Loans to Directors. Besides transactions with the Dominion Savings Co. Mr. Milne admitted to Mr. Tilley that he had crossed-firing that Matthew Wilson, a director of the Union Trust Co., had put through a loan of $75,000, which was done to get some money invested by this loan company in the west.

Mr. Tilley then sprung an agreement between one of the directors (John Ferguson) showing that he was to pay $10,000 of two per cent. renewal. Mr. Milne said that it was treated as a loan from Ferguson and he was taking the renewal as security. The deal did not appear in the returns to the Government.

Mr. Tilley said: "Then you deceived the department at Ottawa. Have you ever done this since?" "Yes, all along. The Ferguson account stood at the end of the year about $23,000."

"By his paying in and your paying out in this way the expenditure has been kept a little lower without showing the source, is that right?" asked Mr. Tilley.

"Yes," replied Mr. Milne. "So that at the present time you owe him nearly $40,000, and this is the income that is not shown in your return?"

"I have done that," said Mr. Milne. "I did not treat it as such." "I did not treat it as such." "There is no doubt your intentions were good, but you did not go about it the way the law says you shall," said Mr. Tilley.

BBY COVERED WITH SORES. Would Scratch and Tear the Flesh Unless Hands Were Tied—Wasted to a Skeleton—Awful Suffering for Over a Year—Grew Worse Under Doctors—Skin Now Clear.

WOULD HAVE DIED BUT FOR CUTICURA. "My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. The first was a small red spot, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come on his arms, then on his chest, and then on his legs. He was in great pain and would not sleep. I tried many doctors, but they did not help. I was told to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. So great was my faith in them that I bought a small box of Cuticura. I took it home without any faith, but to my surprise the sores dried up. I tried it a little, and it seemed to dry up the sores. I sent to the drug store and got a cake of the Soap and a box of the Ointment. I followed the directions and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He has never had any more of any kind since. He is now strong and healthy, and I can sincerely say that only your most wonderful remedies can cure such terrible sores. I used only one cake of Soap and about three boxes of Ointment.
