Ads That Don't Pay. "Advertising don't pay," some people say, yet the most successful firms are always the largest advertisers. There is a way of advertising that don't pay, but judicious advertising always pays, and that paper is the cheapest which brings the best results. No matter what its rate may be, small or large, elaborate or simple, advertisement always brings the returns in some way or another.

New Block of Stores. Mr. Geo. Milne, merchant tailor, has taken a 21 year lease of lots 4 and 5, between the Patrick and Hottel buildings, south side of Kent-st. upon which he will have erected at once a substantial brick building 36 x 45 feet, and two stories in height, with basement underneath. The block will contain two fine stores, the upper flats of which will be fitted up for office purposes. Men are now at work completing the foundation, and Mr. Milne hopes to have the store completed by Christmas. Another evidence of the growing time is Lindsay.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES

Biliousness is cured by Hood's Pills, 25 cents.

Mr. Wm. Craig, of Port Hope, was in town Tuesday, a guest at the Benson house.

Good General Servant wanted. Apply to Mrs. Sheriff McLennan, Bond-st.—w2.

"What a noiseless world this would be if women were quiet all the time as they are when it comes to telling their age."

It is no awful crime to steal. Provided you steal kisses: To steal a kiss is not amiss, Unless you kiss a Mrs.

Tapper has overlooked something. He has forgotten to tell us that he is responsible for the fine October weather we've been having.

The campaign is getting so interesting in South Victoria that one farmer met another last week and forgot to ask the price of wheat.

Hon. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, is to be invited to lay the corner stone of the new cement works buildings at Lakeside. A civic holiday will be declared and Peterboro board of trade will be asked to assist.

The Army and Navy Veterans of Toronto and district will hold a banquet in the Temple Cafe, Toronto, on Nov. 17th, the anniversary of the Battle of Lucknow. Sergt-Major Martin will represent the veterans of this district.

This week stationary notices, prohibiting driving faster than a walk, will be cut the different bridges in town. Any person caught disregarding same will be rigidly prosecuted.

No 1 Co., 49th H. R. Belleville, used old-fashioned Sniders, 40 years in service, at the annual rifle matches the other day. Eight members made scores ranging from 91 to 50 points out of a possible 100. The Snider is still fit to carry against an enemy.

Low water is still interfering with the passage of steamers and scows through the lock here. This morning the Maple Leaf lost her rudder while trying to enter the chamber and the steering gear of a scow laden with tankbar was also damaged.

Last winter Mrs. W. J. Sherwood, of Peterboro, slipped on the icy granite pavement and broke a leg. An action for $2,000 damages was entered against the corporation, and at the trial the other day witnesses disagreed as to the exact spot where the mishap occurred. The action was dismissed, each party paying their own costs.

Considerable excitement is being caused in Peterboro because of the questionable circumstances that surround the death of a young girl named Emeline Dunlop. She was ill with typhoid fever, and it is claimed that a Christian Science specialist named Perry, from Toronto, was called in.

A verdict had been made by two of our citizens. The liberal says he'll shave his beard off if McHugh loses, while the conservative, being rife with his moustache if victory does not perch on Doc Vroman's banner. It's a go. Think of the odds! A nice big bunch of whiskers against a meekly moustache!

Mr. John Flurey has just completed putting in of the finest cement cellars in town under his store on Kent-st., which will add greatly to his storage capacity. John is bound to take the letter and farmers and others are finding out more and more every day that it pays them to go to the Oak Front Grocery for their supplies. He keeps nothing but the best in every line he handles, and he says the best is none too good for his customers.—d3w3.

Toronto Star: The liberals of South Ontario are fortunate in having such a man as Mr. Wm. Ross, of Port Perry, as their candidate. He is a man of the highest business integrity and of most popular personal qualities as well. Although not seeking any political honors, he has been regarded for many years by his friends as a man whom his country would sooner or later send to parliament. There will be none among the new members of the next parliament of higher personal standing than the new member for South Ontario, Wm. Ross, M.P.—As many of our readers know, Mr. Robt. Ross, manager of the Dominion Bank, town is the above gentleman's brother.

A practical joke was played on an up-town shoe man the other day. Being in a humorous mood while filling an order for a bottle of ink, he took an empty bottle and filled it with water, blackening the aqua somewhat to produce the proper resemblance. The customer applied the liquid and discovered the joke, he calmly awaited his turn. Stepping into the store he took the hat of the aforementioned shoeman and stowed it safely in one of the trunks. Results—a long and tedious search, a very much up-side-down stock, and a vow to play no more jokes on a practical joker.

Every Movement Hurts

When you have rheumatism. Muscles feel stiff and sore and joints are painful. It does not pay to suffer long from this disease when it may be cured so promptly and perfectly by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine goes right to the spot which causes rheumatism, and puts an end to the pain and stiffness.

The Hjordvord Concert.

Miss Mary Mansfield, who appears here Friday night with Herr Anulf Hjordvord, the eminent Scandinavian pianist, and Signor Giacomo Quintano, the renowned Italian violin virtuoso, is a soprano who has already achieved an enviable position in New York. Prior to accepting an engagement with Hjordvord she was the solo soprano of the First Presbyterian church, Fifth-ave., New York, and also of Temple Emanuel-El. Her work as a concert artist is well known, and she has the deserved reputation of being one of the most reliable singers before the public. Before coming to New York, three seasons ago, she sang for two years in the leading choir of Hartford, Conn. Miss Mansfield's voice is a high mezzo soprano, dramatic in quality, but under such free and flexible control that she can adapt herself successfully to the most diverse forms of lighter music. She has one form of lighter music, from O to C, in which each tone is mellow, vibrant and whole. She has the dramatic voice, and with it the native dramatic temperament.—d1.

Mr. Geo. A. Jordan, late Police Magistrate, is in town, and his brother Mr. W. Jordan, arrived from the West on Tuesday. George will spend some time with his parents at Fenelon Falls.

Private Turpin, R.C.R., Cobourg, who recently returned from South Africa, was here Wednesday, a guest at the Benson house. He was Col. Sam Hughes' orderly at the front, and figured prominently and frequently in the gentleman's numerous letters as "My Servant Turpin." He is an unassuming young fellow, and wears his honors with a modesty that is somewhat remarkable under the circumstances. We understand he is going to help Col. Sam scale the North Victoria kopjes.

The Premier's Picture. The beautiful color portrait of Sir Wilfrid Laurier secured by The Post is a triumph of the printer's art, and is having an unexampled sale all over the Dominion and even in England. It is 22 x 17 inches, printed on heavy glazed paper, and would be cheap at half a dollar. We can supply copies at $1.00. One coupon, to be cut from advt. elsewhere, will be sent free. To be mailed if desired.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Re Good Roads.

(To the Editor of The Post.)

Dear Sir,—In the interests of good roads, I would appeal to all drivers to travel the leading streets as widely as possible, as keeping the one track continually soon cuts deep channels in the street for water to lodge in. The rutts will soon develop into puddle holes. Try this model of travelling, especially with heavily laden vehicles, and see how the streets will improve. —Yours, etc., JAS. M. CHALMERS, Street Commissioner. Lindsay, Oct. 22nd, 1900.

"Promotion of General Happiness"

Is secured by Nerviline — the great nerve-pain cure. The highly penetrating properties of Nerviline make it never-failing in all cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, cramps, pains in the back, side, lumbago, etc. We heartily recommend it.

Solid Advertising.

The highest form of advertising consists of teaching the public the varied uses of the article advertised, and why they should trade with this or that firm. It is along this line that the new advertiser should commence his first advertising. The first thing should be to create the confidence of customers. Tell them what there is to sell, and what advantages they would gain by trading at this or that place. Tell them the truth, and nothing but the truth. Talk plainly to customers, instruct them, and do not be afraid to point out new methods of using the article advertised. Speak to customers in advertisements as you would over the counter, or in your office. And as advertise you must if you want your business to "go" and you don't want "to go" to the wall—which you assuredly will do if you do not advertise—it is as well to draft your "ads" on a solid and sensible basis. And the above rules are good pointers and can be followed with advantage to advertiser and purchaser alike.

Obituary.

Many of our readers will learn with deep regret of the death Monday evening, of Miss Eliza Logan, sister of Mr. W. W. Logan, with whom she had resided for some years past. Miss Logan had not been in good health for the last few months, but nothing of a serious nature was anticipated. On Saturday she became worse, and the medical men called in found that she was suffering with appendicitis, and that the trouble had assumed an aggravated form which precluded an operation owing to the patient's weakened condition. The end came Monday night at 11 o'clock. The deceased lady was very highly esteemed by all who enjoyed the pleasure of being admitted to her acquaintance.

DEER ARE PLENTIFUL.

Encouraging Advice for Sportsmen from the Line of the G. T. R.

The G.T.R. has issued a nice little booklet entitled "The Trail of the Red Deer," which gives much needed information valuable to the sportsmen. Among other things it contains an abstract of the game laws of Ontario. According to the booklet the season of 1900 will be better than that of last year. Advice from the several districts reached by the G.T.R. system show that deer are plentiful, and moose tracks have been seen in many places throughout the forests of the Highlands of Ontario, and this season being the first for some years in which hunters have been allowed to shoot moose in the province, there will be quite a few "good shots," who will endeavor to bring down one of the big fellows.

To accommodate all persons wishing to remain at home until after the elections on November 7th, the reduced rates will also be given on November 8th, 9th and 10th.

"Throughout the country the words Liberal, Reformer and hypocrite are synonymous."—Mr. W. R. Brock, Conservative candidate in Centre Toronto, at Association Hall, Saturday night.

GROWING.

We have now fairly started on our Fall Term and have more enrolled now than at the same time last year. Applications for admission to the Peterboro Business College are coming in every day and the prospects are that even with enlarged premises we will be over for room.

No school can do better for you—few can do as well.

DIRECT IMPORTERS ESTABLISHED 40 YEARS

THIS store's history dates back to eighteen hundred and sixty and improvements have gone on from year to year since that time. Many customers will remember the single corner store we first had, and then we added an addition to the north end for clothing. About five years ago we added to the corner another store, and used it for clothing and men's furnishings. The year 1900 finds us adding a third store, and to-day we have the finest store between Toronto and Montreal.

All these improvements are for your benefit, and we are sure you will appreciate the store as it is to-day. More light, more selling space, a larger stock and a better staff of salespeople, help to make this a great store.

This week's offerings are very special, and the prices for these goods are only for a limited time. The first day for these prices is Saturday, October 27th, and the last day Saturday, November 3rd.
