LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

WOODVILLE. (From Our Own Correspondent.) I have the season's investigations and we are going to have one here on the 26th of this month. Now let us have a good large meeting to hear what the delegates will tell us about how to make money out of our farms, for that is what we are all trying to do.

LITTLE BRITAIN. (From Our Own Correspondent.) The Farmers' Institute meetings are at hand again, and we are to have one here on the 27th of this month. It will be addressed by Mr. D. Drummond, of Myrtle, and Mr. L. H. Smith, of Longbank. Now, don't let them talk to you empty, but let all go and hear them and ask lots of questions, for it is for our benefit they are coming here!

TOWLES CORNERS. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Mr. N. Day, of "Lakeside" Farm, Fenelon who had an extensive sale advertised for the 25th of October informed us that for some reason the crowd was very small. Only five head of stock were offered, for which he realized a good price as expected. He had heard of the sale and that the idea came fixed in his people's mind that he did not intend to sell unless he realized a very fine price. This was a wrong impression as he only had a reserve bid on the auction. Had there been a fair crowd every thing would have been sold at the highest bidder. Look out for new bills!

NOVAR. (From Our Own Correspondent.) A very pleasing and interesting event took place at the residence of James Whitney esq., some four miles west of the village, Wednesday, 25th when Miss Jessie Whitney was married to Mr. Jos. Hawkins of Novar. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white silk, with a lovely white rose. She was assisted by Miss Bell Parker, of Novar, who was dressed in white organdie and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. Mr. Harry Whitney, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Assumony with 50 guests were present. After the ceremony sat down to a choice wedding dinner. The happy couple left on the 12.30 train for eastern cities. We all join in wishing the couple many long years of happy wedded life.

MISS MAGGIE GIBBON has been appointed assistant in the post office here in place of Miss Wilney, who resigned a couple of weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. A. Page gave a grand entertainment to their many friends on Tuesday eve of last week at Bay View farm. Building operations have started at Novar, and the mills are running full time. Owing to the unsettled state of the weather an epidemic in the form of a severe cold is passing around. We were all pleased to see the smiling face of our school inspector Mr. Phillips, around again. We do not know whether it was the good production of the roads, or the good progress of our school that pleased him. Since the recent rains the roads here have almost impassable—most dreadful wash outs on every hill, which says a good deal. The late harvest is now completely gathered in and all—or nearly all—of our young men are going ready to go to the camps. Their loneliness will weigh in the hearts of our fair maidens till the merry bells of Christmas jingle for our woodsmen returning.

GREENBANK. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Miss M. Reel, of Port Perry, was the guest of Mrs. G. McMillan last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. D. Perkins spent Sunday with Sunderland friends. Mr. Aokhurst is moving up to the village this week. Miss Lucy Stone was the guest of her grandmother over Sunday. Mrs. Miller and Miss Ethel Miller were a few days last week at Mr. A. Miller's Seagow.

Staples, of Cayuga, visited friends here on Sunday. Miss Lila Vance is visiting her sister, Mrs. Foster, in Midland. Miss Graham, of St. Thomas, is the guest of Messrs. C. and W. H. Wilson were united in wedlock last week. We extend congratulations. Miss Hart, of Lindsay, was visiting her brother last week. Mr. and Mrs. Howe, Janetville, were visiting at Mr. George Staples' on Sunday.

FENELON FALLS. (From Our Own Correspondent.) On Thursday night of last week Mr. B. H. Maybee, principal of the Fenelon Falls public schools, passed peacefully away at his residence, Oak-st. Mr. Maybee had been sick for two weeks with inflammation of the lungs. It was not thought until the last few days that he would recover. However, all that medical skill and hospital attention could do was of no avail and he sank a victim to the fatal malady. Mr. Maybee was principal of the public school here for over nine years, and was one of the most successful teachers to have been principal of the school. He had taught five and one-half years at Powles' Corner, and there he also distinguished himself by sending forth more teachers than any other teacher in the county. He was a man of kind disposition and was widely and favorably known, an evidence of which could be seen at his funeral, which took place at the Fenelon Falls cemetery on Sunday. The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in the village and was attended by people from Lindsay, Kinmount, Cameron, Cambury, Kirkton, Colborne, Frankfort, Brighton, Port Perry, and other distant points. He leaves a wife, one son, and two daughters. His youngest son, and two daughters, and his brother, Mr. Manley, and also the treasurer of Fenelon Falls, Mr. J. W. Brown, were present. By the above relatives the remains were taken to the graveyard in the country extend their sincere sympathy, and join them in mourning for one who was a good citizen and a kind husband and father.

Jackson have gone north to hunt deer. This village expects to feast on venison for their return. Mr. A. Newson has returned to Ottawa after a short visit under the parental roof. Mr. Norworthy of The Post printing staff gave our village a call this week. Miss A. Tompkins, of Lindsay, is visiting her brother, Mr. Gordon Tompkins. The Cambury Library committee have made another extensive purchase of books for the good of the reading community. Miss A. Anderson Oakwood, spent Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Weldon.

GOODERHAM. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. Hadley left on Friday for Manilla and other points to visit friends. Mr. Wm. Hedge, of Wilberforce, was in the village on Sunday. There appears to be a special attraction here for him. We believe from all appearances he intends to settle down in our midst before long. Mr. Shier met with a narrow escape a few days ago while working around a threshing machine. His clothing became entangled in the machinery but fortunately for Mr. Shier the engine was stopped in time, thus averting a fatal accident. This morning, however, the proprietor had to go to Lindsay for repairs. The section men in the vicinity met with a little mishap a few days ago. They were riding on a handcar when the mail train came along. A sudden jump to save their lives, a sudden jump to save their lives. The car was left on the track and was badly wrecked. Rev. M. A. Brand preached to a large congregation on Sunday taking his text from the Epistles of Christ, 2nd Cor. 3rd. verse. The sermon was much appreciated. We are not behind other places in the temperance campaign. Temperance literature is being freely distributed. Quite a number of our villagers are making good use of their time hunting deer. The quarterly board of the Methodist church met at Irondale Nov. 8th.

WOODVILLE. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Now is your time to see Trethewey Bros. for bargains in new buggies or wagons. The deputation sent from Woodville to Lindsay on Monday in reference to the changes proposed in the division of courts consisted of Rev. Grant and members of Council, Mr. C. E. Weeks, barrister, presented the case in an able and businesslike manner, and it was evident that but a very few votes were in favor of any change. The people of this town and vicinity will not have to travel to Oakwood to transact business in the division court, at least for some time to come. Mr. R. A. Grant sold his fine residence in the village to Mr. Donald Fraser, of Eldon township, for eight hundred dollars. Messrs. A. Campbell, T. A. Grant, A. Pethick, and James have gone to the north country for a few days in search of game. Call on C. H. McKee, the butcher. He provides only the best Saturday is bargain day—only.

CANNINGTON. (From Our Own Correspondent.) An oyster supper was held in the basement of the town hall on the evening of Nov. 3rd, in aid of the Public Library. Every thing passed off very pleasantly. After the wants of the inner man had been satisfied the outer man repaired to the hall above. Dr. Bingham occupied the chair, and a short but spicy program was rendered by local talent. Mr. A. O. Hogg, David Tait, of Oakwood, were in town last week. Miss Lily Dobson, of Oakwood, was the guest of Mrs. Dickey over Sunday. Rev. Geo. Clark, of Oakwood, was in town last week. The boys behaved very well on Halloween! One of the incidents was when Mr. Kerr, butcher, went out to hitch up his fine driver to go on his morning visit. He found an old cast-off plug in place of his own horse. Mr. Lee Lindsay, who had been in the West for some time, has returned home. Mr. T. A. Wilson went north on Thursday night to hunt deer. On Sunday night of this week a fine hog hung up in Kerr's butcher shop. It is supposed to be the first of Tommy's victims. A few from this village attended the plowing matches near Woodville. They report a small attendance. Something over twenty prizes were on the program, and only nine teams were on hand to compete for the same, which goes to show that the public interest in growing less every year in regard to plowing matches. (Three in one day is a pretty good record for weddings. This happened here on Oct. 28th.)

DUNSFORD. (From Our Own Correspondent.) The home of Mr. Wm. B. McCarell, on 10, Fenelon township, was the scene of a pretty event on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29th, when their second daughter, Marjorie, was married to Mr. Charles Wilbert McCaff, of the township of Caran. A report appears elsewhere. The annual meeting of the Dunsford branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in the Methodist church on Friday last. The attendance was larger than has been known of late years, but hardly as large as the importance of the work suggests. The reports presented were very encouraging, as the amount raised last year was an advance over the other years. The president, Rev. W. J. Leigh, occupied the chair, and announced a very interesting program. Rev. B. Bryan, the agent of the society, gave an excellent address, and Creighton bore greetings from the Lindsay and Bobcaygeon branches respectively. Mr. Charles H. Hore was elected president and treasurer. H. W. Mulligan secretary. Treasurers, Collectors were appointed for each of the parishes. Monday morning last was a very busy time. The delivery of foodstuffs to the army and navy, caused the extra rush of business. The many friends of Rev. M. Methers were glad to hear his voice and see his face again a week ago last Sunday. Quite a number attended the inductive class at Bobcaygeon a week ago Wednesday, and were delighted with the addresses and sermons.

OAKWOOD. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Miss Thurston, of Lindsay, is visiting Miss Lewis. Mr. Webster is spending his vacation in the north country. One would think by the display of furs in their window that Messrs. Pascoe Bros. had just received their business in that line. See Mr. Prouse's ad. in another column. Dr. Chambers was thrown from his horse Monday and received severe injuries. See account of same in another column. "What are you fellows giving away today?" remarked Mr. James Pascoe, of Pascoe Bros., to three travelers on Tuesday night, in an endeavor to shake the grip of pneumonia that had taken hold of the proprietor, and then said, "I am selling patent medicines, but the other, I am selling hardware," but the last man had just what he had been looking for for some time. To this gentleman the head of the firm said, "What brought you here today, Mister?" "I am endeavoring to buy a battery," said the traveler, "so open your samples quick, as I won't have long to talk to you." At this the traveler got a move on and after looking over his beautiful range of batteries, and five minutes later the happy get was off toward Lindsay. We are unable to say whether the other fellows received orders.

DUNSFORD. (From Our Own Correspondent.) The home of Mr. Wm. B. McCarell, on 10, Fenelon township, was the scene of a pretty event on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29th, when their second daughter, Marjorie, was married to Mr. Charles Wilbert McCaff, of the township of Caran. A report appears elsewhere. The annual meeting of the Dunsford branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held in the Methodist church on Friday last. The attendance was larger than has been known of late years, but hardly as large as the importance of the work suggests. The reports presented were very encouraging, as the amount raised last year was an advance over the other years. The president, Rev. W. J. Leigh, occupied the chair, and announced a very interesting program. Rev. B. Bryan, the agent of the society, gave an excellent address, and Creighton bore greetings from the Lindsay and Bobcaygeon branches respectively. Mr. Charles H. Hore was elected president and treasurer. H. W. Mulligan secretary. Treasurers, Collectors were appointed for each of the parishes. Monday morning last was a very busy time. The delivery of foodstuffs to the army and navy, caused the extra rush of business. The many friends of Rev. M. Methers were glad to hear his voice and see his face again a week ago last Sunday. Quite a number attended the inductive class at Bobcaygeon a week ago Wednesday, and were delighted with the addresses and sermons.

OAKWOOD. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Miss Thurston, of Lindsay, is visiting Miss Lewis. Mr. Webster is spending his vacation in the north country. One would think by the display of furs in their window that Messrs. Pascoe Bros. had just received their business in that line. See Mr. Prouse's ad. in another column. Dr. Chambers was thrown from his horse Monday and received severe injuries. See account of same in another column. "What are you fellows giving away today?" remarked Mr. James Pascoe, of Pascoe Bros., to three travelers on Tuesday night, in an endeavor to shake the grip of pneumonia that had taken hold of the proprietor, and then said, "I am selling patent medicines, but the other, I am selling hardware," but the last man had just what he had been looking for for some time. To this gentleman the head of the firm said, "What brought you here today, Mister?" "I am endeavoring to buy a battery," said the traveler, "so open your samples quick, as I won't have long to talk to you." At this the traveler got a move on and after looking over his beautiful range of batteries, and five minutes later the happy get was off toward Lindsay. We are unable to say whether the other fellows received orders.

CANNINGTON. (From Our Own Correspondent.) An oyster supper was held in the basement of the town hall on the evening of Nov. 3rd, in aid of the Public Library. Every thing passed off very pleasantly. After the wants of the inner man had been satisfied the outer man repaired to the hall above. Dr. Bingham occupied the chair, and a short but spicy program was rendered by local talent. Mr. A. O. Hogg, David Tait, of Oakwood, were in town last week. Miss Lily Dobson, of Oakwood, was the guest of Mrs. Dickey over Sunday. Rev. Geo. Clark, of Oakwood, was in town last week. The boys behaved very well on Halloween! One of the incidents was when Mr. Kerr, butcher, went out to hitch up his fine driver to go on his morning visit. He found an old cast-off plug in place of his own horse. Mr. Lee Lindsay, who had been in the West for some time, has returned home. Mr. T. A. Wilson went north on Thursday night to hunt deer. On Sunday night of this week a fine hog hung up in Kerr's butcher shop. It is supposed to be the first of Tommy's victims. A few from this village attended the plowing matches near Woodville. They report a small attendance. Something over twenty prizes were on the program, and only nine teams were on hand to compete for the same, which goes to show that the public interest in growing less every year in regard to plowing matches.
