

Canada Life Assurance Co.

Fenelon Falls, April 20th, 1906. THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE CO., Toronto.

Gentlemen,— I beg to acknowledge receipt of your cheque for $508.70, being the cash dividend upon my policy No. 048639, and desire to thank you for your business-like promptitude. I have much pleasure in continuing my policy under the existing conditions, which I consider very fair and equitable, being a good investment and at the same time providing a very cheap insurance.

Wishing you a continuance of the substantial expansion shown each year. I am, yours very truly,

A. SUTHERLAND, Agent G.T.B.Y.

W. R. WIDDESS, Agent, Lindsay.

domas. The children's choruses, with their other parts, were simply delightful. The singers, readers and reciters have not been excelled by the best performers from Toronto. Proceeds, $78. The Methodist church anniversary services here will be held in December. Mr. Bright, baritone soloist, will sing at the Monday concert. Our old boys are glad to get back from Manitoba and Territories, particularly Dr. and Mrs. Cameron. The Presbyterians have engaged a professional lady elocutionist and reader, and a lady violinist, besides Mr. Lloyd, comin.

VALENTIA. (From our own Correspondent.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. Mrs. Herbert Webster, of Manitoba, has been spending under the parental roof. Mr. and Mrs. Webster are going to reside in Lindsay for a while. Miss Oldrid, of Seuzog, is visiting Miss F. Jordan. Some of our young men were missing last Sunday. Mr. and Miss Sharpe were at Port Perry last Sunday attending the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Thomas Glass. Friends and neighbors wish to sympathize with them in their sad bereavement. Mrs. Glass survived her husband by a few years. She leaves two sons to mourn her loss, Mr. John Glass, of Seuzog Island, and Mr. Wm. Glass, of this place.

The trustees of our north school consider themselves fortunate in securing Miss Winnie Mark, of Fenelon Falls, as teacher next year. Miss White, who is a very respectable up-to-date teacher, having resigned, to the disappointment of the section. A number of our young people attended the S. S. convention at Salem last Friday. The convention was a decided success. We feel that our teachers will be better qualified for their great work on account of the knowledge and inspiration received.

DIGBY. (From our own Correspondent.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. What's wrong with Digby? Oh, it's alright, only our correspondent has been asleep. The weather is all that could be desired at present, but we have had a storm period extending over a week. Everyone seems to be engaged in the lumber business in our township. Mr. Con. Sullivan, with John Fitzgerald as assistant, is cutting logs on his place. Mr. Davidson, of Brighton, was in last week looking after his timber limits, and Mr. Thos. Hodges returned to Lindsay with him. Miss Jennie Hodges and Messrs. Jas. Hodges and Wm. Reid went to Lindsay on Monday last, to finish affairs pertaining to the Hodges estate, which case has been long pending. We hope that they come to a satisfactory settlement.

The bad storm of Monday last gave Miss Carl, our popular teacher, a hard trip back to school after her visit home. The attraction must be pretty strong that takes her away through such roads, eh? Miss Rosie Fitzgerald, who has been ailing for some time, is still in a rather critical condition, despite the skilful treatment of Dr. Grant. Her many friends wish for her speedy recovery. Mr. Nelson Tallman passed through our district last week. He is a genial walking boot, and has purchased about $1200 worth of wood from Mr. Hodges. We expect big operations in the near future, as he has brought in a gang of men who, under their foreman, Mr. Thos. Hodges, are busy erecting camps and stables. Several of our boys are going to the camps, among them, Messrs. Bert McFadden and Jack Cronin. Mr. John Ryan has gone to Ops. Digby is pleased to welcome back Mr. Frank McFadden and his brother Joe, after a long absence.

SALEM CORNERS. (From our own Correspondent.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. The 12th annual convention of the Mariposa township Sabbath school association, was held here on Friday afternoon, Nov. 30th, 1906, and was a decided success in every respect. There was a good representation from the various Sunday schools of the township. After devotional exercises, led by Rev. C. E. O'Connell, B.D., the choir was taken by the president, Mr. J. McKee, Little Britain. The address of the afternoon was given by the Rev. Mr. Leitch, of Sonya, on "Better teachers, and how to get them." Mr. Leitch handled his subject in a very clever manner, the address being very direct and helpful, and was listened to by an appreciative audience. The solo by Miss Graham, of Salem, is deserving of special mention. The round table conference was conducted by the Rev. G. R. Clure, of Millbrook. The evening session commenced with a long service and devotional exercises led by the Rev. Mr. Moore, of Little Britain, followed by music by Valentia choir. Rev. G. R. Clure's address, "Teachers, their helps and hindrances," was cleverly dealt with, showing the importance of the work in which Sunday school teachers are engaged, and ought to be productive of much good. The address was followed by singing from Valentia choir, in their usual pleasing style. The Rev. Mr. Moore, of Little Britain, gave the closing address, "The minister's relations to the Sabbath school." Mr. Moore is a pleasing and instructive speaker. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. G. W. Harty, Peniel, Cananungton P. O.; 1st vice-president, Mr. Samuel Tremer, Salem Corners; 2nd vice-president, Mr. D. R. Rogers, Linden Valley; sec.-treasurer, Mr. J. E. Materson, Crosswell.

Messrs. Bamby and Harrison have leased the McMills estate and will move on in the spring. Miss Annie McKinnon has been re-engaged as teacher for S. S. No. 11. Divine service was conducted here on Sunday evening last by the pas-

LET THE BLIZZARD BLIZZ! Gough's Manufacturer's Sale . . . GOING WITH A WHIRL . . .

Bad weather and bad roads don't keep people away from Gough's Sale. Pleased crowds, tremendous crowds keep coming daily to save money on their Suits, Overcoats, Ulsters, etc. Our share of the big Montreal purchase of Men's and Boys' Clothing is making the strongest bargains named at this season in Lindsay. It is Simply a Case of Overproduction and Montreal's . . . Loss is Lindsay's Gain . . . Thousands of fashionable, splendidly made Garments were produced, but unseasonable weather in most parts of Canada stopped the sale. Manufacturers became panic-stricken, and turned to the Gough Syndicate. We said 'Half Price' and although two months ago they said 'No, we stand to lose too much,' they finally yielded.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Will our numerous correspondents see to it that their letters reach this office not later than Tuesday, except when a certain item necessitates waiting a day longer. By no means delay until Thursday morning or Wednesday night, as then we would be obliged to leave it over for publication one week.

REABORO. (Special to The Post.) Notice.—The annual meeting of the Reaboro Cheese and Butter Co. will be held in the factory on Dec. 5th, at 2 p.m. for the purpose of transacting general business. A full attendance is requested. Geo. E. Rea, President.—w2.

PALESTINE. (From our own Correspondent.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. A concert and Christmas tree will be held in Palestine school on Friday evening, December 8th. A good program, consisting of dialogues, music, songs and recitations is being prepared by the young people of this neighborhood, and the school children. The concert begins at 8 o'clock. Admission twenty and ten cents.

On Monday evening there was a chess meeting held in our factory. We were pleased to learn that Mrs. McArthur is recovering. Miss Beatrice Tinsley, who has been in Lindsay for some time, has returned to her home in Kirkfield lately. Mr. Duncan Jamieson, of Islay, Alberta, is home for the winter.

ZION—MARIPOSA. (Special to The Post.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. It is with deep regret we chronicle the death of Mildred Mitchell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Mitchell, of this place, which took place on the 30th inst. after a sickness of some duration. She had a good health for the summer, but was able to be up and around doing light work. About four weeks ago she developed typhoid fever and was progressing nicely until inflammation of the bowels set in. This proved too much for her constitution and she passed away on above date. The funeral took place on the 18th inst at Zion cemetery and was followed by a large concourse of friends, relatives and acquaintances. Rev. Mr. Moore, of Little Britain, conducted services. The deceased was a girl of a vivacious temperament and won the affection of all whom she became acquainted with. She was a favorite at school and will be greatly missed by her schoolmates and teachers. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Since the separation of this appointment from the Little Britain circuit, things have not improved much in the matter of attendance at church. The afternoon does not seem a suitable time for service, as the congregation are mostly young people and they prefer the night meetings. We hope that when our minister has regained his former health he will see fit to give us an occasional night service.

Threshing is the order of the day in this section. The mud hindered some last week, but now winter has set in and things will boom again. The Harper Bros. do most of the threshing here and give excellent satisfaction. The only improvement asked for is a self-feeder. This they will comply with before another year. Grain is turning out well and all is above the average, therefore nobody is grumbling.

Thos. Broad has moved into his new house and says he has no fear of the Peterboro Times, in commending the ward system to the ladies. It is a city like Peterboro of to-day a man's strength is best known and understood in his own ward, and this is exemplified in the polls, where, under the present system of election by general vote, hundreds of electors are acquainted with the personality of sufficient candidates to mark their ballots intelligently for the full complement of aldermen required, while many others plump for a few of the desired twelve.

The cold weather, all parts being made frost proof. Mrs. Osborne has quite recovered from her sickness and is able to be about again. Two or three weddings soon, says Dame Rumor, so don't get discouraged, boys.

LITTLE BRITAIN. (Special to The Post.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. Mr. Geo. Mark reports a successful year at the fall fairs, leading with prize tickets for Berkshire hogs and Cotswold sheep.

Mr. J. F. Dix, Elm Grove farm, is feeding a large number of cattle for export. All the valuable room in the basement of his large barn is occupied with cattle. Mr. C. H. Lapp, principal of our school, has been engaged for another term. Miss Barrett is engaged as assistant teacher.

Farmers in this part report red clover a poor yield, alsike a big crop, wheat fair, barley good, oats good, although badly knocked down before ripening, roots good, buckwheat poor. Fall wheat looks well; seeds made a good growth in fall.

MANILLA. (Special to The Post.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. The concert under the auspices of Manila Public Library, given by the "The Paik Sisters", was a great success. The opening number was particularly good, and much credit is due Mr. C. E. O'Connell, who spent a great deal of time training the ladies. Mrs. E. E. Edwards, of Lindsay, as "Arminy", was an able chairwoman, and made a decided hit in her stump speech on "Woman's Rights". To mention the sisters separately would be impossible with such an extensive family, but suffice it to say that all filled their parts admirably and helped to make the program one of great interest. Special mention must be made of Mr. Andy Dickson, who filled the part of "Topsy" exceedingly well, keeping the audience in roars of laughter throughout the evening. The Library board extends its heartiest thanks to all taking part in the program, for so willingly giving their time and talent for so worthy a cause. Proceeds amounted to about $50. The Peniel orchestra delighted the audience with their sweet music.

OMEMEE. (From our own Correspondent.) If you want to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. The winter weather has set in. Fuf of all kinds is a luxury in our burg, but none are suffering. The House of Refuge is now appreciated generally, and our part of the county will not fail to contribute some of the most worthy inmates.

We are sadly in want of some industries here to employ labor and keep some of our energetic men at home after getting their fine high school education here. What our citizens ask for is a new Council to advertise our town and offer some inducement to locate factories here. There are good openings for a flax mill, canning factory, novelty works, and woolen factory.

Rev. Mr. Strachan, of Glenora, was a candidate on Sunday last, graduating two years ago at Knox College. He preached a very forcible sermon from the 4th chapter of John.

Large numbers of our citizens and country people attended the Lindsay markets on Saturday last. We regret to hear the news of the sad death of Jas. Toole, Midland, bedridden for some time by the ladies, in aid of the Public Library, never had an equal for satisfaction in every respect, including grand costumes, diamonds, jewelry, etc. estimated at $6,000 which was displayed principally by the queens and prima tor, and in the morning by Mr. W. Mollon. The many friends here of Mr. John McDougall, of Sonya, regret to hear that he has gone to Toronto General Hospital to undergo an operation. The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary will hold their annual "quilting" on Friday, Dec. 7th, 1906. Mr. H. Reazin is visiting relatives in Collingwood.

CAMERON. (Special to The Post.) A Christmas tree and entertainment will be held in the school at Cameron on the evening of Dec. 20. A good program is being prepared by the children of the school and other local talent. The musical program will be furnished by the Omemoque quartette, everybody welcome. Admission 20 cents and 10 cents.

Mr. Gourley, who has spent several days visiting his daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) A. P. Webster, returned to his home in Toronto on Friday. Mrs. Webster went to Toronto on Saturday last for a week's visit. Rev. G. R. Clure, Mrs. Clure and little Miss Meta, spent a couple of days in our village, the guest of Mrs. A. O. Hogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Coad spent Saturday last in Longville at Mr. Wm. Coad's. Quite a number of the children here have the whooping cough, and some are quite ill. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown died with whooping cough on Sunday, the 2nd, and was buried on Tuesday afternoon in the Little Britain cemetery.

Mrs. David Taik left on Wednesday morning for Woodstock, being summoned to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. John Brunner, who we are sorry to learn, is seriously ill. Mrs. Brunner's many friends, here, hope for her speedy recovery. The Woman's Institute held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Coad on Thursday afternoon, being a special meeting. The meeting of last month was not held owing to bad weather. The trustees have made considerable improvements to our school property here. Mr. Walters did the work. Court was held in the town hall on Thursday, and an unusually large number of cases were heard.

One of the greatest opportunities for you to save money on dry goods, women's and children's ready-to-wear garments, furs and millinery, attend Ford's Selling Out Sale, Lindsay. Temporary premises a few doors east of the market.—w1. Miss Edna Webster is spending a pleasant holiday with her friend, Miss Brandon, Cananungton. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Fair and daughter Vera, left on Monday to spend a few weeks with their son at Trenton. Busy, busy, busy! Yes, everybody is busy in our village, which speaks well for all kinds of business, and courtesy shown by the people conducting same. Mr. Wilbert Avery, who has spent the past few months in the N.W.T., returned to his home here last week. The Standard bank is doing a good business in our village. Mr. Mc Gill is the branch manager and is proving a favorite with all patrons. Several of our young people took part in the lecture at Hartley on Tuesday night and report a good time. Gilbert has a great display of toys, fancy goods, chinaware, etc., for Christmas. This large and well assorted stock is a credit to the village and surrounding country.

FRANKLIN. (From our own Correspondent.) A lecture will be given in the Methodist church here on Monday evening, Dec. 9th, by Rev. Mr. Henderson of Port Hope. Music by the Omemoque quartette; everybody welcome. Miss Ruth Veals, of Reaboro, spent Sunday under the parental roof in this place.

Mr. school teacher, Mr. M. Nugent is leaving. We have not yet secured a teacher to fill his place. Mr. and Mrs. F. Gardner, of Mount Pleasant, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner of this place. Mr. and Mrs. F. Anderson, of Janetville, have moved to our village and will occupy the house recently occupied by Mrs. Lytle.
