

Canada Life Assurance Co.

Lindsay, April 19th, 1905.

Dear Sir,

It may be of interest to your Company to know that I am much pleased with the profits apportioned to my policies for the past five years. In connection with my business affairs I had occasion to approximate the profits for this quinquennial period, and in doing so I thought a bonus of $700 would be very satisfactory. Shortly after making the above mentioned estimate received the profit certificates, and now take much pleasure in saying the amount is quite up to my most sanguine expectation.

I must add that I particularly appreciate my insurance in the Canada Life, and now that the earning power is so largely augmented by the Company holding the new standard of Reserves, I have every confidence in the future of Canada's leading company.

Yours truly,

R. ROSS,
Manager Dominion Bank.

VALENTIA.
(Special to The Post.)
The Lord's supper will be administered here next Sabbath afternoon. Proceeds of the fowl supper here a week ago amounted to nearly $20.

ONEMEE.
(Special to The Post.)
Among the Onemee items in Oct. 12th issue was one to the effect that Veterinary Surgeon Rogers intended selling out and going elsewhere. This was untrue, and your correspondent regrets having been misled by a mere rumor.

DUNSFORD.
(Special to The Post.)
The success of our beef ring may interest farmers in other sections. There were 20 members, each bound to furnish a well fattened animal not more than 3-4 years old, and to dress about 400 pounds.
Mr. D. A. McIntyre, of Arny, who went to the Northwest on one of the harvest excursions, is home again with a section of the country he visited. He says that they have a great crop in the Swan River district.
Mr. Donald Jamieson and Sons have rented their two hundred acre farm in Palestine, to Mr. William Folliott, of Kirkfield, for a term of years. We wish Mr. Folliott success.

HARTLEY.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Is Hartley dead? Must be as it is never mentioned in The Post any more.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. John Gilchrist, but hope for his speedy recovery.

Our school board have engaged Miss Taylor for another year at a slightly increased salary of $450. This speaks good of our teacher.

We miss Mr. Dunk Turner's genial smile in our midst, he having returned home before going back among the whispering pines.

Quite a number from here took in the fowl supper in Cambury on Thanksgiving night and report an excellent time. Just wait till Hartley tea comes off.

Mrs. Hugh Gilchrist and family left to join her husband and son in Islay, Alberta, on Tuesday, where they will reside in future.

Mr. Ernie Currie, of Lindsay, spent Thanksgiving with his uncle, Mr. Ronald McFadyen, of this place.

What's the matter with Hartley? Can't we start a Literary Society or anything of that kind for the winter months? There are lots of people, fit all will club in and help it along. Well, think about it anyway. We don't want Hartley to drop out of existence altogether.

LITTLE BRITAIN.
(Special to The Post.)
Mr. and Mrs. Corlett, and Miss Pogue have left Britain to keep a store in Kingston.

The fall of snow on Monday evening found many farmers with their burrups out yet.

W. J. Rodman has removed to Huntsville.

Mr. Jas. Blewett and Mrs. Broad are very ill.

Rev. Moore is continuing the revival service in the Methodist church.

Rev. M. E. Wilson, M.A., of Dunsford, delivered an able address in the Methodist church last Sunday in the interests of the Bible Society. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Pres. Rev. Mr. Moore, vice-pres., Rev. Elder Henry; secretary, I. McKeie; treasurer, G. W. Prouse; representative of Methodist church, B. Greenaway, representative Christian church, D. Noble.

The sacramental service in the Methodist church will be held next Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph. B.

Wm. Wickett is giving up farming and is moving to Little Britain.

Mr. Levi Sparks, whose arm was badly injured a few weeks ago in a corn cutter, is mending nicely.

ELDON.
(Special to The Post.)
We noticed an error in last week's special. Miss Bella Twomey should have read, Miss Bella Torrey, instead.
Mr. William Thornbury, license inspector, Lindsay, paid a brief visit to friends at Glenora last Friday.
Miss Mary Torrey visited friends in Lindsay last week.
Mr. Samuel Nicholson, of Lindsay, paid his many friends at Glenora a flying visit last week. Lindsay life seems to agree with him.
Mr. Duncan Jamieson, son of Mr. Donald Jamieson, Palestine, is at home from Islay, Alberta, N.W.T., looking hale and hearty.
Mr. William Maxwell, of West Palestine, is home again from the Northwest.

Mr. Donald McInnis, of the town line, Eldon and Mariposa, is home from his trip to the Northwest.

Mr. D. A. McIntyre, of Arny, who went to the Northwest on one of the harvest excursions, is home again with a section of the country he visited. He says that they have a great crop in the Swan River district.

Mr. Donald Jamieson and Sons have rented their two hundred acre farm in Palestine, to Mr. William Folliott, of Kirkfield, for a term of years. We wish Mr. Folliott success.

The chief topic just now is what we think of local option. A petition is in circulation.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. Dan Steacy on his appointment of clerk and treasurer of Eldon. We have known Ben for years past and we bespeak for him a successful term in office. Mr. Edward Mosgrove, the present clerk and treasurer, who has resigned to accept the position of assistant manager of the Sterling Bank in Kirkfield, has proven himself a very capable man for the position during his three years in office. We wish Mr. Mosgrove success in his new position.

LITTLE BRITAIN.
(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Levi Sparks, sr., who had his arm torn some time ago, is improving very rapidly.

A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rodman last week. Mr. and Mrs. Rodman are going to Huntsville, to the party was held in aid of them? Games of all kinds were indulged in, after which a good supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Rodman were presented with a Morris chair and an address was read to them.

Don't forget to attend the fowl supper in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night. It is to be held under the auspices of the Christian church and a good time will certainly be in store for all.

Last Friday was market day again and was fairly well attended. Prices were good, 24c. being realized for butter and 22c. for eggs. It was to the advantage of every farmer to patronize our market and try and make it a success.

We had two new ministers in our Methodist church pulpit last Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Wilson preached in the morning in aid of the Bible Society. In the evening the Rev. Robinson, of Port Perry, filled the pulpit.

Mr. Lewis Wickett, of Lindsay, spent Sunday at his home.

We notice Mr. Lytle, of Hogg & Lytle, Mariposa, attends the markets pretty regularly in our town, but he never brings any produce and never bids high enough to secure any but probably will later on.

Elder Percy, of Stouffville, filled the pulpit of the Christian church last Sunday morning. Everyone was well pleased with his sermon.

We notice Mr. Lytle, of Toronto, is in town visiting his friends.

Mr. Corlett has gone to Cannington to occupy his store recently vacated by Mr. Wilson. Mrs. Corlett and son are not going till later.

Mr. Jos. DeShane, has gone to Lindsay, to work in Mr. Boat's cannery.

The Rev. Mr. Chadley, of Markham will preach in the Christian church next Sunday morning. He is president of the convention.

Mr. Jas. Blewett had a slight stroke of paralysis this week but has almost recovered from it.

Mr. Thomas and Herb Heallie of Toronto, were down for the duck hunting this week, but say the ducks are not very plentiful.

Please keep in mind the Oddfellows' concert to be held near the last of this month. The very best of local and foreign talent will be present and furnish a No. 1 concert. The date and bills will be out later.

GOODERHAM.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
What has happened The Post correspondent lately? Must have been too far to walk to the post office.

The many friends of the Rev. R. Fulcher will be pleased to hear he has returned for a few days' holidays before leaving for his station.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, from Cresswell, are visiting at the homes of Mr. Jos. Fulley and Mrs. F. Baby.

Mr. B. Gray, of Uxbridge, was here on Thursday, attending the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Walker.

Miss Lizzie Johnston, of Essonville, is enjoying a short holiday with friends in the village. We understand she has some notion of accepting the position of assistant in the factory here.

Mr. W. Curry, of Haliburton, made a flying call here Sunday.

Mr. Levi Sparks, who is on a return trip to his residence in the house lately vacated by Mr. Thos. Corikell.

COBOCONK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Mr. Cash C. Brown of Toronto spent from Saturday till Monday with his parents.

Mr. W. Ryckman, of Victoria Road, visited in Cobocook on Sunday.

Miss Sarah Shields, and Mr. W. J. Shields were visitors at Victoria Road on Sunday.

Mr. A. O. Hogg and wife, and Master Murray Hogg, were in Cobocook from Thursday till Friday. Mr. Hogg made the trip in his automobile.

Messrs. G. Sheridan and John Sberry, cattle buyers, of Toronto, were in Cobocook from Thursday till Friday in connection with Mr. Sneggie's shipment of cattle to Toronto.

Mr. P. V. Birchard, formerly of the Bank of Montreal, Lindsay, who has been promoted to the position of teller in the branch at Fenelon Falls, visited with parents from Saturday till Monday.

The concert held on Thursday of last week in the C. O. F. hall under the auspices of the Church of England was a grand success. The Ladies Aid secured the services of Miss Emma T. Irons, of Toronto, and Miss Irons proved herself to be an eloquentist of very high standard, and all her numbers were enjoyed by the large audience present. Rev. Irons also assisted in the program.

The annual Methodist Sunday school convention of Bexley, Sonnevillie, and Lakton townships, held in the Methodist church here on Friday, the 26th inst., and was largely attended by delegates from the surrounding country. The afternoon session was addressed by Rev. S. A. Kemp, of Rev. W. H. Cook and a good train of 14 cars conveyed the cattle to Toronto.

The G. T. R. pay car made its Mrs. Logie. The evening session was addressed by Rev. Sangster and others. The morning of the programme was furnished by the choir, assisted by some Toronto talent. Altogether a most successful convention was the result.

J. H. Carnegie made a very large shipment of some 300 head of stock to Toronto on Friday of last week, monthly call at Cobocook on Wednesday of last week.

Quite an amusing incident was witnessed on the streets of Cobocook on Friday morning of last week when Mr. A. O. Hogg's auto and Mr. P. Trotter's yoke of oxen appeared on the main street together. Neither one of these means of conveyance are seen very often and so caused quite an excitement for a time.

One of R. A. Callan's horses on a lime cart ran away from the station on Friday last into the water at the end of the bridge. The animal was gotten out before any serious trouble occurred. The loss amounted to a load of lime to Mr. Callan.

A leak broke through the dam at Cobocook on Wednesday night, lowering the water above the dam two feet. The break was repaired by Mr. Clifford on Thursday, and the water is at its usual height again.

Mr. J. E. Jackson has sold his small pony, "Gypsy," to Toronto buyers.

Hunting is the order of the day around here now. Several parties have been organized in town and have gone north, while several others have passed through town already from the country south of here.
