PICTURE What is a Backache?

IT IS NATURE'S WARNING TO WOMEN Diseases of Woman's Organism Cared and Consequent Pain Stopped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It seems as though my back would oreak." Women utter these words over and over again, but continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, "bearing-down" pains, nervousness and no ambition for any task.

They do not realize that the back is the mainspring of woman's organism, and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the female organs or kidneys, and that the aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed. pound has been for many years the one and only effective remedy in such cases. It speedily cures female organs and kidney disorders and restores the female organs to a healthy condition. Dear Mrs. Pinkham :-I suffered a long time with female trouble, having intense pains in the back and abdomen and very sick headaches every month. I was tired and nervous all the time and life looked very dreary to me and I had no desire to live until I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to get some relief. My recovery was slow but it was sure, and I never regretted the money spent for the Compound as it brought me back to good health.

"It seems to be a medicine especially adapted to the ills of our sex and I am glad to say a good word for it."-Mrs. Albert Mann, 154 Gore Vale Ave., Toronto, Ont. No other person can give such helpful advice to women who are sick as can Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice free.

"VIVE DREYFUS!"

Meanwhile Count Esterhazy Says There Is Still Evidence of Guilt and End Is Not Yet.

Paris, July 16 .- The celebration of the French national holiday Saturday assumed especial significance in connection with Dreyfus resuming his place in the army. The Official Journal published a decree announcing his reinstatement and promotion and the inscription of the name on the list of chevaliers of the Legion of Honor. Major Dreyfus, who remains in his apartments, is besieged by many friends, who are congratulating him on his final success. Hundreds of felicitations have reached him by mail, telegraph and cable. The date of his receiving his sword and putting on his uniform awaits his assignment to a regiment. What Esterhazy Says, In an interview with the London correspondent of The Matin, Major Count Esterhasy is reported as saying that Capt. Dreyfus was a matter of indifference to him, and that he believed Col. Sandheer, former chief of the secret intelligence bureau of the French army, had proofs of Dreyfus' guilt. Count Esterhazy said he thought the affair was not yet ended. President Fallieres Saturday reviewed the troops at Longchamps. The principal feature of the day were the enormous crowds and the frequent shouts of "Vive Dreyfus," showing the prevailing sentiment. The review was a brilliant spectacle, the whole garrison of Paris participating.

Eruptions Appeared on Chest, and Face and Neck Were All Broken Out - Scales and Crusts Formed -lowa Lady Has Great Faith in Cuticura Remedies for Skin

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I had an eruption appear on my chest and body and extend upwards and downwards, so that my neck and face were all broken out; also my arms and the lower limbs as far as the knees. I at first thought it was prickly heat. But soon scales or crusts formed where the breaking out was. Instead of going to a physician, I purchased a complete treatment of the Cuticura Remedies, in which I had great faith, and all was satisfactory. A year or two later the eruption appeared again, only a little lower; but before it had time to spread I procured another supply of the Cuticura Remedies, and continued their use until the cure was complete. It is now five years since the last attack, and have not seen any signs of a return. I have taken about three bottles of the Cuticura Resolvent, and do not know how much of the Soap or Ointment, as I always keep them with me; probably one half dozen of each.

"I decided to give the Cuticura Remedies a trial after I had seen the results of their treatment of eczema on an infant belonging to one of our neighbors. The parent took the child to the nearest physician, but his treatment did no good. So they procured the Cuticura Remedies and cured her with them. When they began using Cuticura Remedies her face was terribly disfigured with sores, but she was entirely cured, for I saw the same child at the age of five years, and her mother told me the eczema had never broken out since. I have more faith in Cuticura Remedies for skin diseases than anything I know of. I am, respectfully yours, Emma E. Wilson, Liscomb, Iowa, Oct. 1, 1905." Murderer of Stanford White Will Not Have Insanity as Plea.

New York, July 16 .- Mrs. Wm. Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, accused of the murder of Stanford White, returned to New York Saturday on the steamer Kaiser-Augusta Victoria. When the passengers landed at 5 p. m., it was too late for Mrs. Thaw to visit her son in the tombs.

Won't Be Called Insane. It was announced last night that Harry Thaw had dismissed the law firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Boning in a fit of anger. Judge Olcott, who has been the active member of the firm in connection with the case all along. has insisted that insanity be made the chief point in the defence, it is believed, while Thaw has insisted with emphasis that he would not permit the insanity plea. Saturday the firm received this letter from Thaw:

Dear Sirs,-After careful consideration, I have concluded to make a change in my attorneys, and while I have no possible criticism to make of your conduct of my case, my decision is such that I have concluded to no longer retain you as my attorneys. You will therefore regard your connection with my case as finished, and will please deliver all papers in my case to Clifford W. Hartridge.

Mr. Hartridge and ask you to communicate with him at once. Yours Herry K. Thaw. Mr. Hartridge heretofore acted as personal counsel to young Thaw.

WHISKY NERVED MURDERER

Mrs. Spindleman Sat on Camp Stool In Front of Their Home and Was Dead In Seven Minutes After Bullet Crashed Through Her Head-Husband's Cold-Blooded Remark on Gazing at the Body.

Windsor, July 16 .- His courage bolstered up to the murder point by whis-My, Christopher Spindleman Saturday night shot and killed his wife as she sat on a camp stool in front of their residence. Seven minutes after the bullet crashed through the woman's head she was dead, slain in the sight of four of her children. One of them, Robert, who boarded nearby, and who witnessed the crime, ran to the scene and snatch the revolver away from his frenzied father just as he was about to end his own miserable existence. Struggling desperately, the two men rolled about the lawn, one battling to overcome his mother's slayer, the other to place the revolver in such a position that he could blow out his brains. Youth triumphed and held until the ar-

Believing that the man was sorry for his deed, Maitre, his heart filled with pity for the trembling, blood-stained wretch, led him back to the lawn, where the woman lay, dead. Blood trickled from a wound just in front of her left ear. "That is just where I intended to shoot her," said Spindleman, heartless-

ly. Then he was led away. The tragedy was the result of man's life devoted to whisky and toabuse of the woman he had sworn to love. Neighbors say that most of Spindleman's money was spent in saloons. For his wife and children he provided but poorly. The wife remonstrated many times, but Spindleman was past all reformation. Her recriminations led to bitter quarrels that grew'so in frequency that Robert, the son, left home and boarded with neigh-

At 5 o'clock the husband returned even more intoxicated. He flourished the revolver in his wife's face, but the brave woman was not cowed. The quarrel continued until after 5 o'clock, when Mrs. Spindleman, convinced that her husband meant to kill her, took three of the children and left the house. Shortly after, she returned and seated herself on a camp chair on the lawn.

Revolver flashing in the air and uttering horrible curses, Spindleman sprang from the front door, ran to his wife, and before she had time to flee, fired a bullet into her head. With a moan on her lips, she sank to the ground, where she lay dying, while the struggle took place between her husband and her son.

Spindleman is 57 years of age and his victim was 43. They had been married about 20 years.
