FLOUR MILL TOPPLES OVER

Break Occurred Near the Centre of Syracuse—Two Breweries In Danger of Wreck-Canal Boat Drivers Have Narrow Escapes-Traffic Will Be Tied Up for Several Days-The Arches Break.

Syracuse, N.Y., July 31.—The arches of masonry which support the bed of the Erie Canal at a point near the centre of this city, where it passes over Snondaga Creek, gave way yesterday afternoon and four canal boats were drawn into the bed of the crack beneath, fifty feet of the wall of the three-storey Empire flouring mill were precipitated into the water and the Bartels and Greenway breweries, respectively on the north and south banks of the canal, were threatened with demolition The driver of the canal boat, Peter J. Roler, of Black River, noticed that the boat was moving too rapidly and hurriedly moored it to the canal bank. The rope snapped like so much thread, Fred Race, the owner of the boat, brought his wife and eight-year-old daughter on deck, and when the boats neared a safe section of the wall, all jumped to shore. miles in length and Division Superintendent Thomas Wheeler immediately ordered the water drawn off. All canal traffic is tied up and it will be several days at least before the damage can be repaired. The boats and cargoes are total losses.

Invasion of Anglers. Toronto World. A jovial buach of a dezen anglers from Pennsylvaunia are quartered at tithe Iroquois. They hail from Greenburg and Lat-

Tobe, and their destination is Kawartha Lakes district. "We are getting the habit more and more on our side of the line of striking for somewhere, in Ontario for our fishing jaunts," one of the party remarked last night. "A few years ago we used to think we did i't need to go away from home, but we are becoming educated to the first that the real angler's paradise is farther up north."
