

The CFI is proud to support their efforts by equipping them with the research infrastructure they need to further their significant work.”

The centre opened in 2004 and has grown into an internationally renowned facility. Its staff is comprised of a core group of scientists, faculty researchers, engineers and technologists as well as a community of associates from academic, industrial and private sectors.

You might be interested in

NEWS

A dollar turns into a million for friends from Kawartha Lakes, Cobourg

Four friends matched all seven Encore numbers Oct. 30, winning them $1 million

3 hours ago

CRIME

Notorious Peterborough pedophile sentenced to eight years behind bars

4 hours ago

NEWS

Use of 'soft-shelled' hyperbaric chambers can cause injury or death: Health Canada

4 hours ago

