

to put that money in reserve.

Letham said that he had no interest in using the “found money” (2019 surplus) to deal with this COVID induced 2020 shortfall. The mayor suggested that the best thing to do “is to pretend the surplus isn’t there and to put it aside.”

Taylor added that, “A number of projects will be deferred until 2021. Council will have those decisions to make and anything deferred will be at the top of the list for 2021.”

FACEBOOKTWITTERGOOGLEPINTERESTLINKEDINTAGS:CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER RON TAYLORCOVID-19KAWARTHA LAKESLINDSAYMAYOR ANDY LETHAM

YOU MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN