

NEWS

UPDATE: More vaccines coming: 6,200-plus COVID-19 vaccines expected this week for local area

Persons receiving home care, residents age 80 and older could get vaccines starting in March

By Sarah Hyatt Northumberland News

Monday, February 22, 2021

More than 6,200 COVID-19 vaccines are set to arrive in the local area this week – and residents should soon see clinics in the works, public health has confirmed.

“We are hearing that the shipment of vaccine expected this week is the beginning of an abundance of available vaccine that will be sent out across the province,” said Dr.