R. J. McLAUGHLIN NOMINATED

The Unanimous Choice of Tuesday's Grand Convention of Liberals.

POPULAR WITH ALL

Conservatives As Well As Reformers Will Work to Send Him to Ottawa as the Member for Victoria and Haliburton.

The convention of Liberals held Tuesday morning and afternoon in the Academy of Music was one of the most successful and best attended in many years, and the enthusiasm manifested at the meeting was a cheering evidence that the present contest will be fought with the greatest zeal.

In the absence of Dr. J. McKay, President of the Reform Association, Mr. C. E. Weeks, of Woodville, took the chair, and after some preliminary business an adjournment was made for dinner.

All the meeting was called to order and nominations were asked for the office of Secretary. The office had been rendered vacant by the resignation of Mr. E. J. Mackenzie, of Fenelon Falls, was elected to the position by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Weeks expressed, on behalf of Dr. McKay, the latter's regret at being unable to be present. He wished to have conveyed to the convention his desire to stand, to the best of his ability, the candidate of the convention in the present contest, as he believed the electors were heartily tired of the present representative, Col. Hughes, with his blow and bluster, which has accomplished so little for the riding.

THE CANDIDATE.

Nominations were then called for a candidate to contest the riding, when it was moved by Mr. John Austin, of Fenelon Falls, seconded by Mr. Wm. O'Hara, of South Mariposa, and further endorsed by Mr. Geo. Johnston, ex-Warden of the County, and T. T. Ferguson, of Laxton, that R. J. McLaughlin, K. C., be tendered the unanimous vote of the convention.

The name was cheered by the delegates, and the motion was carried unanimously by a standing vote.

Mr. McLaughlin was called to the platform in the midst of a great manifestation of enthusiasm and prolonged cheering, all feeling that the most popular man in the riding had been chosen. Mr. McLaughlin spoke as follows:

Mr. McLaughlin on rising was received with a tremendous ovation. He accepted the nomination, not that he desired the office, but responded to the call of duty, believing that it was a true man's duty to take on the burden of public service at the call of his fellow electors. He had lived in the constituency from his earliest childhood and had worked on the farm in the backwoods and six-

Cold storage had been perfected. An active immigration policy was filling our West and making markets for the East.

The Grand Trunk Pacific will open a country greater than many Massachusetts for us to develop, with no battle but the battle with nature to fight.

Great as the resources of our country are, Justice, Truth and Liberty are greater still, and true men are the greatest asset—and false men the worst enemies—a country can have. If you find me telling printing or circulating slanders and falsehoods by all means do not vote for me.

The battle is yours from now to the end of the campaign. Let no man say he has business at his own house, but let every man respond to his country's call. Fight as honest men—let falsehood, crookedness and corruption remain with the author of these circulars. A steady and honest effort—with the help of all others who place Truth and Honor above Party—will win the election. Heart and long continued applause.

Other Speeches.

Senator McHugh said it gave him pleasure to endorse the candidature of Mr. McLaughlin as a most able man and one who would, if elected, bring honor to the constituency. He believed the present contest had not a political significance, but was for right against wrong-doing, and in this battle many honest Conservatives were willing to join hands with their Reform friends to get rid of a dishonest politician who was ever ready to sacrifice principle, the interests of his constituents and everything else, for his personal gain. In his manifesto Col. Hughes had enumerated 101 things he claimed to have done for the riding, but almost all of these claims could be refuted and proved to be utterly untrue.

Hughes had stated that Mr. McLaughlin and himself were responsible for throwing North and South Victoria into one riding when he knew he was lying. The British North American Act had made it compulsory on the Government to fix the riding. Both he and Mr. McLaughlin had written opposing it, but it had to be. Col. Hughes was a political assassin who did not hesitate to stab either his own political to see that Victoria has an honest, useful representative, as Mr. McLaughlin would prove to be if elected.

Mr. Norman Snales described the issue as being between honesty, truthfulness and every quality regarded as manly, and on the other side lying, deceit, and everything we look upon as unmanly. It was not a question of politics in this contest—the aim should be to rid our country of the worst type of politician—one who would not do the square thing.

Mr. Robert Kennedy varied the proceedings by reading an extract from one of Col. Hughes' famous South African letters, which fairly captured the audience, and followed it up with a bright speech.

A Resolution of Confidence.

Moved by W. L. Herriman, seconded by J. Austin, that this Convention desires to put on record our entire confidence in the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and his Cabinet. The proposed resolution was read and passed unanimously.

Among those on the platform and in the audience, our reporter recognized the following gentlemen: J. J. Rich, John Stacey, John Martin, Aid. Robinson, Capt. John Corson, Geo. Graham, Aid. John McCrea, W. Dewey, E. Kennedy, Dan. Grant, J. Gunn, Robt. Kennedy, Chas. Minty, Jas. Hickey, Jas. Connolly, Jas. Roach, E. Slaye, J. B. Weiden, John Tweedy, D. Tweedy, W. Parkinson, Wm. Steen, Senator McHugh, R. Kyles, D. O'Connell, Geo. Ray, R. M. Thurston, F. C. Taylor, John Smith, Alon. Mills, M. B. Barry, Thos. Stewart, Mr. Farming, Wm. Buchanan, G. Johnston, Dr. White, W. F. O'Boyle, Thos. Tamblin, Henry Nugent, W. J. Reid, E. D. Hand, Jas. A. Gilligan, J. A. Ross, D. Edwards, Dr. Hanchard, Dr. Burrows, D. B. McNeill, D. J. Marchison, Jos. Moynon, D. Moynon, Thos. Hamphrey, J. Gordon, M. McGowan, Harry Robinson, J. Barnes, Andrew Braden, Chas. Thomas, W. W. Deane, Garre, C. E. Weeks, W. Rich, John Fairbairn, and it is reported that Farrelly, T. Laidy, N. Newton Snales has his gun loaded for Sam Fox M.P.P., whose political head must fall if he does not do some of the Col. one's man's. The people of this riding are able to distinguish between bumpiness and brains, and would not accept gall for ability. No person in the House of Commons would work with Hughes as he was continually taking some mean advantage calculated to win for himself a little cheap glory. His influence in the House was therefore nil, and if the electors of Victoria and Haliburton wished to secure any advantage for the riding, on desired to get any bill through the House, they would find it to their advantage to place it in other hands than those of Col. Hughes. In conclusion, Senator McHugh urged the electors to go to work and conduct this campaign with a view to getting rid of the greatest political blunder the country was ever saddled with.

These Stewart made a short, but most convincing speech, urging close, careful organization and hard work until the campaign closed. It would not be possible for the candidate to visit each subdivision, or to hold meetings everywhere. All should be willing to make sacrifices

R. J. McLAUGHLIN, K. C.
Liberal Candidate for Victoria and Haliburton.

Sketch of the Candidate's Life.

R. J. McLaughlin, K. C., Liberal candidate for the Counties of Victoria and Haliburton, is a son of the late John McLaughlin, of the Township of Fenelon. He was born in 1860, and has lived in the constituency from his earliest childhood. His father dying when he was 17 years old, he has had to make his own way unaided.

His early life was spent on the farm, and as a laborer in the woods and saw mills. He taught school in the Townships of Laxton and Mariposa.
