

(SSAC) support and a Milo@Home program for special needs students.

The board is also working on ways to conduct some face-to-face learning during the last two weeks of August, pending public health approvals. This includes initiatives like Welcome to Kindergarten/School's Cool, summer transition for special education program students, and a French Immersion program for Grades 2 to 5.