MR. STRATTON RESIGNS

(Hamilton Times) The retirement of Mr. J. J. Stratton from the Ontario Cabinet has been definitely announced in a letter to Hon. Mr. Ross under date of October 12. This is a distinct loss to the Province. For Mr. Stratton has been an excellent administrator, and the affairs of his department have been handled in the most satisfactory manner. At no time has any reasonable complaint been made against his work as a Minister. Indeed the Opposition has fully appreciated his ability and usefulness, and recognized his worth by avoiding any fair criticism of his acts and confining itself to an organized effort to befoul his reputation and damage him in the estimation of people who are open to be deceived by tales of corruption and improper election methods. This campaign has been deliberately undertaken and followed up by Mr. Whitney and his followers to their own shame and the disgust of all honest men who are alive to the facts. If it has had anything to do with Mr. Stratton's decision to retire, his retirement is the more to be regretted, because it would in a way mean the triumph of such methods which are a disgrace to Canada, an affront to morality and to the decency of public life. That persistent lying and mis-stating should succeed in damaging a good and useful man to the extent of losing his services to this Province, would not be much of a compliment to the fairness and intelligence of its people.

In the years to come fair-minded Conservatives will deal more justly with Mr. Stratton than at present. Looking back on the prosecution and clamour to which their party has subjected him in its hunger for office they will think for their leaders. The country will be the greatest loser when Mr. Stratton quits the Provincial Secretary's office. Let the people see that the party of slander and distraction does not gain.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Government is certainly showing a lack of desire to have punished those guilty of any wrong doing in connection with the bogus bullet boxes. The warrants issued and the arrests made show that. It is to be hoped that such an example will be made of those who have broken the law in any way in this matter as

ST. PAUL'S ANNIVERSARY.

IMPRESSIVE SERMONS BY REV. C. J. JAMES, OF TORONTO.

Generous Offerings Made for the Redemption of the Church Debt.

The nineteenth anniversary of the opening of St. Paul's church was observed on Sunday last, when special services were attended by very large congregations. Sermons were delivered at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. by Rev. C. J. James, Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto, who delivered thoughtful and impressive discourses at both services.

At the morning service the keynote of the sermon was "Believe," and in its elaboration to the pure and abiding faith of the early prophets and their successors, the apostles. In his evening discourse Rev. Mr. James dwelt on "Righteousness," and referred to the lives and missions of the prophets Micah, Hosea, Amos and Isaiah. All the prophets spoke of righteousness and admonished the people as to the enormity of their sins.

The Jews were condemned because of their sins against their fellow men—God did not forget that they were treating their brethren as aliens. "Why do ye say, 'Why are ye not governed by your fellows?' Remember Jesus' words, 'He who loveth not his fellows cannot love God.'" How is it in Lindsay? He did not know, but he would think to the East, where the Jews and Russians are murdering each other. We feel like cheering for the Jews because they are allies of Britain. He was a believer in the Jewish religion, but he thought with Robinson that a better time was coming—when all shall assemble, not under the flag of rival nations, but under the banner of Jesus Christ.

Let us do nothing against another and the deed is announced by all right-thinking men, but when 10,000 men attempt to slay a similar force of Jews, the same crime, the same survivors are called heges. A time was coming when that world change.

In Toronto on Sunday we see the street cars running, and in the power houses men are working as hard as on any other day. He had visited them in their homes and found them tied out. That state of things is the result of pure selfishness, and is the result of the people with no education in holy things. The men at the head of the company resided in line houses and lived well. He (the speaker) admired men who were not ashamed to work as hard as on any other day. He had visited them in their homes and found them tied out. That state of things is the result of pure selfishness, and is the result of the people with no education in holy things.

The whole prophecy of Amos is an expression of God's wrath because of man's inhumanity to man and the luxuriance into which the upper classes and the rich have fallen. We have not come to that in Canada, thank God; he believed there is a heaven among the people which will save this young and vigorous nation. Amos spoke of the worship of the calf—Jesus Christ getting the individual worship of our hearts? Let us treat God as reasonable men, and let us govern ourselves on Monday and Tuesday, and every day of the week, as on the Sabbath, and as though we believed in the truth of God's message. When we are separated by long distances let us think of each other as though with us in our thoughts. So it is with God—He always has us in His thoughts, and we should think of Him while pursuing our daily avocations.

God will be with us. The best curriers, the best hockey players, should say, "God give me the strength and the eye to win." He would not counsel a currier to be safe and lantern-jawed, and sing only hymns, but he would tell them to be honest, to be true, to be merry, but to be like Jesus in compassion for others.

The lessons of the prophets are rooted to-day because they are true—because of their worth. May the people of this church be true men and noble women, and labor together in a happy union for the greater glory of God and the upbuilding of His Kingdom.

DIED AT CALGARY.

A Former Resident of Lindsay a Victim of Appendicitis.

Mr. Alex. Cullon received a message Monday morning from his daughter, who was in Calgary, Alberta, conveying the sad news of the death of her husband, Mr. Wm. C. Bowen, which occurred on Sunday afternoon following an operation for appendicitis performed on Nov. 21st. The funeral took place to-day (Tuesday) at Alberta. Deceased was a young man of great merit and promise. He was born near Woodville, where relatives still reside, and came to Lindsay some ten or twelve years ago to become a teacher in the O'Sullivan Business College. Later on he had charge of a branch of the College at Barrie and other points, after which he went west and took a situation as book-keeper with the C.P.R., and later occupied a similar position with the coal mining company at Frank, Alberta. When the great landslide occurred he left the town and secured his degree as optician, for which he had been studying for some months, and opened out in Calgary, where he was doing a successful business.

THE DANCER OF ANAEMIA.

Its Victims are Defenceless When Disease Strikes—The Blood Should be Kept Rich and Pure.

Anæmic people—people with watery blood—are without defences when disease threatens. The strongest weapon against disease is a plentiful supply of rich red blood. A robust person may catch cold, but quickly throws it off. But a cold lingers with the anæmic one, goes to the chest, and the first signs of consumption appear. It is the anæmic one who suffers from headaches and dizziness, who cannot climb a stair without resting, whose heart flutters and palpitates wildly at the least exertion. Such people can only be saved by a new supply of rich red blood, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine that actually makes rich red blood with every dose. Ordinary medicines only touch the symptoms of disease—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills go right straight to the root of the trouble and drive it out. That is why so all pills have a larger sale than any other medicine in the world, and that is why thousands and thousands of people praise them so highly. "My Florence G. Maryett, Chester, N. S., says: 'I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for several months and I am happy to say they have restored me to health after a long illness had failed. I was suffering from anæmia in its most severe form. The least exertion would leave me breathless and were out; I had no appetite and suffered greatly with nervous headaches. I was pale and seemed to be going into a decline. I had medical attendance but it did me no good. Then a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and in a few weeks I found they were helping me. I continued them for several months, and am again enjoying good health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will make every weak and ailing girl strong and healthy.'"

SAD CASE OF DESTITUTION.

An Evidence of the Good Work Being Done by Zealous Lindsay Ladies.

The latest arrival at the Home for the Aged is a woman in whom three Societies, whose territory and field of labor is the County of Victoria, are deeply interested. Her story may be told as follows: Over a year ago a case came before the County police magistrate and as witnesses were being summoned to appear in court the poverty and destitution of the family to which the woman belonged came under the notice of the High Constable of Victoria County. The matter was at once reported to the Children's Aid Society and steps were taken to secure the two or three little ones who were living in these wretched hovels. After some delay and considerable difficulty one child was taken and provided for. A boy about 10 years old was allowed to remain at home to be cared for by the feeble-minded mother, while his father and older brother were at work. The Society also decided to furnish clothing for the woman when necessary. Affairs went on in this particular home from a state of deplorable poverty to poverty in its worst form. A homeless, neglected and dependent child, woman could be aided very much by the Children's Aid Society, so an appeal was made to the Home for the Aged Society to admit the woman temporarily as an inmate until arrangements could be completed for her proper care and support elsewhere. The request was granted and an officer of the Society went after the woman, but her husband, who had just returned, took her to the hospital for a further period of confinement, to exercise his man's franchise in the general election—refused to let her go to the comfortable quarters prepared for her, so the officer returned empty-handed, but not willing to yield to the unexpected order. A meeting of the Local Women's Council was called immediately, and full particulars of the case were reported to the members. The meeting passed a resolution to the effect that the improperly cared for woman should not be allowed to suffer any longer, and that the same person who had previously acted in the matter, should again go for this woman and take her to the Home for the Aged, and if it be deemed advisable that action should be taken against the man for non-support of his wife. After a period of correspondence re- relating the whereabouts of the woman, the office was about to start when a message was received saying that the woman had again gone off. A few more days completed the wanderings of the woman, and without further delay or difficulty the homeless one was brought to town on Saturday morning last, and placed in the Home for the Aged as a ward of the County until the new County House of Refuge is ready for occupants. This arrangement for the maintenance of the woman was made at the closing session of the County Council in response to the request of the President and the Secretary of the Local Council of Women.

The writer visited the home at 9 p.m. on Saturday to see the woman who had just arrived from a process of cleaning before retiring for the night, and heard an eye-witness to her appearance in the early morning in the north end remark, "She does not look like the same woman."

10 VESSELS SEIZED. Canadian Cruiser Curlew Takes Yankee Poachers. FINED FOR ILLEGAL FISHING.

Each Boat Fined and All Seines and Nets Confiscated—Aggregate Value of the Craft Seized is About $30,000.—No International Issue, and Hon. Raymond Prefontaine Declares Incident Closed.

Eastport, Maine, Nov. 29.—Ten American fishing crafts, including eight sailing vessels and two steamboats, have been seized by the Canadian fisheries protected cruiser Curlew and fined for illegal fishing in the Canadian waters of the tributary of Passamaquoddy Bay, near St. George, N.B.

The fishing craft were seized near St. George Sunday night. Three specific charges were preferred; that they had fished on Sunday; that they had illegally caught fish found in their possession and that they had seized illegally in Canadian waters. For the first two offences each boat was fined $100 and for the last $200. In addition to this all seines and fish were confiscated.

It is understood that the fines will be paid and that the entire matter will be disposed of without involving any international question. The aggregate value of craft is about $20,000. The seizure is the most extensive that has been made by a Canadian cruiser for many years.

No Issues Will Arise. Washington, Nov. 29.—The American State Department officials do not expect any issue between the Governments of Canada and the United States over the seizure of American fishing vessels by the former, as told in the Eastport despatch. In the present instance the question of extra-territoriality appears not have been raised, and the vessels were not confiscated, which has happened in the case of seizures heretofore made, either of these seizures usually being sufficient to make the settlement of the controversy a matter of diplomatic negotiations.

Mr. Prefontaine was handed a batch of official despatches when he was landed at the foot of Main street. Among them were telegrams relating to the seizure of American fishing craft near St. George, N.B. In reply to questions regarding the incident, Minister Prefontaine said: "There was no particular significance in the seizure of American fishing boats in Passamaquoddy Bay. If our American cousins break Canadian laws they must expect to receive the same punishment that would be meted out to Canadian lawbreakers. The incident may be regarded as closed. There is no feature of it to call for international exchanges."

The Canadian Minister, who is accompanied by several officials from Ottawa, will visit Cleveland, Detroit and Canadian ports on Lake Erie.

Niagara Falls Power. Buffalo, Nov. 28.—According to a despatch from Niagara Falls, the Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Co. has contracted with the Ontario Power Co. for 30,000 horsepower of electricity, to be delivered Jan. 1, 1907. The contract is for a period of 50 years, with the option of renewal for 60 more. The contract is bound by a large forfeit.

Eva Booth's Farewell. Toronto, Nov. 28.—Every seat in the great Massey Hall was occupied last night at Miss Booth's farewell before leaving Canada to become Salvation Army Commissioner of the United States. In taking leave, she said: "I am sure you all understand that I arise to speak with a great deal of mingled feelings in my heart. It began, God had been very good to her since she came to this country. 'I believe God has blessed me to you, and I know God has blessed you to me.' Toronto had been her home, and all the people were her friends; for, she thanked God, she was the friend of all men. She wished to make her closing night one of everlasting memory."
