AT CAMP TOGO, ROSEDALE

JOLLY TIMES ON THE SHORE OF BALSAM LAKE.

Jottings From Camp Togo—Lindsay Ladies Have Dinner and Praise the Cuisine.

Well, well! We landed at the beauty spot Monday at 2 p.m. after a tempestuous trip in the Fenelon river. It is a blamed shame that motor boats and larger crafts should be so annoyed by jams of logs such as happened Monday.

Tents were pitched and pantry arranged by 5 p.m., and our expectations run high for a good time. An extra pleasant surprise was in store for us the first night. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, of May Villa, invited us over for a quiet evening, which developed into a night of hilarity. By 8.30 people filled the house and all indulged in cards until the strains of the violin in the kitchen were heard when a general stampede occurred. Until the wee sma' hours they tripped the light fantastic. A very dainty repast was furnished by the hostess, which was heartily enjoyed. The party consisted largely of guests of the house and other summer tourists in the neighborhood. A pleasant feature of the evening was the highland fling and sailor's hornpipe, cleverly executed by Miss Jessie Spence, a sweet little miss of twelve summers, daughter of Mr. Francis Spence, Engineer of the Trent Valley staff.

Mrs. Spence, we believe, is the most successful angler on the waters, but for perseverance Rev. McKay takes the palm and will be heard from later.

H. J. Lythe and family are comfortably settled in their handsome new summer cottage.

Mr. George Lythe, of the Machine Telephone Co., Peterboro, with his party, passed through to Cobocok Monday.

Miss M. Millay and Miss C. Nottingham, Toronto, are guests with Mrs. Sutherland.

The "Togo" party will sail tomorrow for Cobocok to participate in the Civic holiday events and expect to land some of the large prizes.

Baby Neil, the 4 months daughter of Major and Mrs. Neil, is the pet of the neighborhood, and the parents are justly proud of her.

Mrs. Hamilton, widow of the late Robt. Hamilton, Peterboro, is one of the many guests at May Villa.

V. McIlhenny, T. McIlhenny and Frank Sheehan, of Toronto, had dinner with the Togos Tuesday.

"Togo Camp" looks like a second edition of the great Barnum and Bailey circus, and has about as many clowns. Flags are flying from every tree top and the white Chinese lanterns put the moon out of business at night.

Miss Nellie Graham of the Oriental hotel, Peterboro, is under canvas with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Spence and dine at May Villa.

Sigmar Henry Meohan, the celebrated singer and comedian, Dutch comedian, will appear at Togo Camp on Saturday night. The boys will sail to the Falls in quest of him. Hope he don't miss his train.

Friday, Aug. 8th, '06.
Everything is lovely and fishing is great. Weather conditions and everything have been favorable, and the boys are putting in about 95 hours per day, having a good time. Must say, however, they are not keeping the best of hours, but that is excusable, as the nights are simply superb.

Tuesday about 8.30 a.m. the Major, wife and baby, Mrs. Spence, Jessie and Neil, W. Goodman and Fred, Mrs. Hamilton, Dan, Harry and R. J. Menzies, spent a grand day at Chateau Island. The Major and Mr. S. attended to the fishing, the rest went after red and hudsonian rays. Mrs. Spence landed three of the finny tribe, the Major one, and it was not long before the fish were sizzling in the pan. Mrs. Hamilton played her part as a waiter in a most capable manner.

Wednesday the whole camp went over to celebrate Cobocok's Civic holiday and had a good time barring the extreme heat.

Thursday all off to Fenelon Falls. An immense crowd from Port Hope, everything lovely but heat more heated than ever and the boys, Dan and Harry flew back to the cool spot, Rosedale on the Kawartha, the rest of the party coming home on "Togo" later.

We miss the "Kill Time" campers very much, their sweet voices in the "Glor" song in the early morning making a good start for a good day. The Peterboro party from Cobocok will be the guests of Camp Togo Saturday for dinner. Commodore Percy will "put-up" for them in the morning, and they will return to Cobocok on the balsams. They will be as welcome as the flowers in May, and the larch hangs on the outside for any one at Camp Togo.

Mr. Geo. Ewart, of Lindsay, dined at the camp Wednesday and was under the white tents over night. He slept soundly on the balsams.

With regards to Miss Miller, Toronto, badly adieu to Rosedale after a very pleasant sojourn at May Villa also Miss Watson, who takes her departure to-day. May they return in 1907.

Fell Down Stairs.
Mr. Thos. Fowler, who lives over Messrs. Stewart & O'Connell's law office, missed his footing and fell down a flight of stairs Monday evening. He was taken to Ross Hospital where it was found he had come down with a bad shaking up and an injury to his neck. His brother came up from Peterboro to see him.

HEAVY HORSES NOT WANTED.

British Remount Officers Believe in the Moderate Sized Animals.

Col. C. H. Bridges, C.B., C.M.G., of British Army Remount Department arrived in Montreal on Saturday morning on a trip to Western Canada, where he will purchase cavalry horses for the service. He made some interesting statements yesterday with regard to the kind of horses now in demand by the British cavalrymen, especially in South African service where it was found that the Canadian horse was the superior of any other for the climate and the work. He said:

"Heavy horses are a back number in modern military work, especially after the experience of the British Army in the South African war, and only horses ranging from fourteen hands three inches to a trifle over fifteen hands are now sought for. We want only light, wiry horses of a type which, formerly for the army, and for Canada, is quite common in the ranching country of the West. Our experience on active service has shown that the light built wiry horse of the mounted infantry type is infinitely the most useful, and that is the kind of horse I am in search of."

Col. Bridges will spend probably a month in Canada before taking his purchases back to England. A keen eye for the West he will return to Eastern Canada in search for the same type of horse.

Of course, he stated, the price would largely depend upon the quality of the animals offered, but he allowed a limited discretion in this, an average price being fixed by the army authorities.

WASTED LIVES IN LINDSAY.

Men and Women Who are in Need of a Helping Hand.

It is hard for those who are never ill or who have simply a sick day or week occasionally, to realize the wretched existence and wasted lives of those beset with chronic indigestion.

There is no more irritating or nerve-racking condition than that caused by a weak stomach. It gnaws and wears upon every nerve fibre in the body and results in sleeplessness, headache, backaches, rheumatic pains, furred tongue, distress after eating, poor appetite and general weakness and debility.

As we may look to a weakened stomach for most of the chronic or lingering ills, that weaken and rack our lives, it is of the greatest importance to know that a remedy for stomach troubles is at last offered by the reliable drug firms in Lindsay.

Knowing the formula of M-O-N-A, we feel that it will be successful in every case where it is used according with directions, that is, one tablet before each meal.

A large box of M-O-N-A tablets costs but 50 cents, if it helps you; nothing unless it restores health. If you cannot obtain M-O-N-A at your druggist, it will be sent by mail, postpaid on receipt of price. Write us for advice on your case from a leading stomach specialist which will be sent free. The R. T. Bouth Company, Ithaca, N.Y. 3-10

Childhood Bangers.

Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and stomach troubles are alarmingly frequent during the hot weather months. Too often these troubles become acute and a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. During the hot weather season every wise mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house to check these ills if they come suddenly. Better still, an occasional dose of this medicine will keep the stomach and bowels clean and prevent these dangerous ailments coming. Mrs. John Lanessney, a dealer in this best of all medicines, was attacked with diarrhoea and severe vomiting. I at once gave Baby's Own Tablets and the next day she was as well as ever. I find the Tablets are the only medicine a little one needs. I will mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

A Broad Minded Premier.

(Hamilton Times). It is doubtful if the Lord's Day Bill would have passed the House of Commons had it not received the strong and steady support of Premier Laurier. The opposition was so strong and the opinions on the provisions so divided that had he been lukewarm in its favor the measure would likely have been withdrawn or killed. Speaking of this matter the Rev. Robert Johnson, of Montreal, (formerly of Lindsay), a leading Presbyterian divine, says: "It is well understood that the passage of the bill could never have been secured had it not been for his broad-minded and generous support of it. Personally, and I believe, I speak for a great many, my always fervent admiration for the Premier has been profoundly increased. It is something for which Canada should be thankful that our Premier has been even willing to oppose life-long supporters for the sake of passing a bill dealing with a great moral question, which he felt to be desirable for the best interests of the country. We are accustomed to be told that Canada is ruled by Quebec. But here was a man where the Premier might have been expected to think as Quebec did, but because he believed it was for the good of Canada, and ignored his wishes and helped the Bill through the House. All honor to him."

Visitors Always Welcome.

Our town presented quite a few of the characteristics of a metropolitan centre yesterday, visitors being here in numbers from several outside points. A large party of Knights of Columbus and their ladies from Peterboro and Belleville, arrived on the early train and joined the Lindsay Knights and ladies in a steamer trip to Kirkfield; then came Port Hope golfers and a large body of excursionists dropped off the two double-header trains carrying the Idea Co. employees and friends to Fenelon Falls; next a special train pulled in from Oshawa, carrying the lacrosse team of Kawartha and supporters; and soon after 2 p.m. another special arrived with the Peterboro Shamrocks and admirers from the ambitious city by the Ottonabee. In addition to the above we had a number of visitors from the surrounding villages, as well as a half-dozen from Haldimont Co. and a fair sprinkling of tourists from across the line. The staffs of our hotels were kept busy looking after the large number of visitors, the Simpson house alone supplying 100 suppers, while the Benson house, Pym's and Royal were also crowded.

DOGS AT STURGEON POINT

GOOD TAKES OF FISH HAVE BEEN MADE LATELY.

Garden Party of Mrs. Merritt Knowlson's To-morrow. A quiet hour beneath the trees; A little whispering lazy breeze; A perfect sky. Where, now and then, an idle cloud Strayed from its mates to wander by. And near the border of the wood A thrush that sang, serene and strong. The flute notes of the perfect song We almost understood. Then eventide—amid in the light The mystery that preles the night.

The garden party at Mrs. Merritt Knowlson's cottage to-morrow afternoon under the auspices of the Parish Workers of St. Paul's, Lindsay, is certain to be a most enjoyable affair if blessed with fine weather. It is expected that a goodly number of friends from Lindsay will make the trip on the Kathleen, leaving town at 9.45.

Mr. Chas. Reeves, of Lindsay, has been here for a few days, a guest at Mr. Dickson's fine boarding house. Mr. Reeves has purchased a lot between Third and Fourth-sts., and is thinking of building a cottage this fall.

Mr. C. A. Wilson, proprietor of the North-End, Toronto, is spending a few days here with his brother, Mr. G. H. Wilson, of The Post.

The Rev. J. H. Edmiston, of Chiltonham will conduct divine services at the Union church here on Sunday next at 3 p.m. Mrs. Allen will preside at the organ and an excellent choir will be in attendance.

Last evening while a number of cottagers were in Walley's restaurant, awaiting the sorting of the mail a most exciting dog fight was "pulled off" to use a correct sporting term. Mr. J. D. Flaville's collie, who was not unwilling, the ladies got beyond reach of danger by scaling the counter and tables, and it is whispered that the gentlemen present engaged in the dry goods business felt surprise on noting the great popularity of the open-work stockings. Mr. J. D. Flaville separated the quarrelsome canines at some risk to himself, and now the Point ladies are going around armed with small bottles of ammonia, with which they will besprinkle the next dog that starts a fight.

How to Keep Flies Away.
A correspondent says he tried putting red clover on the horses instead of branches or twigs of trees to keep the flies off, and to his surprise, not a fly bothered the team. The common red clover in bloom, pull it fresh, and place it on the harness between the leather on the bridle and backband, and any place you can put a piece on it and you will be surprised to see how it keeps the flies away. It's cheap and worth trying.

The Wawinet in Port.
Mrs. Wm. McKenzie's palace yacht, the Wawinet, of Kirkfield, made its first appearance at Lindsay dock today, returning about 3 p.m. It had on board Miss Kate and Miss Grace McKenzie, Mrs. Kirkland, Mr. Joe McKenzie, and two lady friends of the Misses McKenzie. The boat presents a spin and sport appearance, being kept in the best of condition. The crew comprises two Lindsay men—Mr. Leo Winters as captain, and Mr. J. Low as engineer.

Swimmers, Beware!
Perhaps the most reckless thing that a swimmer can do is to enter the water soon after a hearty meal. It is believed that in case of experienced swimmers who are seized with cramps and drowned the great majority have committed this indiscretion of immersion after a meal. Cramps is not uncommon and usually is by no means necessarily the cause of drowning. Ordinarily cramp involves only one muscle or group of muscles, and its effect generally is not wholly disabling. There is, however, a form of cramp which utterly paralyzes the efforts of any swimmer. That is abdominal cramp, which is almost entirely due to immersion directly after a meal. At attack of this is very likely to result in drowning.

A FORTUNE FOR HIS HEIR

STRANGE ROMANCE AND TRAGEDY OF A BRITISH SEA CAPTAIN.

His Lives in America and Reward is Offered for His Discovery.

John Cox, an English barrister, who is staying at the Waldorf in New York, is, says a New York dispatch, looking for Henry Pollexfen, son of Captain Pollexfen, a retired seaman, who was murdered in London last winter. He says he has a fortune for the young man; in round numbers nearly three-quarters of a million dollars was found in London in his father's name. Mr. Cox had intended, he said, conducting the search for the missing heir quietly and through the proper channels, but the loss of the Spanish gold piece bearing a portrait of the missing heir forced him to insert the following advertisement in a New York paper:

"A reward of $1,000 for the present address in America of Henry Pollexfen, son of Captain Pollexfen, who was murdered recently in London; also suitable reward for Spanish gold piece bearing portrait and inscription on one side lost on Fifth Avenue."

Mr. Cox was found by a reporter at the Waldorf, and, after saying that he was a member of a firm of English barristers, with offices at Bishop Gate, he told the story of Captain Pollexfen's life.

"How did he get his money?" Well, it appears that he came across the wreck of a Spanish ship off Hayti many years ago, and found in it a fortune. Coco, a negro servant, was the only person who knew of the money. He said he had been told that it was found in this wreck. The son and father were estranged about a year ago and the son sailed to this country. He has not been heard of since."

Briefly, it appears that he had been for the greater part of his life the captain of a British steamer. Nobody believed he had much money. He retired early last fall. Those who watched him closely found that he was eccentric, and frequented queer places. He went into the quietest section of East London and rented rooms from an old bachelor. He kept to his room for a few weeks and carefully guarded an antiquated sea chest. About the opening of winter he changed his mode of life. Mr. Cox said he gave dinners and lived high for a time. "One night last November he was murdered, his chest broken open and $100,000 in Spanish gold and other valuables carried off. The body was found in a trench, and a man named Masters is held for the murder. Our firm took up the case and on examining his papers, found that he had deposits in various banks amounting to fully three-quarters of a million in money."
