

NEWS

'Stay vigilant': Public health calling on residents after spike in local COVID-19 cases

Nearly 100 new cases last 7 days; more cases in younger age groups recently, say officials

By Sarah Hyatt Northumberland News

Wednesday, April 7, 2021

After a spike in local COVID-19 cases, and now a province-wide stay-at-home order, officials are again urging residents to practise vigilance and protective health measures.

Until more vaccines are in arms, Dr. Natalie Bocking, the new medical officer of