MARRIED IN NEW YORK.

Miss Helena Kempt, a Former Lindsay Lady Wedded a New York Gentleman. A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, on Wednesday evening, Oct., 21st, at 263 west, 137th street, New York when Helena May, third daughter of the late Wm. Kempt, M.D., of Lindsay, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Herbert White, B. A. S., Engineer of the American Linde Refrigerator Co., of New York, and son of Dr. Richard White, of Montreal.

The house was prettily decorated with palms, smilax, white roses and chrysanthemum. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Parker, assisted by the Rev. Father McAdams, Rector of the church of St. Francis de Claret, of Brooklyn, in the presence of a large number of guests.

The bridal party entered the drawing room to the strains of Leborgrin Wedding March, passing through an aisle of white satin ribbon, and stood under the arch of palms. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. George A. Kempt, and was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine, over white taffeta, the yoke and sleeves were of transparent lace and chiffon, and (trimmings of embroidered chiffon roses, the tulle veil was prettily caught with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley, her only ornament being a flour-de-lis of diamonds, with a fresh water pearl drop, attached to a gold chain, the gift of her groom.

The bride was attended by her sisters, The Misses Grace, and Genevieve Keamp, who wore pretty gowns of white silk gingham over white tulle, with large white satin sashes, and angel sleeves of white chiffon; in their hair they wore iridescent birds embedded in white tulle, and carried shower bouquets of pink roses.

Mr. White was assisted by Mr. R. H. Balfour, of Montreal, and Dr. H. S. Schartz, of New York, the ushers being Mr. N. Kellbeck and Dr. C. C. Fitch, of New York. The groom's gifts to the bridesmaids were rose gold true lovers knots brooches, set with fresh water pearls, and the best man and ushers, rose gold scarf pins. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. White received the congratulations of their assembled friends while Mendelssohn Wedding March was being played. The bride's mother, wore a black crepe-de-chine handsomely trimmed with cut jet white satin, and a white angette in her hair.

The brides going away gown, was of cadet blue, veile, over blue tulle, trimmed with screen lace, large blue beaver hat, with white wings and large blue satin bows. The bride received a large number of exquisite gifts.

The guests from a distance were; The Misses Macaulay, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Bolger, and Miss Sylvester, all of Lindsay, Canada; the Misses White, Mr. Smeaton White, Mr. N. J. White, K.C., brothers and sisters of the groom, and Mr. R. H. Balfour, of Montreal; Miss Boucher, of Peterboro, Canada; Mr. Mulliner, of Boston, Mass.; The New York guests were; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bucknill, Mr. and Mrs. Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Dove, Mr. and Mrs. Colihan, Mr. and Mrs. Fiechter, Dr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Kellogg, Mr. K. G. Killogg, and Mr. G. Miss Regan, Miss Nellis and Mr. Nellis, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Fox, Mr. King, Dr. Ware, Dr. Hanson, Dr. Fitch, Dr. De Rounde, Dr. Schwartz, Mr. Wyle, Mr. Kellbeck Dr. and Mrs. Holchkiss, Mr. Steers, Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Schermerhorn, Dr. and Mrs. Van Arden and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Maze.

Wheat And The Preference.

It will thus be seen that about one-twelfth of Great Britain's purchases of grain and grain products are from Canada, but on the other hand Great Britain buys from the United States $160,000,000 or more than half of her total purchases. A British tariff preference for Canadian grain would help to change the relative position of the two halves of the North American continent in regard to the British market. A slightly disappointing feature of the proposals is the exclusion of bacon and ham from the preference, but Canada seems to be getting on very well without the preference so far as these commodities are concerned. Her exports under this head have increased from $5,500,000 in 1897 to $12,356,000 in 1902—Ottawa Free Press.

Canada seems to be doing pretty well in the matter of grain sales to Great Britain too. The only reason why they are not greater is that we do not produce the goods. And we shall get over that, preference or no preference. But if Mr. Chamberlain's scheme of benefits is to be confined to grain preference it will be rather disappointing. Moreover, India, which is increasing her wheat crop, would doubtless have as favorable consideration as Canada, and she is to be reckoned with as a wheat exporter. In the season of 1901-2 she exported 3,750,000 bushels, of which 73,696,150 went to Great Britain. The wheat industry of India is said to be capable of great expansion, the product averaging more than twenty bushels to the acre. We should have no monopoly under the preference.
