STARS AND STRIPES WAVING

American Visitors Refuse to Honor the Union Jack.

The following item, taken from an exchange, mentions a grievance that is becoming far too noticeable on our lakes owing to the influx of American tourists. Canadians cannot be accused of being too sensitive on the point mentioned, because it is seldom we hear of any yacht or launch flying the objectionable flag being tampered with in any way, but this constant flaunting of an alien flag, and the precedence accorded it over the flag of the country, tends to produce a feeling of irritation in the minds of our people that does not conduce to the growth of good relations between the tourists and the residents of the districts they visit. Here is the dispatch:

Sublime Point, Aug. 24.—Canadian campers at Rice Lake complain of the apparent disregard on the part of the American tourists of the fact that they are in British territory and sailing on British waters.

A number of their own and operate launch, gasoline and motor boats, and it is a very rare occurrence to see any of the American boats flying the British ensign on any part of their craft, while the Stars and Stripes of the United States is all too prominent, as if the owners took a delight in thrusting the American flag before the eyes of the Canadians, who, on their part, submit to it in silence.

While, of course, there is no law governing the matter, the Canadians here are of the opinion that courtesy to the flag under which they are sojourning would induce them to recognize it in some way.

It is pointed out that were British subjects to invade American territory to the extent that the Americans have come here, and parade their flag on the Stars and Stripes being done here, there would be some objection raised.

There is no fault to be found with the Americans coming to Canada to spend their summers—and their money—but it is felt here that while they are here it would be more becoming were they to recognize that they are sailing in British water.

There has been no demonstration against the practice of ignoring the Union Jack, but there is a rather strong feeling on the matter, and it is somewhat galling to see the yachts shooting around the lakes, nine-tenths of them flying a Stars and Stripes flag at their stern. The situation suggests these words of Lord Roscommon:

Immediate words admit of no defence, For want of decency is want of sense.

Advertising Pays.

The Canadian Association of Master Bakers listed the other day to a paper on "The Methods of Advertising," by Peter Rutherford.

Mr. Rutherford said that newspaper advertising should be encouraged by the bakers. Every man, he said, should have a business that was worth advertising, so every baker should be a user of ample newspaper space.

To-day coal is selling at Lindsay at $7.20 per ton delivered, whilst Omemee dealers charge only $6.60 per ton delivered. How is this to be explained anyway?"

—"I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my Pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you, free, a trial package of them—Dr. Shoop's head-ache tablets. —Toronto Star: "Everybody" says that the annual turnover of Marshall Field's retail store in Chicago is twenty six and a half millions of dollars, and of Wanamaker's Philadelphia one about twenty millions. If it be true that Eaton's is thirteen millions, the comparison is greatly in Canada's favor. In that case Canadians undoubtedly are greater readers of newspaper advice than are the Americans. The fact should be remembered by business men everywhere:

—I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart, or the Kidneys. Trouble of the stomach, heart or kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart and kidneys as well have their controlling or inside nerves. Weakness in these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's restorative has made its fame. No other restorative ever claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free book. Dr.

Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

—Mr. C. Bert Naylor has installed a fine case of stuffed birds in the rest of his barber shop.

—Governor Snelgrove, of Cobourg, offers a reward of $100 for the apprehension of Norman J. J. Prime, alias H. G. Warren, who escaped on Aug. 9th.

—Perhaps one of the oldest signs in Lindsay is located over the G.T.R. ticket office. It has been there so long that all the letters are worn off. The name was "Perrin's Drug Store."

—The old Cobourg and Peterboro railway bridge across Rice Lake is being repaired, and rumor has it that the steel is to be relaid in connection with the re-opening of the Blairton iron mines.

—Mr. Edward Earl, a North Havy farmer, shot and killed a large male lynx one evening recently. The animal was prowling about the house. He happened to see a Bob-caygen tourist, who is having it mounted.

—A car of coal, in being shunted on to the Flavell Milling Co's siding, was allowed to run too fast the other day. The bumper at the end of the track did not stop it, and the front trucks were given quite a twist in the run off. No serious damage was done, however.

—Get a free sample of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" at our store. If real coffee disturbs your stomach, your heart or kidneys, then try this clever coffee imitation. Dr. Shoop has closely matched Old Java and Mocha coffee in flavor and taste, yet it has not a single grain of real coffee in it. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Will keep in a minute. No tedious wait. You will surely like it. Sold by all dealers.

ANAEMIA CURED.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Bring Back the Glow of Health by Making New Blood.

To bud into perfect womanhood the growing girl must carefully guard her health. Unless the blood is kept rich and pure, headaches, backaches and frequent dizzy spells will trouble her. She will always be ailing and may slip into a deadly decline. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a never failing remedy in building up the blood. Just a short time ago the reporter of L'Avenir du Nord had the following cases brought to his notice. In the town of St. Jerome, Que., there is an orphan asylum under the care of those zealous workers—the firey Nuns. In this home Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are constantly used. For some months two of the young girls in the home were afflicted with anaemia. The symptoms in both cases were very much alike. They were both pale, lost all energy, and were subject to headaches and dizziness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were taken and soon there was an improvement in their condition. The color returned to her cheeks; their appetite improved; headaches ceased and soon good health took the place of despondency. What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for these two orphans—Marie Lavoie and Dora Brooks—they will do for others.

The secret of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing anaemia, lies in their power to make new, rich, red blood. That is why they strike straight at the root of all common ailments like headaches, dizziness, backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion, anaemia, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis and the special ailments that afflict almost every woman and growing girl. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Tolerance.

(Detroit News.)

The good Catholic dean of St. Catharines, Ont., who couldn't subscribe money to help build a new Methodist church, but who gave a liberal sum towards the expense of tearing the old structure down to make place for the new, is one of those men whose very existence is a rebuke to intolerance, and whose best is warmer than any written or carved creed can be.
