MR. WEESE'S SALE OF HORSES. Buyers Had Money and Did Not Take

Advantage of the Credit Limit. The sale of horses held by Mr. W.m. Weese last Saturday at his stables, Nos. 8 and 9 Melbourne-st., proved fairly successful, 19 of the 25 animals being disposed of by Auctions c Bowes at prices ranging from $27 to $160. The lot included roadsters, general purpose and depught animals; and the terms were six months' credit, with 6 per cent. interest. It is an evidence of the prevailing prosperity when we say that all the buyers preferred to pay cash. Quite a number of farmers attended the sale, but they proved timid bidders, and permitted all the choicer animals to be picked up by outsiders. Mr. Weese has a rumber of good horses on hand, and is always randy to sell or buy.

the Fire Hall. In the course of a few days our citizens will be able to regulate their time pieces by the sonorous and tuneful striking of the hours by: the town clock high up in the tower of the new fire hall. Mr. Wm. Web. ster has given the mechanism a thorough overhauing and says the clock chould keep excellent time, being or English make and all the parts well phlynced

On Wodnesday Mr. McGeuogh and a couple of men lowered the town fire alarm beil from the town haft capola and elevated it to its new position in the fire half tower alongside the cicck. The operation was watchked with great interest, and no hitch occurred. The bell, which was cast by the Troy foundry was purchased in 1872, and weighs 1300 lbs. Eventnally the bell will be connected with the automatic fire alarm system and the tapper will be operated by; electricity whenever a box is pulled.

He was uncorscious for a time, and Dr. McAlpine, who was called in, says there is concussion of the brain.

Miss Mitchell's Millinery Opening. Although the weather was rather gloomy Friday of last week Misa Mitchell's rooms as usual were crowded with visitors, who were delighted with her display of millinery, mantles, fine dress goods and assorted ready-made suits. One hat that was very much admired was of Freuch blue and hunter's green mohair in a large rolling shape projecting in front and bent down closely to the hair in the back. A darge slashed felt rosette of green felt, thrust with a fancy quill, adorna the front, while a heavy ecru face shape falls gracefully over the hair at the back, caught with pearl laced with blue taletta ribbon. -A religious census is about to be taken in London under the direction of the Ministerial Association in ore der to ascertain what proportion of the population is non-church going.

An aged ministen at Catskill, N. Y., the other day made an eloquent plea for aid for superannuates, in the course of which he thus expressed his idea of modern tendencias in the church: "What is wanted in those days," he said, "is a kid, A minister of ripe experience is turned aside for a goil player, and the question is named, 'Is he a joily good fellow?' He is the one who gets the fastrionable churches, and the old minister is laid upon the shell to spend the remainder of his days as Sec.-Trees, best he cap."
