrymple, in the drawing-room of the home, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bride was wearing a white crepe de chene, trimmed with cream point lace, with beautiful lace collar. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations, and wore white carnations in her hair. The bridesmaid was Miss Martha Newby, dressed in cream voile, over pink taffeta, carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was given away by her brother, Mr. James Newby, of Orillia. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Wm. D. Howitt, who ably discharged his duties. After the happy ceremony was ended and congratulations received, the guests sat down to the wedding dinner, which was of the finest quality. Guests were present from Orillia, Ardara, and Waubesahe. The presents were useful and valuable. At five o'clock the happy pair left for their home at Ardara, where a huge reception, awaited them from North Orillia friends. The bride's going away costume was brown Venetian cloth, with hat to match. All their numerous friends join in extending their most heartfelt wishes that a very long and happy journey through life may be vouchsafed Mr. and Mrs. Howitt. The usual sermon to the Orange-men of Dalrymple, will be delivered next Sunday morning in the Methodist church by Rev. R. A. Deive. (From Another Correspondent.)

The annual picnic of the Dalrymple and Strabright Methodist churches was held in the Parsonage Grove on Dominion Day. Though the weather was unfavorable a tremendous crowd was present. An excellent programme was rendered. The football match between Victoria Road and Strabright teams was won by the former by 2-1. A good programme of sports was run off, with many close contests ensuing. The proceeds amounted to $148.
