

NEWS

Local health unit has new leader at the helm

Effective April 6, Dr. Natalie Bocking is the new local medical officer of health

By Sarah Hyatt Northumberland News

Monday, April 5, 2021

A new leader is taking over the reins at the local health unit.

Effective April 6, Dr. Natalie Bocking is the new medical officer of health (MOH) and leader at the helm of the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit.

“I just want to say that I think that you are really lucky in the area to have an energetic, young, (and) really smart new medical officer of health...” said Dr. Ian Gemmill, adding the incoming MOH is great to work with, and he hoped she’d receive