FRIDAY OF LAST WEEK

Was Largely Attended and Proved Very

Successful. The agricultural fair of Galway township, held at Kinmount on Friday last, was in point of attendance one of the most successful in the Society's history. The day was ideal in every respect and the grounds in perfect condition, and the management are most profuse in their thanks to the many outsiders who so generously visited the show and helped so materially to swell the day's receipts.

picked up a large number of passengers at the different stations along the line. By the time Kinmount was] reached standing room was at a) premium. The hotel occommodation was heavily taxed, but ample provision had been made by the management of both hostelries and the tisitors received a right royal wel-tome from their northern friends. The exhibits on the whole fell short of previous years, but what was lackity, the exhibits in the main building being in many instances most praiseworthy.
