VICTORIA CO. CHEESE BOARD.

A LIVELY DISCUSSION AT LAST MONDAY'S SESSION

18-16c the Highest Offer, but Most of the Board Sold Much Lower.

The Victoria County Cheese Board which meets every two weeks, is beginning to attract a number of outsiders to the sessions, as there is generally something worth listening to.

The buyers present Monday a. m. were Messrs. Whitton, Cook, Fitzgerald and Flavelle.

Before commencing the regular business the President, Mr. Thos. Robertson, stated that they had now got the C.P.R. line through to Bobcaygeon and were prepared to ship on that line. The buyers should give the farmers a chance to ship from that point—perhaps not at this sale, but at the next one. "We would like to have the pleasure of shipping at Bobcaygeon," concluded the President.

Mr. Flavelle started the bidding at 7 5-8. Mr. Cook raised to 7 11-16, Fitzgerald called 7 1-2, and Flavelle made it 7 3-4. A little intermission then took place, after which Mr. Whitton raised to 7 13-16. Mr. Fitzgerald following with 7 7-8; Mr. Whitton then raised to 7 15-16 and Mr. Fitzgerald called 8c. After another pause Mr. Whitton raised to 8 1-16. This was not bettered, and he called Red Rock, which accepted and Cameron offered 7 15-16 for further selections. On this offer being made Mr. Fitzgerald got into a discussion, in which he accused Mr. Whitton of doing a factory out of some $75 at a previous sale.

Mr. Whitton—"I say it is not so."

Mr. Staples (Red Rock)—"I've seen nothing wrong."

Mr. Whitton—"I'm perfectly willing to go to arbitration if necessary."

Mr. Flavelle—"7 7-8."

Mr. Whitton raised to 7 15-16, and Mr. Fitzgerald called the same figure.

Mr. Whitton—"I would like to say a word. I bought cheese at Peterboro and I defy Mr. Fitzgerald or any one else to show a cleaner sheet than I have; I have got as clean a sheet as the Hudson Bros. (To Mr. Fitzgerald)—"Did you carry out your bargain on this Board at the last sale? I have my call at 7 15-16."

Mr. Fitzgerald—"I'll bid 8c." He selected Reboro and Mariposa and offered 15-16 for further selections.

Mr. Whitton—"You have not got 200 yet. I like to stick to the rules of the Board. 15-16 for balance of the Board."

The President made an attempt to call out the factories, but Mr. Fitzgerald again made a crack at Whitton about the $75, when Mr. Whitton said, "I will make you prove that I did a factory out of $75."

Mr. Fitzgerald—"You've got wind."

Mr. Whitton—"I have enough wind for you."

Mr. Whitton then called Maple Leaf.

The salesman—"I don't like to sell at less than the highest. Do you pay in Lindsay?"

Mr. Whitton—"I can't do it." He then called Omeo and Dunsford.

ALIEN LABOR BILL PASSED

New York Mutual Reserve Association's Bill Passed After Criticism—Col. Ward Urges Independent Survey of Trent Valley Canal—Commission Appointed to Investigate the Georgian Bay Fisheries.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The House of Commons rose Saturday night just as the tower clock was striking the midnight hour. For some minutes previously that strict Sabbatarian and veteran Parliamentarian, Mr. Ross of Victoria, N.S., had been agitating nervously about for fear that members in their anxiety to push business might encroach on the Lord's Day, and finally he uttered a warning in a stentorian voice. He had a sympathetic listener in the Finance Minister, who took care that the House adjourned before Sunday had been reached.

There was a lot of business crowded into the day's sitting. Sir William Mulock's alien labor bill passed its final stages and went to the Senate.

Mutual Reserve Association.

The bill from the Upper House for the relief of the policyholders in the New York Mutual Reserve Association was put through, although not without some criticism, which lasted for two and a half hours. The bill was introduced and explained by Mr. Heyd. Mr. Frank Oliver and Mr. Honore Gervais led the Opposition to the bill. Mr. Oliver took the ground that the bill wiped out two-thirds of the value of the company's policies in Canada. Mr. Gervais quoted a judgment of the Privy Council given Saturday in Foster v. Mutual Reserve, in which the policies were characterized as tricky and intentionally ambiguous. In the face of the decision he thought the House should not interfere. He moved an amendment to clause 3, providing that no reduction be made in the deposit with the Government for five years, except to pay death claims.

Hon. Mr. Fielding pointed out that the deposit could not be interfered with even for death claims. The bill was eventually reported and passed.

The Trent Valley Canal.

On the motion to go into Committee of Supply Lieut.-Col. Ward brought up the question of the construction of the Trent Valley Canal. He urged that there should be a survey of the whole route by an entirely independent engineer.

Mr. Gervais urged the necessity of appointing Canadians to the British Consular service in the interests of Canadian trade. Prorogation may not take place until Tuesday or Wednesday next, perhaps later.

Georgian Bay Commission.

The commission to investigate the Georgian Bay fisheries has been appointed. It consists of Prof. Prince of the Fisheries Department, chairman; Mr. John Birnie, K.C., Collingwood, and Mr. John Noble of Little Current.

Hon. Mr. Sifton was in his place in the House, having returned from the West. The first order of business was the adoption of the regulations made by Order-in-Council under the Dominion land act affecting the Yukon Territory, standing in Mr. Sifton's name.

Mr. Fielding announced that the business taken up on Monday would be the resolutions affecting railway subsidies and the tariff and supply. The House adjourned at midnight.

Senate Passes Bill.

On Saturday the Senate passed the Anti-Tobacco Trust Bill, that providing for payment of bounties on crude petroleum, the bill to amend Animals' Contagious Diseases Act and the bill to amend the Militia Act was read a second time.

Hastings Star Editor Injured.

Hastings, Ont., Aug. 8.—A Hastings lacrosse player was badly injured at Havelock in Friday's match. While Havelock were trying to score, Easterbrook of Havelock struck T. E. Scriver, the editor of the Hastings Star, over the eye, completely bursting it. As there was no doctor in the town he was taken to Norwood, where he had medical attendance. He left Saturday morning for the hospital in Toronto, where he is undergoing an operation to have his eye removed.

Foley Used An Axe.

Hamilton, Aug. 8.—Dan Foley, 66 Market street, wanted to get rid of two of his roomers, Charles and Mrs. Brown. They had a wordy row, and Foley knocked Brown down with a stick. Dropping the stick, Foley seized an axe and started to finish the job with it. As the axe was descending on Brown, Mrs. Brown clutched Foley's arm and the weapon grazed Brown's leg, cutting a great hole in his trousers. Foley was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of aggravated assault.

Back to the Cape.

London, Aug. 8.—Lord Roberts, accompanied by Lady Roberts, will return next month to the scene of his victories in South Africa. One of the objects of the journey recalls the saddest loss sustained by the gallant general and his wife, for they will re-visit the grave in Natal of their brave boy, Lieutenant Roberts, who fell fighting for his country on the Tugela.

Trouble in Tonquin.

Paris, Aug. 8.—The general commanding the French forces in Tonquin, French Indo-China, having represented that the frontier posts are insufficiently guarded and asked for 6,000 men, the Government has decided to send reinforcements, of which a contingent sailed from Marseilles yesterday.

WEEKLY POST LETTER BOX

WHAT DID HAPPEN—and WHAT MAY HAPPEN.

(To the Editor of the Post.)

Sir,—What did happen, happened Sunday afternoon at the Riverside cemetery, when scores of our people were caught in the storm—many of them women and children in light summer dresses—with no place of shelter within a mile. Many were drenched to the skin, resulting no doubt in a crop of colds, with their usual disagreeable and expensive consequences, to which may be added the expense incurred through the destruction of clothing.

There are few cemeteries to-day connected with towns as large as Lindsay, without some shelter in the shape of a chapel or pavilion where people can take refuge under conditions such as yesterday. Is it not time that the Cemetery Board took this matter in hand? No doubt but the Fraternal Societies and the general public would assist financially, if necessary.

"What may happen," may possibly happen some Friday evening while the band concert is in progress on Kent-st. Some young life may be crushed out, or somebody maimed for life, by being trampled under the feet of a frightened horse or crushed beneath the wheels of an erratic automobile. In such an event, the town will be liable for heavy damages, as there is no excuse—nor reason for holding these concerts on a public thoroughfare with the town park within a stone throw.

Besides these risks, our citizens, by the present arrangement, are put to great discomfort. Two hours is a long time for ladies and children to stand or tramp the streets, and many are compelled to rest by sitting on the door steps of the stores or on the edge of the pavement, breathing in the dust and dirt raised by the passing carriages.

His Worship, Mayor Sootheran could not have been present at any of these weekly concerts or there would have been no occasion for these remarks.—Yours, etc., N. HOCKIN. Lindsay, Aug. 8th, '04.
