CHEMONG PARK REGATTA.

Sturgeon Point Contestants Carry off Twelve Prizes. Quite a large representation of Sturgeon Point cottagers attended Chemong Park Regatta on Saturday, and sustained the reputation of Sturgeon Lake sailors and canoeists by carrying off twelve of the prizes. The attendance from Peterboro and the various lake points was large, but a heavy wind interfered with the success of the affair, and led to the wetting of a number of jacks. The general arrangements were well carried out, and the committee in charge deserve much credit. It is expected that the Regatta will be made an annual event. The Sturgeon Lake winners were:

Taken With Cramps

Wm. Kirnse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday evening with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to leave the members of the gang wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told Mr. Kirnse to take a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out, and accordingly three doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to walk quite freely. The incident speaks highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elyria, Iowa, Argus.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believed I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists."

A Shot at Col. Sam.

Toronto Saturday Night, in an article referring to a discussion in the House on the subject of improper use of the mails, says: "As usual, Colonel Sam Hughes, who is something of a newspaper man, 'batted in' plausibly 'free trade in reading and advertising.' He is reported as saying, 'Let the people read what they like and buy what they like.' Such a policy would make the post-office a sewer through which filthy publications and pictures would be carried all over the country. If he still has a newspaper he would not dare, even if he were willing, to follow such a policy, and when he said that the farmers were able to protect themselves from the Bastard's General gave him the good shot: 'It takes the farmers of North Victoria a long time to find out some people.'"

Fish Stories.

A truthful man fishing went upon a summer's day. He hooked a six-inch minnow, but Alas! it got away! On his way home the angler met a friend and stopped to say. He caught a fish a foot in length, but that it got away. When he reached home he told his wife, (The) well he knew 'twas wrong. That fish that got away from him. 'Twas over two feet long. And tho' this was a month ago; His story never grows stale; The minnow scarce six inches long, Has now become a whale.
