Here's an update on COVID-19 cases in Ontario as well as in the greater Kawarthas region.

A day after reporting the lowest number of new COVID-19 cases since the pandemic began (33), Ontario is reporting 95 new cases. Of the province's 34 public health units, 28 have reported five or fewer cases, with 16 of them reporting no new cases at all. The number of hospitalizations, ICU admissions, and patients on ventilators continues to decrease.

In the greater Kawarthas region, there are no new cases to report today in the Peterborough area, Kawartha Lakes, Northumberland, Haliburton, or Prince Edward and Hastings counties. In Peterborough, all cases of COVID-19 are now resolved, with all cases
