The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Casteria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

In Use For Over 30 Years. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, TO MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Pianos, Organs, and ewing Machines

Highest grade Pianos and Organs. Best makes Canadian and American Sewing Machines for sale at very right prices and at terms to suit any honest purchaser. All goods guar-Come and see us.

WM. WARREN William-st. north, Opposite St. Andrew's Church PO. BOX 217.

Before starting out for yourself be sure and obtain

A BUSINESS EDUCATION.

There is no education worth as much. Any young man or woman with ambition and a solid Business Education—either Bookkeeping or Shorthand—preferably both—will surely succeed. They are needed everywhere and in a great many cases cannot be had. The applications received at the Peterborough Business College have been greater than could be filled, and students are constantly going into positions before completing their course. You cannot do better than spend a few months at this reliable school. Fall Term Begins Tuesday, September 3rd, 1907

Write for particulars to WM. PRINGLE, Principal,

Peterboro, Ont.

ONTARIO MARBLE WORKS.

MARBLE MONUMENTS, HEAD-STONES, PLUMBERS' SUP-PLIES, ETC.

All work and material strictly first class. Being a new firm our stock is well selected and of modern design. Promptness and satisfaction our motto.

Nearly Opposite Public Library.

W. H. CRESSWELL,

Cresswell and Jordan,

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CRANITE AND

Office and Shop 147 Kent-st., W. W. JORDAN.

ABOUT WATCHES

We Carry a Large Line of Gold, Gold Filled, Silver & Nickle Cases in Latest Designs.

We fit any case with either a WALTHAM or ELGIN Movement as preferred, in any grade desired, and absolutely guarantee every watch we sell.

BRITTON BIROS.

G.T.R. TIME INSPECTORS.

FOOT OF KENT-ST. - LINDSAY

GOOD PUMPS

The day of Iron pipes and cast iron cylinders is past, as the is galvanized iron pipe, brass cylinder and steel rods, which do not and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached. The wheel immediately and booths ready, called down the attached are attached. not or taint the water.

We are making a large bore brass cylinder and steel rod pump which will outwear and throw more water than any pump on the

Our practical man, Mr. J. Dennis, looks after all orders and repairs, and we can guarantee satisfaction. Mail orders receive prompt attention.

The Establishment of God's Kingdom on Earth-Articles Bearing on Church Work at Home and Abroad—Carefully Selected Contributions will be Received for + Publication in this Column.

> overheard a neighbo reall to a man who was passing and say to him;

> "What good are you doing?" That set me thinking, and from the depths of my soul came up the questions What good am I doing? What good could I be doing that I am not doing? For that question has been an inspira-

And now, as I draw, near the end you doing? May the Lord help you each one to do all the good you can.

For strength, O Lord, I pray,

Save me from slipping down again

Lord, keep my tide of purpose full,

In that sweet soft decline

My will, my will is mine!

To dally with my evil self-

For steady constancy,

¿ Give me the victory!

C Saviour, may I be.

Mr. William Lewis, of Verulam,

Evening Post of Sept. 23

Mr. William Lewis, of lot 11, con.

5. Verulam, is a proud farmer today, and not without reason. He was considered by experts the best field of grain in the province, and that he had obtained the Provincial price

YOUNG MAN'S SUDDEN DEMISE.

Herbert Russel, Son of Dr. Herriman

Passed Away Yesterday Morning.

Mr. H. R. Herriman, youngest son of

The announcement of the death of Dr. and Mrs. Herriman, was received deceased has been engaged in lumbering and oil interests at Honora, Mun-itoulin Island, which has occupied his time for a few years past. He has always enjoyed excellent health.

A few days since letters were received from him that he was not feeling well, and later a telegrum status, that he would come down home. He was on his way down to Owen Sound with the intention of getting treatment in the hospital, and boarded the steamer at Little Current on Saturday afternoon with fair prospects of reaching the hospital on Sunday morning. On the arrival of the boat it was found that he had miscasculated his strength and had succumbed during the night. The remains will arrive this evening by C.

P.R. and will be taken to the family residence, and interment will take place at the family burying ground,

Port Hope on arrival of the train.

short service wild be held at the thome of his parents at 10 a.m., before

Will a Bloycle Float.

Monday morning to decide a rather unique bet between two of his many a friendly chat, and in the course of a few minutes the talk naturally turned to bicycles, since there are so many around the shop. After discussing the merits of the various makes somebody said that he had heard a bicycle would float a full-grown man. An argument was im-that the bieyele would float just on top of the water, and the other saying that he knew it would float at least eight inches out of water.

Falling hair is caused by germs at the leaving Lindsay at 10.50 Tuesday, proceeding to the G.T.R. train.

Obtained Provincial Prize.

-Christian Work.

-J. Edgar Park.

. is the Kingdom of Heaven." WHAT GOOD ARE YOU DOING ? AD ST. ANDREW'S. One day, while quietly at work, I

Evening Post of Sept. 23 "Love Not the World," epistle to John, 2nd shap., 15th vs, was the text of Rev. Jas. Wallace's sermon last night at St. Andrew's. This is an interpretation of life and a direction for it; said the minister, and more than a quarter of a century it is because men have misinterpreted these words that they have adopted customs and dress of their own, and of my earthly pilgrimage, I ask each leaving the worldt and its sinfulness of my readers. What good are you lived in monasteries and other plac- | doing? Aye, that is the question; not es of seclusion to keep their lives and their hearts pure and clean. They believe that by mortifying the flesh at the present time they will be able of the after world. Many have the To choose for once my way. to enjoy the delights and pleasures same views now and believe the For strength to follow what I've world wil end soon, and are prepar- | willed, ing themselves for the final day. This is a very material view. Stientists claim the world may last for years, and it a man lives according to God's flaw it will make little dit .

ference to him! Modern society can only be redoemed by unworldly people. The rulers should be men who have insight and foresight, and who put their duty to God before unything "What is the best I can do cial programmes have been prepared for myself" seems to be the cry of for the day. everybody in the present age. "Love, not pleasure, love God", is Carlyles I can not do great things for Him way of putting it and clearly shows | Who did so much for me;

The phoir sang the anthem. "The | Dear Jesus unto thee; King of Love" during the offertor, Faithful in very little things, Miss & Skinner and Mr. J. Gray taking the solo parts. "Hark, hark my soul" was the anthem sang at 'he conclusion, of the ser non. The style in which this was sung was not up to the usual standard of the choir

METHODISM AND LABOR. Commenting upon the relation of U. S. Methodism to labor, Zion's Herald says; "Time was, in the mcmory of the writer, when the Metuodist Episcopal church was the church of the people, when the work- notified on Saturday last that a field irg class, so called, believed in the of oats on his 200 acre farm had been divine mission of Methodism and flocked to its altare But that day bas passed. Boast as some still do of Methodism in her world-wide con- for it, over dozens of competitors quests, her missionary spirit, and from all over Ontario. Out of a maxilarge membership, we cannot be such spiritual egotists as to lay to heart any longer the flattering unc- showing. Mr. Lewis is a brother of tion that we have the special support | Mr. M. J. Lewis, proprietor of the and sympathy of the masses. What Victoria creamery and the farm is is the matter? The answer is easy the family homestead. if we are to be frank and just with Victoria County is noted the Doourselves. We have lost the miad, minion over as one of the best farmspirit, passion, which carried us to ing counties, and this additional the people and held us there - the | honor shows the county forth in a divine compassion which pitied the enviable light. people as "sheep having no shepherd." This is a fearless and honest porfession, that applies to part of the Methodist church. We thank God it applies only to part, but it should not apply to any. The people stil need Methodism and Methodism still needs the people. The diworce, if final, means death. If any part of Methodism forgets the poor and ceases to care for the masses. in town early on Sunday, and was surely the fires have died out on her a great shock to his friends here. The altars, and only a rekindling can avert desolation.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE, The Rev. W. G. Hanna, of Mount Forest, has been appointed to succeed the Rev. fr. Albert Moore as secretary for the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance. Mr. Moore having been dopointed general secretary. Mr. Hanna is looked upon as one one of the best and ablest of Cauada's Presbyterian preachers. Naturafly of a modest disposition, he has not been a seeker for self-advancement, but his friends look upon him as a man of such real culture and education that his success in Toronto is assured. Mr. Hanna ls a native of Huron county. He was educated at Princeton and has been stationed at Tare, Uxbridge, and Mount Forest. At the latter place he has been pastor for eight years and his congregation there hold him in the highest possible regard, and lose him with ra-

It is interesting to note that his son George has been attending the Harbord-st., Collegiate for the gast two years, and recently won a university scholarship at matriculation. Mr. Hanna's appointment was allowed by the Saugeen Presbytery re-

HE HAD A PULL Worcester, Mass., Sept 14, - Bacause some of the concessionaries of the New England Fair 'Midway' put up tents on Sunday, Rev. Orson E. Mallory prayed for rain to spoil the mediately started, one maintaining The officials, who admit the lair Things got so hot tha tithe matter being able to see the fair, are critiwas put to a test, each betting that casing the clerical petition for rain, he was right. Mel. took an old wheel ground privileges, and whose work it in the drink with a piece of cord fast Sunday in getting their tents Mr. Mallo y says he did pray for | it would sink and so have a little be-

The devil sat in a grand stand sout, And I was his guest, I'm sorry to However, I do not much mind the

I had left Manhattan the previous

The devil he swore in sulphurous And again he would laugh in devil-ish glee, When the victim fanned with a sickiv smile-

For fanning is popular there, you

These various players," the devil "Are exempt from torture; it is my will. They played swell ball before they were dead, And now I think they are better

And being a red-hot fan myselfkeep thom playing from morn tili night.

And let them sleep, on a nice coot shelf-I believe in treating my players right."

And I shook when he hissed "Don't drop that fly," Or bellowed, "Get down, you lotster slide. Some of the players cavorting there

I have seen on earth in the big league games, But you'll have to guess, for I do not care To anger their folks by mention-Ah! now with my whole soul I iong ing names.

> At first I thought that the devil and I Were quite alone in that spacious stand.

Next Sabbath is Children's Day But all of a sudden I heard a cry among the Sunday schools, and spe-Like the lingering wail of a terman band. looked and I saw in a red hot seat, Fastened with white-hot, slinging chains, wretch who was racked from head But I should like to show, my love, to feet. With perhaps a thousand different

> Some peanuts swung near his hungry And five feet off was a patch of Where a stein of lager of good'y Was flanked by glasses of lemon-

And from time to time a player would stroll To the scene of all this suffering Poke some fun at this wretched soui, And take the drinks that were meant for him.

"That is a knocker," the devil said, "A stiff who on earth had a season His nome town players with siurs he

He's paying the piper now, poor mum of 100 points this field of oats graded 96 points-truly a creditable ightened I woke from my ghastly And went to the park the game And at each play made by the focal

I shouted madly, "Good eye, old -Exchange:

THE ELOCUTIONIST'S CURFEW.

(Harper's Magazine) England's sun was slowly setting aRaise your right hand to your Filling all the land with beauty Wear the gaze of rapture now); And the dast rays kissed the foreboid of a man find maiden fair With a movement slow and graceful you may now push back your Ho with sad, bowed head (A drooping of your head will be all right

"Curfew must not ring to-night. "Sexton," Bessie's white lips faltered Try here to resemble Bess, Though of course you know she'd never word quite such a chara-ing dress),

Till you hoarsely, sadiy whis, er);

T've a lover in that prison" (Dont forget to roll your r's. And to shiver as though gazing through the iron prison bars), "Cromwell will not come till sunset" Speak each word as . you'd bite

Every syllable to pieces). "Curlew must not ring to-nightt "Resie", calmly spoke the sexton (Here extend your velvet pilm; Let it tremble like the sex on's as though striving to be calm). "Long, long y'ars I've rung the cur-Mr. Mel. Robinson had occasion few" (Don't forget to make it With a pitiful inflection that a world of sorrow bears)4 customers. They had dropped in for "I have done my duty, ever" (Draw yourself up to your height, For you're speaking as the sexton); "Gyurt, the curfew rings to-Out she swung, far out (Now here is where you've got to do your best, Lost your head be twisted backward. let great sobs heave up your

Swing your right foot through an are of ninety lineal degrees; Then come down and owing your left foot, and be sure don't bend your Keep this up for fifteen minutes till your face is worn and white;

Then gaze at your mangled fingers). "Curfew shall not ring to-night!" O'er the distant hills came Cromwell Right hand to the brow pure

At his foot she told her story (Lift | Far from the hills of home! your hands as though they hurt), | - Charles Hanson Towne, in And her sweet young face so haggard Ladies' World. (Now your pathos you asset: Then you straighten up as Cromwell, and be sure to get it right; [Don't say, "Go; your liver loves i")well; "Curfew shall not ring to-

WHEN YOU ASK FOR

INSIST ON RECEIVING IT.

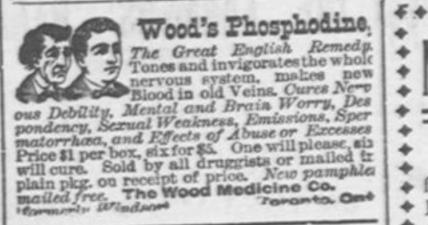

THE MATTER OF SELECTION

you have unrestricted choice of ALL that is new and good and stylish. The most exacting man can easily be satisfied with such generous assortments as "Progress Brand" provides.

Suits and Overcoats to fit all men, and suit all tastes. Look for LABEL THAT PROTECTS. 100

M. J. CARTER, - 40 Kent-St.

Yet to be had at Rigg's Clearing Out Sale for the . . next two weeks. .

Gold and silver frame Spectacles, Combs and Brushes, Toilet and Shaving Sets, Combs, Brushes and Glass in case; Albums, Walking Canes, Mouth Organs, Guitars and strings, Banjos and strings, Violins and strings, Gocarts, Baby Sleighs, Boys' Sleds, Toys and Dolls, Pipes, Tobacco and Cigars, a number of Show Cases, 4 Coal Stoves and I Gas Machine; all to be sold in bulk or otherwise.

6 Kent-st., Lindsay

LIBERTY.

saw a mild-eyed maid, gentle and

Ali-timidly on tiptoe, pass me by, There was a saintly softness in her And ever would she seem to court

Bowed was her head in sweet hu-Low was her voice and tender, as

Of amorous dove that doth his loved one greet. No hasty haughty toss of head was No fiery flashing eyes of angry No scornful sneering at the "weak That shrinks to do what arrogance wili dare! And this fair maiden, with the lowly mein.

Was Liberty's sweet self a selfish queent -William H. Cumpston.

THE HILLS OF HOME.

The hills of home have called to me Through days of stress and pain, "Come back, come back, come back to And learn our lore again; Come back to us that we may case

The burden of your soul,

Come back to your forgotten dreams, And let us make you while." Deep in the thundering city's heart I hear the hill's low, cry, The sad entreaty of their call That pleads for my reply; And here where tides of traffic surge

And for the old, old dream. The voices of their sylvan vales Call to me day and night, And many an hour my heart has

On life's tumultous stream,

I hunger for the hills of home,

For the old, lost delight-The dreams I knew, the faith I knew, Let your eyes look down the distance I Long ere I learned to roam -say above the entrance door). Far from the quiet, steadfast peace,

> CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought

We have just received a large + · fall shipment of Framed Pictures, · Picture Frames and Mirrors, and are now prepared to show a much larger stock than before, having sold our old stock.

For this week we offer + + great bargains in this line, but + + for this week only.

Call and look them over and * if not satisfied that they are the best bargains in town we do not want you to buy them.

WHEN you have imperfect Eyesigh

Eyestrain or any eye trouble whatever, or if your present glasses are not excity

EYESICHT SPECIALIST

92 Kent-st. (Over Neill's Shoe Store) Hours-9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday even ing and by appointment Eyeglasses, Spectacles, etc., supplied, repaired, etc. Charges moderate, satis faction guaranteed.

itively, not one weak heart in a

them as needed, with Dr. Shoop's Restorative "ALL DEALERS"

-We fead in Wedding State and Visiting Ourds. Newst design