GOOD PUMPS

The day of iron pipes and cast iron cylinders is past, as the public know from experience what you want when you buy a pump is galvanized iron pipe, brass cylinder and steel rods, which do not rot or taint the water.

We are making a large bore brass cylinder and steel rod pump which will outwear and throw more water than any pump on the market.

Our practical man, Mr. J. Dennis, looks after all orders and repairs, and we can guarantee satisfaction. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

AS TOLD IN THE POETS' CORNER.

BE A BOOSTER ROOSTER.

Do you know there's lots of people a-stayin' round in every town. Growin' like a broody chicken, knockin' every good thing down? Don't you be that kind of cat, 'cause they ain't no use on earth.

You just be a booster rooster—crow an' boost for all you're worth. If your town needs boostin' boost 'ar don't hold back and wait 'ar too long.

If some other fellow's willin'—sail 'right in, this country's free. No one's got a mortgage on it, it's just yours as much as his. If your town is shy on boosters, you get in the boostin' biz.

If things just don't seem to suit you an' the world seems kinder wrong. What's the matter with a boostin' just to help the thing along? 'Cause if things should stop a-goin'—you'd be in a sorry plight—You just keep that horn a-blowin'—boost 'ar up with all your might.

If you see some fellow tryin' for to make some project go. An' you can't boost it up a trifle, that's your cue to let him know. That you're not a-goin' to knock it just because it ain't your 'bout.

But you're going to boost a little, 'cause he's got the best thing out. If you know some fellow's fallin' the same forgot 'em, for you know the same fellow's got some good points, them's the one's you want to show.

'Cast your loaves out on the waters', they'll come back, a sayin' true. Mebbe they will come back 'buttered' when some fellow boosts for you.

MY UNCLE KNOWS.

I was always used, when I went to bed, Right under the clothes to hide my head, But my uncle Joe came back one day— I was only three when he went away— And he told me what I didn't know In all my life, did my uncle Joe.

"There are no bogies at night," he said, And crickets and such things scattered round, Tucked up in the dark all safe and sound; "An' 'sneaks out of Wonderland," said he, On the lookout for sleepy-heads like me."

So I'm not afraid of the dark one bit; But I lie half awake, just watchin' it; And wait for the dreams to take my hand And lead me away to the Wonderland. Sometimes I think if it wasn't true, But just pretendin', what should I do! But since he says it, it must be so, For my uncle knows, does my uncle Joe.

THE DEAD ONE.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said: "My trade of late is getting bad, I'll try another ten-inch ad!" If such there be, he'll mark him well, For him no bank account shall swell; No angels watch the golden stair, To welcome home the millionaire. The man who never asks for trade, Can't mean for rest than worldly gain And patronage but gives him pain; Tread lightly, friends; let no rude foot Disturb his solitude profound; Here let him rest in calm repose. Unthought, except by men he owes, And when he dies go plant him deep That night may break his dreamless sleep. Where no rude clamor may dispel The quiet that he loved so well And that the world may know its loss Place on his grave a wreath of moss And on the stone above, "Here lies A man who did not advertise."

STRANGE TURNS IN POLITICS.

(Weekly Sun, Toronto.) At the last session of the Dominion Parliament, Mr. Scaffner, of Souris, moved to reduce the duty on agricultural implements from 17 1/2 to 10 per cent. Mr. Borden, Conservative leader in the Commons, is against the motion and the Bradford Expositor links the motion and proposed tour together. It says if Bradford is on Borden's list of places of call, perhaps he will tell the manufacturers of that city whether or not he is in sympathy with the motion introduced by one of his followers. Could there be a more striking illustration of the change which has taken place in party alignments since paragraph? Here is a leading Liberal journal challenging the leadership of the Dominion Conservative party to defend a movement inaugurated by one of his followers, inaugurated towards free trade. Is the press towards free trade. Is the press will get be found fighting under the low tariff banner, with their one-time free trade opponents upholding protection, to be fulfilled?

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

Honeybourne—Barry

The home of Mr. Chas. Fynn was the scene of a very pretty wedding: Wednesday, Aug. 21st, when Nellie, daughter of Mr. Garrett Barry, of Fenelon Falls, was united in the bonds of matrimony to William Honeybourne, of Lindsay. Rev. A. C. Collier, M.A., curate of St. Paul's, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride was prettily gowned in cream crepe-de-chine over a lace waist and carried a bouquet of asters and roses. Miss Violet Barry, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore cream serge and carried a bouquet of asters. Mr. Charles Farrfield, Allandale, was best man. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. John Barry, of Fenelon Falls. The house was decorated for the occasion with a variety of flowers arranged neatly.

After the ceremony was performed a pleasant time was spent in music, singing and games. The young couple left later for a visit to the bride's parents in Fenelon Falls. On their return they will reside at 20 William-st.

McFadden—Begley

Peterboro Review: At eight o'clock mass in St. Peter's Cathedral this morning was celebrated a very interesting ceremony in the marriage of Miss Mary Philomena, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. Begley, to Mr. Hugh Francis McFadden, of Lindsay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McColl, in the presence of a number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride, who was attired in a neat traveling costume, was assisted by her cousin, Miss Mary Begley, of Lindsay, both carrying beautiful bouquets. Mr. James Gilroy, of Lindsay, ably filled the duties of best man.

OBITUARY

Death of Mrs. Maines.

Free Press, Aug. 22nd: After an illness of only a few days, Mrs. Wm. Maines passed away at her home, Queen-st., on Monday evening. Deceased, though not enjoying the best of health, had a number of boarders. One of them had an abscess on his neck, which Mrs. Maines had been dressing. By and by her thumb became sore, but no attention was paid to it for several days, thinking it was a splinter that was causing the trouble. It got worse, however, and became inflamed and swollen. Dr. Clark was called in and pronounced it blood poison, caused in all probability, from dressing the abscess on the boarder's neck. Treatment was at once administered, but the poison rapidly spread throughout her entire system, and on Saturday morning she became unconscious, in which condition she remained until death. Mrs. Maines had spent a life of service, tending the ill of others and nursing them back to life. Six years ago her husband met his death at one of the saw mills here and was laid to rest in Lakewood cemetery. She had reached the age of 66 years, and survived by three sons, two daughters, and two sisters, the latter being Mrs. Perry Brown, of Toronto, and Mrs. Lorne Starr, of Lindsay.

For many years she had been an active member of the Loyal True Blue Association, and on Wednesday the members of Midland Faith Defence Lodge headed the cortege to Lakewood cemetery and performed the last sad rites to the departed sister, who rested peacefully beside her sleeping husband. The deceased was a consistent and pure-living member of the Baptist church. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Simpson, in the absence of the Baptist pastor.

HOTELKEEPER DARGY WAS GUILTY

Indians Who Fought on the Esturion Got Liquor There.

The drunken Indians who created a disgraceful row on the Esturion while returning from Stony Lake regatta on the 12th inst. were tried for the offence on Thursday before County Magistrate Edmondson, who gave judgment as follows: Their departure on the charge of assaulting Fred Wright, mate on the steamer, Isaac Johnson was fined ten dollars and costs. On the same charge Jonas Jacobs and Alex. Knott were assessed five dollars and costs and David Jacobs, one dollar without costs. For "being drunk" David and Jonas Jacobs and Alex. Knott were each taxed five dollars and costs. What the costs in each case will amount to is not known yet, but it is expected that they will be pretty heavy.

HEAVILY FINED

His Worship also gave judgment in the case of H. V. Darcy, proprietor of the Park Hotel, Burleigh Falls, for selling liquor to an Indian on Civic holiday, August 12th. Mr. B. F. McWilliams appeared for Darcy. He was fined $2000 and costs, which is the minimum fine under the clause relating to the sale of liquor to Indians.

HUNGRY FOR GOOD CHEESE

FIVE BUYERS ON LINDSAY BOARD MONDAY MORNING.

Mr. Clomes, for Flavies Ltd., bought 1396 Boxes at 11 1/2c.

There were a pleased lot of salesmen at Monday morning's meeting of Victoria County Cheese Board, the reason being the presence of five buyers. They were Messrs. Brown, Clomes (for Flavies Limited), Gillespie, Cook and Weir, Peterboro. "We are after cheese," remarked Mr. Weir to President Robertson, after a hearty handshake. "The quantities are dropping up down our way, and we've got to come to you."

"Glad to have you come often," responded Mr. Robertson. "Somehow the demand seems keener when we have a couple of visiting buyers." And the home men looked at one another and smiled.

FACTORIES BOARDING.

The following factories boarded the number of cheese placed opposite:

Star	99
Camron	70
Dunford	112
Marigou	85
Cambray	65
Omcmech	170
North Verulam	115
North Ops	75
Reaboro	102
Bobaygeon	170
Maple Leaf	109
Red Rock	110
North Harvey	53

(Number boarded same date last year, 1521).

THE BIDDING.

"Now, gentlemen, make your offer," remarked the President. Mr. Clomes let off with 10 3/4c. Mr. Cook called 11c. Mr. Weir made it 11c. better. Mr. Clomes came back with 11 1/4c. Mr. Cook made it 11 1/2c. for the Board, and Mr. Clomes took the mark and raised to 11 7/8c. He called Reaboro, Bobaygeon and a few other factories, but the patrons refused to part with their product at the price, manifesting a desire for the even half.

"The figure I've offered is the highest given in two weeks," remarked Mr. Clomes. This failed to meet the hearts of the salesmen, although one of them expressed his willingness to accept the offer if the others would.

After a few moments' delay Mr. Clomes said, "Well, I'll make it 11 1/2c." He called Bobaygeon, Reaboro, North Verulam, and Red Rock as a starter, and on getting his second wind, went ahead with a rush until every factory had been cleared up.

"Well, we've had a real nice visit," remarked Buyer Cook, "but I'm sorry to go away empty-handed. You've got a mighty good price, because I count it worth an extra sixteenth to inspect and ship cheese from this district."

The next sale will be held two weeks hence, when the last half of August make will be offered.

DELAYED EXCURSION PARTY.

Esturion Arrived Near Bobaygeon—Late Crouled in Lindsay.

Evening Post of Aug. 23. Citizens who venture the trip down the river or lake at this season of low water seem to be incurring considerable risk of disaster. Last evening the Esturion took on at the lower wharf about 75 people, some of whom had walked a mile and a half to reach the dock. The steamer was bound for Bobaygeon, where a garden party under the auspices of Christ church was the attraction.

Part of the Sylvester band went along, and the trip down may be enjoyable one. However, Miss Brooks managed to land passengers in safety, and all enjoyed a couple of pleasant hours, the villagers extending a cordial welcome.

On the return trip things happened—as the boat was passing out into the lake she grounded and remained fast for almost an hour and a half. A line had to be passed to the shore, several hundred yards away, and the captain insisted by passengers, before a release was effected. The 2 a.m. before the Sturion Point people disembarked, and almost 4 o'clock when the lower wharf was reached and the many excursionists set out on their journey over the rails and ties on their weary way to town.

Touring the Kawarthas.

Evening Post of Aug. 22. The handsome steam yacht Sammie, from Lake Couchiching, arrived in port last evening with the Tudhope party, of Orillia, who left that town Tuesday to make a tour of the Kawarthas Lakes under the guidance of Mr. Geo. Goodwin, of this town. The party comprised: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tudhope, the Misses Begg, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke, Mr. Roy A. Crane and Dr. A. H. Morton. They spent the night at the Simpson house, and this morning secured carriages and inspected the town thoroughly, being most favorably impressed. After dinner they boarded the yacht and left for Bobaygeon, on their way down the lakes.
