

NEWS

Delaying March break could create more problems than it solves

Province’s decision to push annual spring break back one month doesn’t take into account teacher, student and parent stress levels created by continued changes to education over the last year

By Catherine Whitnall Kawartha Lakes This Week
Monday, February 15, 2021

The province’s decision to postpone the March break until April has resulted in mixed reactions from local school officials.

The move means all public elementary and secondary students and staff are