

COMMUNITY

Grandmother's nimble fingers helping Omemee students in need

Carole Tschirhart has donated roughly 80 hand-sewn, triple-layer cotton masks to Scott Young Public School, as well as 'pick-me-up' small quilts and crocheted blankets

By Catherine Whitnall Kawartha Lakes This Week
Thursday, February 25, 2021

A Cameron-area grandmother is helping to make sure local elementary school students are "covered" during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Carole Tschirhart's commitment to children began about 10 years ago while her