"There has never been a reading room in connection with our Public Library for reasons well known to all whose business it is. Our library is and has always been in the best financial position, and we have always been complimented upon the number (nearly three thousand) and the high quality of the books in our library. Frequently Lindsay professional men have expressed the opintime since I have found a library with such good books.' The number varies from twenty to forty."

KINMOUNT. (From Our Own Correspondent.) There is no question but that Kinmount is a very pictoresque little town, and some of our enterprising residents are putting improvements on their dwellings and property which bespeak confidence in futura prospects. Among those who are adding new beauty are; Mr. George Train, who is erecting a handsome verandah around his already cosy little home; Mr. Harry Hopkins is putting up similar improvements as well as Dr. J. Wilson and Donald McDougal. That the Northern Hotel looks well in its new dress goes without saying; the Dunbar house has also added greatly to the beauty and convenience of the place by erecting large warm stables and driving sheds. Our main street has not been forgotten, as will be seen by Mr. A. Hopkins new stores, one of which is occupied by the Misses Holmes, dressmakers, and above the stores is the new Masonic hall. Across the road we have Dr. White's new store and last but not least, Dr. Frost has a large staff of men at work on his new "mansion" on Prospect Hill, which, by the way boasts of the nicest street in our town. Wa almost forgot to mention the prety little manse which is occupied by our popular Presbyterian minister, Mr. Brown, which is also a new building throughout and a splendid addition to our town.

Some of 'the things which we need to make our combination complete are electric light, a new bridge and a constable who will stop the use of so much profamity and the rowdyism on our streets, and knock the roosters off the railings at the lished in Another Column.

Below we mention the live stock ent. at Eldon Fall Fair. Part of the report appears elsewhere: CATTLE.

There was a splendid showing of cattle, and much interest was taken by the farmers in the display. Eldon is not behind in its breeding of live stock and the showing exceeded all previou. years. Mr. J. C. Smith had beautiful bull in the roan-colored Guy Strathallan, weighing 2400 pounds He is a monster. Messrs. McKay and Bowins showed a fine short-horn bull. Mr. Andrew's Mc-Kay's exhibit of a pair of grade milch cows, a pure-bred calf and a year old heifer and fat steer attracted considerable attention. Mr. John Campbell, of Fairview Farm is always to the front in the stock line He showed a nice two year old heifer in the Durham class. Mr. Cowie showed a nice year old ball and carried off the red ticket. Polled Angus cattle or Dodos, were shown by Mr. John Bagshaw and he swept everything in the class. Holsteins, noted for being great milkers, were exhibited by Mr. T. H. Sonley. of Manilia: he also showed a two yearold bull, Centre Bay, Mr. John Bagshaw showed a couple of young helfers in the popular Ayrshire class, and Hammill Bros, also had a select hard. Stephen Oliver, of Lindsay, exhibited his herd of Jerseys, comprising a bull and four females; they would do credit to any breeder. Mr. W. A. Francis showed a yearling helfer Jersey, Mr. J. McArthur, a fine milch cow, and Mr. A. E. Staback,

SHEEP. Eldon is famous for its well bred sheep. Mr. John Campbeli's famous Fairview flock of Shropshire sheep was inspected with great interest. The popularity of the Shrops is gradually spreading as they grow tine wool, and the farmers are bedrew McKay and McMillan & Sons made a fine showing in this bread; and the honors were pretty well divided.
