

After studying on the East Coast, Spence spent eight years diving around the world, mostly in Canada, eventually making his way to India with a company based out of Singapore.

February 17, 2021

Fleming College Launches
Employment Service for Kawartha-Muskoka

February 16, 2021

Council Votes To Use $
Pandemic Funding From Province To...

February 16, 2021

A vessel Spence boarded as a Commercial Diver near the Port of Mumbai
Courtesy - Tom Spence

But once the pandemic touched down, unsure of what the future would hold, Spence hung up his flippers and decided to launch Kawartha Delivers, a much-needed food delivery service, serving Bobcaygeon and beyond.

"I really loved diving, it was a blast but this is great too and getting the community involved is always a good time," he said.

Kawartha Delivers has been a business plan and a passion for