MR. ASQUITH'S DEPRECATION

Lord Strathcona's Speech at Banquet of London Chamber of Commerce-Sir Frederick Borden Interviewed in London-Says Canadian Ministers Had No Intention of Obtruding Their Views on Preference.

London, Dec. 11 .- (C.A.P.)-Lord Strathcona, presiding at a dinner of the London Chamber of Commerce Wednesday, said that on the very fringe of the wheat-growing district of Canada 40,000 farmers were able to produce 16,000,000 bushels of wheat and quite as much other grain. Canada had enough to make her all England had become and

Hon. Thomas Brassey said onefifth of the cultivatable land of Manitoba would produce all the wheat England required. The Canadian manufacturers had decided that the Canadian tariff should be remodelled with a view to giving a more effective preference to the Motherland.

J. Walton, M.P., said the Government could best promote prosperity in Canada by showing emigrants the superior opportunities offered by Canada over the United States. The cost of transportation from England to Canada should be lessened and a quick steamship line established. He suggested that an Empire exhibition be held in Canada.

H. Irving said that from the Atlantic to the Pacific Canada was solid for the proposals of Mr. Chamberlain. The Empire was quite self-sustaining, and why should our trade be given away to foreigners?

Mr. Asquith's View. Henry Asquith, speaking at Bradford yesterday, said there was not the slightest chance within a measurably brief period that the Empire would supply its bwn wheat. Canada exported three and a half million quarlings to Canadian wheat would increase Canada's population four-fold. Canada's offer shut out any prospect of a preference on things Canada could supply herself. To transfer the source of our food supply from without to within the Empire would be fraught with danger.

Berden and Sifton. Sir Frederick Borden, interviewed by London papers regarding Mr. Sifton's speech, said neither the Canadian Government nor any of its Ministers had any intention of obtruding their views on the question of the preferential tariff. He had seen nothing in M . Sifton's speech that could be construed as anti-Chamber-

Is Empire in Danger?

The Manchester Courier, in an article headed "Is the Empire in Danger?' says: "Why disguise from ourselves the fact that in every colony there is not only a free trade party, but also a party for the disruption of the Empire, a party that stands for independence and the cutting of the painter, a party that thinks England and the colonies would be better apart. The party for annexation is dormant in Canada owing to the awakening of the Imperial spirit, but let the tariff wait much longer and Canada will conclude special commerdal treaties with the United States."

Nestor of Canadian Politics Delivers an Important Address on Canadian and Imperial Affairs-American Trade in Britain's Hands-U.S. Farmers Could Not Stand Tax on Food Exports,

Toronto, Dec. 11.-Sir Richard Cartwright, the Nestor of Canadian politics, never stood higher in the estimation of the people of Toronto than last night, when, after delivering one of the greatest of many great speeches illuminative of the history of Canada, he sat down amid the ringing cheers of an audience that taxed the capacity of Association Hall. For almost an hour and a half he discussed domestic affairs, Canada's expansion under Liberal rule, the reasons for and results of increased Government expenditure, the census frauds of 1891, the national debt, and the Government's great railway policy; then for half an hour he spoke of Imperial trade issues, advocating an Anglo-American

SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT.

Richard spoke the audience were too intent almost to applaud, though there was plenty of that, both before and after.

An Anglo-American Alliance, Particularly when he dealt with Imperial questions was his audience anxious to catch every word. It was felt that the utterances were those of a statesman and an economist. As ever during his forty years of public life, he was outspoken and uncompromising. As an economist he would not countenance protection; as a statesman he saw that conditions might be created in which a tariff might serve a desirable end. The end he desired was the consolidation of the Empire, and beyond that an Anglo-American alliance for political and commercial purposes. The United States had placed their trade in Britain's hands because $70,000,000 more than half their exports were to the British Empire. A British zollverein that would levy a tax on the exports of the American farm would take 30 per cent. off the American farmers' profits and quickly force the United States into reciprocity with the British Empire. With the consummation of an Anglo-American alliance three and a half continents would be dominated by the Saxon race. Increase of Paid Admissions as Compared With a Year Ago-Judging Completed

-Farmers' Institute Workers. Guelph, Dec. 11 .- All the judging and awards were completed yesterday afternoon. The attendance was somewhat disappointing, having fallen off considerably over Wednesday. Altogether, however, the Fair has proven a better drawing card than last year. Tuesday, a year ago, $150 of paid admissions were received, as compared with $200 for the same day this year. Wednesday was $555, as compared with $750 for the same day this year. Up to 6 o'clock Thursday evening $300 had been taken in. Last year for both day and night the amount received was $445, and the receipts last night were expected to be in excess of that total. The free admission list is very heavy, including several tickets for each exhibitor, therefore, the pay list is no measure of the real tendance at the Fair.

Secretary Westervelt said after the board meeting of the exhibition yesterday that the finances of the Fair were in fine condition. He said the question of increased facilities was not discussed, and would not be until the regular annual meeting the latter part of January. He recognized the fact that the quarters were wholly inadequate, so rapidly had the enterprise grown. Mr. Westervelt said the greatest trouble was in finding space for the hog exhibits, and suitable place for judging the ani-

Requirements of a Hog Pen was the subject Mr. J. E. Brethour made luminous. Mr. W. S. Colon, Dec. 14.-Through the examination of the San Blas coast, made by the United States cruises Atlanta and the converted cruiser Mayflower, both of which vessels have returned here, it has been clearly established that the Colombian cruisers, General Pinzon and Cartagena, appeared in the Gulf of Darien about 36 hours after they were re- our line. ported having left Cartagena. No reliable evidence, however, could be obtained to show how many troops carried by the cruisers had been landed, either on the gulf coast or northwest thereof.

The naval offers found the attitude of the Indians to be indifferent and even repellant. The traditions of the Indians for centuries have been against permitting aliens to land in their territory, and these traditions they still maintain. They often declined to answer the questions of the interpreters, and on several occasions their information was found to be misleading.

The information obtained by the Atlanta and Mayflower points to two probabilities-either that the Colombian troops have been returned to Cartagena or that they have been landed at some point on the coast between Cartagena and the Gulf of Darien, and may be proceeding thence County and Township Rights for Sale. toward Caracas,
