EV. F. J. O'SULLIVAN, OF ST. MARY'S, LINDSAY, THE SPEAKER

Interest in View of Dr. Drummond's Second Visit to Lindsay.

ast Monday, Nov. 25rd Rev. Fr. O'- ullivan, curate of St. Mary's, Lind-visited Peterboro and delivered a address on Dr. Drummond's poems he lecture room of St. Peter's T.A. avs: "The address was one of the echest intellectual treats ever prosided by the literary section of the T. AS. The lecturer prefaced his regarks by paying a warm tribute to Dr. Drammond, and the address oft be evening was interspersed with many of his best productions which sere recited by Father O'Sullivan in every clever manner. The simplicity of the habitant, his deep love of nature and his many noble characteristics were beautifully portrayed, and altogether the address was a literary treat of the highest order." The following is a report of the keture, taken from The Daily Re-The speaker began by stating that had been requested by a school wirl a few days ago to purchase a ticket for the course of lectures to be given at the Lindsay Collegiate Institute this winter. The speaker said to her, "Will there be anything of special interest ?" "Oh yes," she replied, "Dr. Drummond is going to speak." When we consider, continued Father O'Sullivan, the fact that the other contributors to the programme, enjoy more than provincial reputation, this was a very nice comliment to Dr. Drummond, However, have not decided in my own mind yet, for it is very hard to read the young lady was voicing her own to the glory of our faith, thanthe results are whose raw material is largely or have paid the rent for a number of years). at some time in the gast, separate from his fellowmen, living the life of a recluse and not much in sympathy with the material world about him. mind, with his bair falling down over own country, a man whom some of that his hair is cut in the approved mond is thoroughly Canadian in his descendants of this noble race sympathy and sentiments. Everything is clear and luminous, and if you read a live twice it is not to understand its meaning, but to more fully enjoy the beauty of its poetic thought. Then his subjects are in keeping with his style. He writes not of kings and of crincess, but of the simple country folk, and this fact will gain for him the sympathy of all who feel with the poet Grey-"Let not ambition mock their useful
