Sunlight Soap does not harden or shrink woollens

It is injurious chemicals and adulterations in common soaps that destroy your clothes. It is adulterations that harden your woollens and the excess alkali that destroys and shrinks them.

Sunlight Soap

contains no adulteration or excess alkali. It is just pure saponified fats and oils. That is why it cleanses your clothes perfectly in hard or soft water and does not injure them. All dealers are authorized to return your purchase money if you find any cause for complaint.

LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED, TORONTO The Sunlight Maids find that flannels do not shrink when washed the Sunlight way

"A murky night coming on! Yes, and schemed for it!"

be right after all."

teeth, and I to take the watch.

CHAPTER XIX.

the night, but just before dawn the re-

Under cover of the darkness Alec had landed his heavy load of men from Galley island on the west shore of the harbor, near to its entrance, but out of sight of the Spanish sentinels at the cave's mouth. Then he returned to ny and the others whom we had left bauting their boat up high and dry,

came out to discover its cause, but aft:

swore that he would smoke them like threat they surrendered at discretion.

After they had been disarmed and placed for security, together with the Galley island prisoners, in a convenient aisle of the cave, a small party was left to guard them, and the rest, arming themselves with the captives'

Temple hill to relieve us.

arquebuses, made their way to the Completely shielded by the thick un-

Their Jancied security had made them were able to surround our besiegers

and cover them with the arquebuses before they made their presence known. The first indication which Don Sancho and his crew had that they were trapped was the call to lay down their arms and surrender or they were all dead men, and the gallant don, seeglinting on steel barrels all around so doing he probably saved many lives,

The long struggle was over, and now dergrowth and by the darkness, they lief which I had prophesied came.

80+0++++++++++ PIRATE.

By WEATHERBY CHESNEY and ALICK MUNRO. (Copyright, 1900, by Weatherby Chesney and Aliek Munro.

* zied, and presently, still without taking his eye from the prisoner, he rap-

"Best kill him at once, Master Topp, for fear of accidents."

A flicker of fear passed quickly over the Spanlard's face at the words, but it was only a flicker, and in an instant

"You hear, Don Miguel?" said I. "Have you any plea to urge why we should not kill you?"

"No," he said shortly; "no plea that you would consider adequate." I knew of one which he might have urged with success, but as he evident-By did not at present recognize me it was not the time to remind him of Whithy and Vigo.

"Then, senor, you do not shrink from

"Would you promise us immunity from burt If we set you free?" "No, I will not, for you would meek one if I did. And," he added flercely, 20 mr word shall not be held up to the

This reading of my thoughts and intantians took me back somewhat, but after a moment's pause i asked if he would give his word not to attempt to attack us or to escape, supposing that I ordered the hoatswain to release him from his present uncomfortable dur-

"Yes, senor, I pledge my honor so far." he answered carelessiy, so I hade Willie rise. He did so after some demur and very unwillingly.

The Spaniard gazed at me sullenly and persistently, and as I began to feel eerie and uncomfortable under his stare-for I feared the evil eye, and those black orbs were baneful-I told Willie that I had something for his priwate ear. With a bow to the prisoner which, considering that I was long unused to movements of courtesy, was passable enough I led the way down stairs, and Willie followed, carrying Don Miguel's sword and dagger tucked underneath his right armpit. Some 20 steps below be halted, but I bade him go farther still, for I wished to be sure that we were out of earshot of our cap-

"Now, Willie," I said when we had searly reached the bottom; "why this steem? Our fortune could not have

"No," replied the boatswaln slowly, "but we might have made a better use

TABLE THE BEEFFE HE FOR FREERI'S ENFORT. THE FOR MADE THE STAY IT," WAS THE FE-

"Finderstand me." I said sternly; " wan't have Don Miguel injured while he is in my hands, if for no other reamon because he can be made to serve

"Age," answered Willie scornfully; that he can. We've left him up there alone, an he can send a hail to Don Sancho to tell him how matters are. Who's to hinder him, since we don't seem to want to? Pho. Master Topp! D'you think our bird won't chirp to his mates when he's got the chance?"

"I hope so." "You hope so! Why, Master Topp, legged little don will have another | him, cared neither to parley nor to you must be bewitched. That bandy score o' men up from the cave before you can wink." "Let him. We can hold our snail's both Spanish and English. "But not against starvation. The the slaves had become masters and the house against them."

bananas is about done already, an I'd | masters slaves. The Spaniards had lost Hefer tackle a leather scabbard than | not a few more men in the final skir-"How is the wind, Willie? Or has and relentless swords against thera- Shiloh's our sailor's eye deserted you along but except that the man called Sam Shiloh's the skins." with your other faculties? Come, tell | had died of his wounds on Shelter isyour sailor's eye deserted you along there when you were sitting on the lish had fallen. There were 32 of us don's stomach." The boatswain shot a look of perplexity at me, and then his eye brightened. He began to see my drift. "Chopped round gently to the east-"ard," he answered promptly. "Swell left and each man ready and able to Cure The Lung fight nke a bulldog if need be. We had many wounds, but as the poorness or our recent entertainments had kept us all spare of body nature's unaided surgery would soon heal them, for it is only when men are full fleshed and hot going down an big clouds floating high blooded that wounds bring fever in an unbroken. A murky night coming thain tooin

Our prisoners were 122 all told, and to arrange for the safest manner of disposing of them a council was held as soon as all hands had rested some-and win man, whose prophecies had brought him great respect, was fiercely anxious to kill them all forthwith, and most of the men, the older ones especially, were inclined to agree with him. Willie Trehallon, however, would not hear of it. He had recovered his skin cap and now rubbed it fore and aft across his bald pate with fierce energy while he spoke. "No, no, old man," said he; "it's ill counsel you be giving us this time. I'll kill Spaniards with you in hot blood as long as I can stand an never ask for a finer sport, but to butcher them defenseless an unresisting isn't an Engish sailor's job at all. It's a common hangman's work, that's what it is, an Willie Trehalion bain't going to sully hook or fist by doing it. On the high seas," he added reflectively, "I grant you it's different. There you can blindfold a prisoner an leave the gangway open, an then if so he chooses to march overboard, why, it bain't your fault, an you've no call to bring the ship to an waste time in picking him up. But this that you be wanting us to do, old man,

"Oh, ho, ho! Ah, ha!" laughed the old man. "What dainty gentleman have we here? Why, Willie Thehallon, you with a face molded out of a Portingale orange by four strokes of a marline spike, you with a body as delicate and graceful as a side of beef, you that have lost a hand and an eye in bloody warfare with these same gentle Spaniards for whom you plead what about Captain Alexander Ireland and the lads with him? Will he sleep so prettily, are your feelings become through that murky night, think you? so nice and finniking that you blench Or will the boat leave Galley island and turn sick like a girl at the thought on the instant that darkness falls? I of a don or two dancing the devil's tell you, Willie Trehalion, my sworn | hornoipe on empty air? Is that you, shipmate will be at the cave's mouth | Willie Trehalion?" "Aye," replied the boatswain sullenbefore the midnight glass has turned, and it seems to me that he ii and his ly. "that's me, if you like, a fighter with the best o' you, but never a mur-task an easier one if half the foe is sitting round the snail shell. Why, man, I derer." "What!" cried the old man angrily. "Will you never learn? Have not their "An you were right, Master Topp," beatings, jailings, starvings, cursings, said the boatswain, half vexed at findmade you suffer enough yet? Tender ing himself in the wrong. "I yow you hearted maiden that you are, you will let the wasps regain their nest once And with that we went aloft again, more, and then you'll wonder that they he to resume his interrupted sleep become out with fresh venom in their side Don Miguel, whom we found lytails to sting you again. Come, Job, ing down in the shelter of the snake's tell this dainty uncle of yours how you served the wasp that seamed that purple scar across your forehead." The day passed and after it most of

"Crushed un," said Job, with a grin, "Ever a fool was Job," muttered his uncle to the rest of us, "an now he turns fool's evidence."

Job chuckled, and the old man broke out into his weird, unearthly laugh. "Oh, ho, ho! Fools both, do you say, my pretty boatswain? Well, perhaps It is so. Job here, fool by birth; Shelter Island and took off Jan Pengo- fool by Spanish torture, and yet both of us at times wiser by many a long there. The two parties joined and, fathom than every man of you. Never scott at fools, my masters. The emmarched with silent haste round the peror of the Indies has a fool for his harber till they came to the flat before | vizier, and a motley coat rules half the the cave. Here, leaving the others am- | courts of Europe. Ah, ha, ha! Listen bushed in the thicket, Job Trehallon | to me now. At times I can be the mad and Alse crawled through the grass | dest, merriest, eleverest fool of the lot and statked the sentinels, who, as their | i can jest for you, rule for you, can fancied security had made them care: | omens for you, prophesy for you and less, were easily surprised and silene: | all without sight of star or burning of ed. Then the rest of the party came up | mystle charm; but new I do none of at a run and formed a circle round the these." He hauled himself painfully to his feet and looked round upon them The Spaniards, hearing the noise, with a gesture of frightful menace, "No, I bid you stay. Slay these cursed er some three or four of them had fall: | Spaniards from commandant to cable

en in the scuffie they drew back again | lad. And if it be a crime on my head into the darkness. Also thereupon be it. Slay!" His voice rose to a shrick at these last words, and his listeners shrank

"Aye," he went on, "if it be murder, I care not. Look at these legs-like two gnarled and crushed old willows. Every bone in them has been crushed by Spanish tortures. See these distorted arms, knotted like a conjurer's handkerchief. Gaze on this body, seamed with fire, scarred with whips and pinchers. Aye, I am a poor cripple now, but a short score of years ago I could have thrashed big John Topp there as easily as he could trounce me now with his little finger. What could give atonement for these hurts? And yet I do not bld you torture these Spaniards in like kind, but only slay them. Slay them! Slay them! And then-then"-

"An what then, old man?" asked the "Then;" exclaimed the old derceir, "make me your captain, and promise you gold beyond your wildest dreams, I will lead Fou to Manoa." There arese a terrent of voices as he anished speaking. Some deciared that Captain freiand was our leader, and that the old man's words were treason; others that they hated the very name of the golden city, and, while a few called upon the old man to say more, the rest pressed Alec to speak. I joined my voice to these last and by out-shouting the others gained silence. "My lads," he said, "there is not one of us here who has cause to love the Spaniards, least of all I, who have lost a father at their hands, but let us not sully our souls with their murder. No, no; we can do better than thatwe can make them useful. We have a safe prison for them in the cave, and ing the light of his own watch fire they shall be our slaves. As for Manoa, many of us who salled to these seas in the Bristol Merchant have fight, but did as he was told. And by spent years in the search for it already, and the prospect of continuing the quest does not tempt us. But Span-- -- Inches and plate shins litter the > Neglect a cough and contract consumption.

mish at the cave-for there were bitter me what you read in the sky up aloft land and lay buried there no more Eng- Consumption cures consumption, but don't leave it too long. Try it now. Your money back if it doesn't benefit you. Prices: S. C. WELLS & Co. 201 25c 50c. $1 LeRoy, N. Y., Toronto, Can.

Genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

See Pac-Simile Wrapper Below. Very small and as casy

to take as sugar, PILLS. FOR CONSTIPATION FOR SALLOW SKIN. FOR THE COMPLEXION

Price Purely Vegetable. CURE SICK HEADACHE.

main fike isiands in an archipelago, ure. Now, my plain is to make these I don't want him hanged. Fasten his our quarry, for from them a stout Engiish ship can reap revenge and plunder

"So she should," put in one fellow. "But, captain, we haven't got that same stont shin" "we have hands, sirrah," replied Alec, "and some of us brains besides,

The wrecks will afford both material and tools, and we have plenty of captive labor to make the work light. There are artificers among us, and I myself have some knowledge of the shipwright's craft, and so I say let us collect our plankings at once and begin to set up the stocks on which to lay a keel. Has any one of you a better plan

The men looked at one another and exchanged their thoughts in half whispers, and Willie Trehalion, after hanging in the wind for a minute or so, rapped his book against his forehead and came forward as their spokesman.

"We bain't altogether in love wi' galleys, Captain Ireland," said be, "nor with any other ship that's driven wi' slaves' oars. You see, slaves is apt to break out when you're fighting their friends an requires a lot o' victual an attention. An this company, being sailors all an not soldier mariners, likes best to maneuver in battle under canvas an, in fact, backs one round ship to

"And I am with you there, Willie. did not mean that we should put these prisoner dons on a galley's bank and let them taste the bitters of their own prescription. No, not leave cared craft to nations of land soldiers. The winds are the ministers of the Englishman and sails are the wand with which he rules them: Give me a handy craft and I'll warrant to keep the weather gauge of an enemy without cumbering the waist with fithy slaves and teiling off good fighting men to guard them. The Spaniards here shall be far luckler than they deserve. They shall work for us as shipwrights' laborers and shore servants; and when our ship is built and we are fitted for the cruise him any more trouble, and at the back and shuddered when they met his we'll give them a holiday to dispose of to rafit or for any other purpose and find them here-well, we can enslave them again and make them useful. If we return no more again, well. And if we come and find that they have escaped, still well, for they will then be off our hands." Here he paused, and at once there arose a strong langed shout of anprobation, in which all joined with the exception of the old man, who remained moodily silent. The men were delighted with the plan and eager to begin the work of shipbuilding. They swore to follow Captain Ireland to the end and promised death to the first man who should disobey him. Then they rated John Topp as his lieutenant, Willie Treballon as boatswain and Jan Pengony gunner, after which, remembering the old man and thinking he might work mischief unless he was numered; they named him captain of guard ever the priseners and promised to haul him a bembard ashers, with which he could beich language into the natantly and with a herrid terrent of and nutrition. But the one is quicker "Oh, he, hells and "Ah, ha, hall as: if the "Discovery" is used in the sured us that before the month was a week older he would have eccasion to shoot, for that aiready, like an Audes condor, he could scent the steam of panish slaughter from afar.

Meanwhile Alec had the five Spanish officers brought before him armored, but unarmed, and told them what we had decided to do with them. Most of them received the verdict quietly enough. Bandy legged little Don Sancho shrugged his shoulders and, saying that it was the fortune of war, hoped that we would set our tasks light- | years. ly in view of a possible turning of the tables some time in the future. The sallow faced commandant, however, refused absolutely to soil his hands for dress Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. any man's pleasure and set his snarling yellow teeth with the air of a man who intends to keep to his word. "Why, senor." said L "John Topp counts himself as big a gentleman as you any day, and yet holds it no shame to haul and heave with those under him or even to dip his sword hand in the tar bucket if need be."

He turned round sharply when he heard my name. "John Topp, is it? I must ask your parden for not recognizing you in the serpent's mouth last night. You were a little better dressed, I think, last time we had the pleasure of meeting, so my oversight is perhaps excusable. Well, Don John, my feelings on the point differ from yours

- TREO CRFC, LION Miguel. We have & superabundance of work people," said I significantly.

He shrugged his shoulders. "Hang me if you have a mind," he said con-"Or we may follow your own device and make you fast to a post down on the strand yonder at low tide." "You may drown me, senor-drown me by inches if you please, for I am to that extent in your power, but I shall not be your obedient servant." "Oh, ho, ho!" laughed the old man, who had just come up to look after his charge. "Ah, ha! Stubborn and stiff necked, as I was. It does the old man's heart good to see such a lusty fellow. Let me consider, now. What should be the discipline? Something novel and telling and appropriate and bumorous, too, if possible. Why isn't the potbellied little racker here? Dear me, at another time such a piece of pleasantry would be on my lips in a moment! Oh, ho! I have it. We will roast you in your metal shell like some great crab, most illustrious Senor Commandant. You're rather lean, so maybe will be a triffe charred in the process, but the devil, who will eat the dish, is not overnice in his feeding and will forgive the cooks for forgetting to baste." The Spaniard uttered no verbal reply, but shrugged his shoulders and gave a sneering smile which showed no departure from his previous resolve.

Then Alec spoke: "Jan Pengony and Job Trehalion, slip off Don Miguel's iron shirt and bare his back. Now trice him up to the lower bough of that tree. No, not by the neck.

Don Miguel's face showed its first expression of uneasiness.

"Sepor Captain," he said, "flogging to death is a felon's death, and I have done nothing to deserve that disgrace. If you will not hold me to ransom, at least kill me by sword, rope or bullet and let me die like a soldier and a gen-

"But I have no intention of killing you, senor," replied Alec with a courtly bow. "Here, you men, go and bring the rest of the prisoners from the cave to witness the flogging. I am not going to have you whipped to death, Don Miguel, though the old man here is simply going to give you threescore lashes today on the bare back and threeseers more on every succeeding dar that you refuse to work. You mar get tired of your stubbornness in time. and meanwhile the example will be No, old man, don't hurry, Wait for the audience." "Ten thousand times would I prefer death," cried the Spaniard with a venomous oath (fo be Continued.)

surely be unhaupiness. The happiness

At our stage by Pierre's Colden Mestteat Discovery will cure discases of the earlier stages of disease. If you have any symptoms of diseased stomach use "Golden Medical Biscovery" and Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' in May, 1807, and by December I could begin to get about very well. Have been doing my work ever since. Feel better than I have for several

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Ad-

MONTHLY MAGAZINE

A FAMILY LIBRARY The Best in Current Literature 12 COMPLETE NOVELS YEARLY MANY SHORT STORIES AND PAPERS ON TIMELY TOPICS $2.50 PERYEAR; 25 CTS. A COPY

NO CONTINUED STORIES

EVERY NUMBER COMPLETE IN ITSELP

Don't boil or scald the clothes. It isn't necessary. The clothes come out of the wash clear white, perfectly washed. The dirt drops out, is not rubbed in. Child's Play of Wash Day. Use Surprise the ordinary way if you wish but we recommend a trial the Surprise way. Read the directions on the wrapper, Surprise is a pore

We wish to inform our cu-tomers and the public that they will new find us at our New Stand, William-st., north of Webster's Repair Shop.

The prices of all our lines of instraments and machines will be right and quality guaranteed as usual.

A few snaps in second-hand goods. P. O. Box 217

WM. WARREN

Nine out of every ten men have been guilty of transgression against sature in their youth. Nature never excuses, no matter how young, thoughtless or ignorant The punishment and suffering corresponds with the crime. The only The DRAINS, either by nightly losses, or secretly through the urine, must be stopped-the NERVES must be built up and invigorated, the blood must be purified the SEXUAL ORGANS must be vitalized and developed, the BRAIN must be nourished. Our New Method Treatment provides all these requirements. Under Its influence the brain becomes active; the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers disappear; the merves become strong as steel, so that serves ness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and serual systems are invigorated; all drains cease - so more vital waste from the system. The The various organs become natural and manly. We invite all the afflicted to cal and consult us confidentially and free of charge. Cures Guaranteed or no Pay. We treat and cure: Varioccele, Blood Diseases, Stricture, Gleet, Emissions, Urisary Brains, Spermatorrhees, Unnateral Discharges, Kidney and Bladder Diseases.

CONSULTATION FREE.

BOOKS FREE.

If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for Home Treatment. DRS. KENNEDY & KERGAN. 148 SHELBY ST., DETROIT, MICH. K&K K&K K&K K&K K&K K&K

 PASCOE BROS..

CENERAL MERCHANTS, DAKWOOD.

Ten Departments always kept well assorted.

BOOTS AND SHOES. A few lines of ladies' lew shees left, worth $1.25 and $1.50 to Men's Working Boots, from $1:00 to $2.00; Man's Pine Boots, $1.25 to $4.00. Ladies' Fine Lace Beets, $1.85 to $2.80. Special attention has been given to this department, with milefactory recie to ourselves and enslowers.

DRY GOODS. TAILORING DEPARTMENT.

ross New Tweeds, new Pantings, new Worsteds. Fit guaranteed. STAPLE DRY GOODS. We keep a full range of Scaple Dry Goods in Sheetings, Cottonson

Flannelettes, Fiannels, Prints, Livings, etc. We have made a specialty of procuring goods for oustomers, as we it impossible to keep a full range in every department: if goods on anna are not satisfactory to our customers we do not ask them to take goods. The Grocery stock is freshened every week with new TERMS-Cash or Trade, Highest Market Price paid for Butter and Esp PASCOE BROS.

OAKWOOD. Early Closing-Monday. Wednesday and Friday evenings, at 6 o'clost Hindly govern accordingly **********

Pianos, Organ

SEWING MACHINE Large stock of aret class : ments to be sold on liberal to Also Gream Separators

Extension Ladders Kepl

WETHERUP Bow 415, Lindsay, Cor. Sussex and Peel-Sts.

The day of iron pipes and cast iron cylinders is past public know from experience what you want when you buy is galvanized iron pipe, brass cylinder and steel rods, which rot or taint the water.

We are making a large bore brass cylinder and steel not be will outstood and steel not be steel not be will outstood and steel not be s which will outwear and throw more water than any pump Our practical man, Mr. J. Dennis, looks after all order market.

repairs, and we can guarantee satisfaction. Mail orders receive prompt attention. LINDSAY quart

The

KE

Molii

Minn

Toronto

en in the prize and

Show and

His colts

Carriage

Lorn

are follows

LORD

manimum and suports all brief with 6

of the enter !

two qualing

almost as a

Will m

own stab

For Pont

sards - Wif.

We have and pusiness

supply exp

andertake

ALL CLASHES SATISFAC