THE MARINE DEPARTMENT MOVES

Could Not See Its Way to Extend Time for Dumping Sawdust Into Ottawa River for Another Year, and Instructed Department of Justice to Take Action Under Clause 2, Chap. 95, R. S.

Ottawa, Sept. 5 .- On the instrucons of the Marine Department, the took cut a summons against Mr. J the Ottawa River. The emptying of so fierce were the flames that after now burn their sawdust, but the latter still continues to make the spring and was well equipped for the river a dumping ground. About a month ago warning was given to Mr. Booth that action would be taken against him unless he conformed to the law. Mr. Booth wanted a delay of twelve months in order to adopt another means of getting rid of the troublesome sawdust. The department evidently does not see its way clear to making the concession. The section under which the prosecution is brought renders the offender liable to $20 and costs for the first offence, to a penalty not exceeding $40 for the second offence, and in addition a further penalty not exceeding $10 for every day during which the offence is continued. ## TERRIBLE CHINESE FLOODS, One Third of Shanghai Population Dead

Say New York Cables. New York, Sept. 5 .- The following cable despatch was received The Christian Herald of this city yesterday from Rev. Arthur Smith of Tien Tsin, chairman of the Famine Relief Committee:

Chefoo, Sept. 3. Klopsch, New York; Terrible Yangtze floods. Dr. Richard and others approve appointing Shanghai 'ommittee of Chinese and foreigners, embracing consuls, merchants, missionaries, distribute relief. If funds not all required in Shensi, then transfer to Yangtze.

(Signed) Smith. A second cablegram, received several hours later, showed the urgency of the situation. It was as follows: Chefoo, Sept. 3.

Klopsch, New York:

Dr. Klopsch cabled to Chairman Smith, endorsing the decision of the committee to apply the unexpended balance of the Famine Fund in behalf of the Shanghai flood sufferers. The committee, under the terms of its appointment, has full power extend its relief operations, and will probably begin work at once in the city of Shanghai and other portions of the Province of Kiangso, where the terrible inundation has resulted in the loss of life and property.
