Constipation

Bad sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect.

Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

OIL BUBBLES' TALE CANADA ESTIMATES

Steamer Jones Sank Three Miles From Cape Croker. Ontario Public Works.

CAPT. RUMLEY FINDS SPOT HALF MILLION FOR TORONTO

Seventy Feet of Water Cover Ill-Fated Vessel If the Commander of Tug Gladstone is Correct in His Diagnosis—Four More Probable Victims Revealed by Circumstances on the J. H. Jones.

Owen Sound, Dec. 1.—The names of three lumbermen who must have been lost on the steamer Jones have been positively identified on the Sheldon House register by Capt. Graham of that steamer, who arrived in town last night. They are R. Adleson, who has been employed by a lumber company at Elver Water for three years, and who had come south to procure more hands for the winter's camp; A. E. Addison of Avon, Ont., cousin of the aforesaid, and J. E. Kennedy of Eaton, Ont.

The vessel registered at the Sheldon House the evening of Nov. 20, and embarked on the steamer Jones the following day for Silver Water. Another man who is supposed to be among the missing dead is Robert Edmondstone, a young fisherman of Vail Point. Some days ago he left for a lumber camp on Manitoulin Island, and is thought to have embarked on the ill-fated vessel.

Where the Jones Went Down. Owen Sound, Dec. 1.—The tug Sandford is still searching around the Christian Islands for the wreck of the steamer Jones, but without success so far.

Capt. Rumley of the tug Gladstone, who went over the route yesterday from Lion's Head to Owen Sound, passed over and located a spot three miles from Cape Croker and a quarter of a mile offshore, in about 70 feet of water, where he thinks the Jones sank. He noticed oil on the water, and traced it to where it came bubbling up. The Jones took on a considerable cargo of oil from here on the ill-fated trip.

Crew Battled For Life. Kingston, Dec. 1.—Capt. Daryaw and crew of the foundered schooner, Queen of the Lakes, reached here yesterday. The vessel went down on Wednesday night. The men took the yawl, saying nothing. They battled hard to reach shore.

FATE OF OTIS BELL.

While in Tree Top His Own Rifle Discharged and Killed Him.

St. Stephen, N.B., Dec. 1.—A peculiar accident took place at Peaweg, near here yesterday, in which Otis Bell was shot to death. Bell, with others, was out hunting, and got lost. Bell told the rest he'd climb a tree to see if he could see any clearing or settlement in the distance. He rested his rifle against a bush, walked about twenty feet to a tall tree and went up to the top. In some way the rifle fell and went off, and the bullet passed through Bell's body.

MATTOAX TO BLAME.

Placing the Responsibility and Cause of Fatal Wreck.

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 1.—The frightful accident Thursday morning near Lawyer Depot, on the Southern Railway, in which President Spencer and members of his party lost their lives, is declared by Assistant-General Superintendent E. A. Coopman to be due to the block telegraph rules being disregarded by Operator C. D. Mattoax, who was in charge of the block station at Rangoon, four miles north of the scene of the wreck, and the first station north of Lawyer Depot. This official said that an inspection of the telegraph sheets showed that Mattoax had let a second train into the block, although he had not received word that the previous train had cleared it. This was against the rules of the road. Mattoax has vanished.

Detroit, Dec. 1.—The list of killed and wounded in the upper peninsula through hunting accidents during the season this fall is shorter than usual. The total this year in Michigan and Wisconsin is 23 killed and 41 injured. Last year 26 lost their lives and 41 were wounded.

CONFESSIONS OF GUILT.

Sensations Likely to Arise From Trial of Cornelius Shea.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Secrets of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters of the United States are to be made public as a result of the confessions of guilt yesterday of Albert Young and three other co-defendants of Cornelius P. Shea, president of the organization, who together with 16 other members of the union, were placed on trial for conspiracy. The confessions caused a stampede among the attorneys for the union, and a delay was asked for on the ground that the blow given the defence was too serious to overcome in a short time. The motion was overruled.

Police Chief Indicted.

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—Abraham Ruef, and Chief of Police Jeremiah Dinan, were jointly indicted by the grand jury yesterday on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the alleged protection of a house of ill-fame. Chief Dinan was also separately indicted on a charge of perjury in his testimony before the grand jury.

guty on certain lines of agricultural implements was too small to be appreciated, and challenged Mr. Foster to inform the House whether he would be prepared, if he were Finance Minister, to reduce the duty by 10 per cent., as he had suggested Mr. Fielding should do. Mr. Foster will doubtless have an opportunity to reply, if he desires to do so, during the debate on the tariff in committee.

DENY TRUSS STATEMENTS.

Man Who Laid Charges in Brantford Case Threatened With an Action For Slander.

Brantford, Dec. 1.—There were no features yesterday at the investigation at the Institute for the Blind.

At the morning session Assistant Engineer McIntyre, against whom a charge of political partisanship was made yesterday, submitted his defence. Several witnesses swore that McIntyre had not engaged in political work on election, and that he worked at the institute the greater part of the day.

Frederick Boyer at Port Colborne, a former blind pupil, at his own request cross-examined Vice-Principal Wickens in an endeavor to show that sufficient attention was not shown to the blind as to their adaptability for different lines of work, and that pupils of mechanical ability only were engaged in literary pursuits. Attention was also called to the number of graduates who had been forced to abandon their trade for the poorhouse, subsequent to their departure from the institute.

W. B. Preston was also examined as to the drive the pupils had been given to the Aylesworth meeting at the drill hall. Denials were forthcoming to many statements made by Truss.

Thomas Truss, who laid charges, among which was one that pupils visited an alleged house of ill-repute, is now threatened with action for slander by the woman in question, whose house, according to the evidence of pupils already heard, is not disorderly. The investigation is adjourned until Dec. 11.
