United Way for the City of Kawartha Lakes is proud to support the important investment of $90,000 into our local communities. A portion of the investment was used to assemble the and train the application review committee, liaise with community groups and applicants, and monitor the distribution of funds with the federal government..

“The impact of this investment is threefold;” writes Penny Barton Dyke, executive director of UWCKL.

“Organizations in our area will be able to help people, especially citizens at
