MINE FIRE AT GLACE BAY.

Glace Bay, N.S., Oct. 22.-Yesterday morning the reserve colliery bank was discovered to be on fire, the conflagration originating in a pile of slack coal beneath the structure. The colliery brigade turned out, but were unable to save it. The machine-shop also went up in flames, and but for a favorable wind the other buildings would have been burnt. When the bank gave way the haulage ropes broke and blazing coal cars went careering down the slope with a possibility of setting the mine on fire, but were wrecked by the side of the
