"STROLLER'S" UNFAIR CRITICISMS.

(To the editor of The Post.) Dear Mr. Editor,-My attention has been called to some remarks made in your paper of last Saturday by your vensatile correspondent, "Strolder". It is contrary to my usual susutterances that appear in the daily press, but in this case some false inpressions may have been left in some minds by the ill-advised statements to which I frefer and I think these ought to be removed / :- :-

In his letter, "Stroller" draws at tention to, and rightly condemns, tue urnecessary Sunday work carried on by the G.T.R., but he unwisely (it seems to me)tries to fasten much of the responsibility for these regrettable conditions on the ministry of Lindsay, by accusing them of guilty silence in the matter, and even iusinuating the possibility of their being "under the thumb" of this powerful organization. He further implies that the Lord's Day Alkance of fur garments has been arranged must also be a useless ongulization since thus far it has not succeeded in bringing this daw-breaking corporation to a halts
