Toronto Mail and Empire: The Ontario Beet Root Sugar Company held an organization meeting yesterday at the Board of Trade. It is understood that while Dunville is pressing to have the factory located there, other places have not given up hope, and are pressing their claims. Among the places mentioned are Aylmer, Lindsay and Whitby. Shipping facil'ties and a large supply of beets are the great requisites of a site for the factory.

His Birds are Winners.

Mr. D. C. Trew, our famous poultry fancier, returned Saturday morning last from the Toronto Exhibition, He exhibited in the Houdan class and swept everything, capturing five 1st and four 2nd prizes, in addition to all the honors. His record was; 1st for cock bird; 1st and 2nd for pens; 1st and 2nd for cockerils; 1st and 2nd for pullets; 1st and 2nd for breeding pen. Mr. Trew refused $20 o'f red by Mr. Bogart, of New York, for a pair of birds only 4 1-2 months old, but may yet part with them if his price of $30 is accepted.
