kawarthaNOW is providing a daily report of COVID-19 cases in the greater Kawarthas region.

Just as the Ontario government announced the Stage 3 reopening of the province, there are 4 new cases to report today, including 3 in Northumberland and 1 in Kawarthas Lakes — the first positive cases reported in the greater Kawarthas region in over a week.

There are no new cases to report today in Peterborough, with the last positive case was reportedon June 20 and no active cases. There are no new cases to report in Haliburton. There are no new cases to report in Hastings and Prince Edwards counties; the last positive case there was May 18.

Since the pandemic began, there have been 95 confirmed positive cases in the Peterborough area (93 resolved with 2 deaths), 171 in the City of Kawartha Lakes (150 are resolved), 24 in Northumberland County (21 resolved), 10 in Haliburton County (10 resolved), and 43 in Hastings County and Prince Edward County (37 resolved).

There has been a total of 39 deaths since the pandemic began, with 32 of these deaths in Kawartha Lakes. The most recent death was reported on May 7 by Hastings Prince Edward Public Health.

Province-wide, there are 36,839 confirmed cases, an increase of 116 from yesterday's report. A total of 32,663 cases (88.7% of cases) are resolved, an increase of 129 from yesterday. There have been 2,722 deaths, an increase of 3 from yesterday, with 1,730 of the deaths being residents in long-term care homes, an increase of 1. A total of 1,712,315 tests have been completed, an increase of 20,896 from yesterday, with 7,837 tests under investigation, a decrease of 8,337.

This report is based on data supplied by the province's integrated Public Health Information System (iPHIS), as well as any additional information supplied by health units and hospitals. This information is at least 24 hours old, so it is not real-time data.

We publish the daily report, usually by late afternoon, with the most current information released by health units. Note that each health unit reports the information in a different way.
