

THE LINDSAY ADVOCATE

KAWARTHA LAKES' FINEST MAGAZINE

WINNER - NEW BUSINESS OF THE YEAR

Wearing masks in public could mean cutting transmission rates by up to 95 per cent.

Five decisions you can make in the age of COVID-19

Published on June 14, 2020 — in Opinion — by Kirk Winter

Many Kawartha Lakes residents are struggling with what to do and how to behave regarding the COVID-19 pandemic now that the curve appears to be flattening.

Everywhere people turn they seem to be getting mixed messages from government and the media regarding behaviour that will keep people safe but also help their neighbour's businesses survive to open another day.