

Ontario's top health experts recommend month-long province-wide stay-at-home order

kawarthanow.com/2021/04/01/ontarios-top-health-experts-recommend-month-long-province-wide-stay-at-home-order/

April 1, 2021

News & Community

Sobering assessment of COVID-19 pandemic says variants of concern are 'killing faster and younger'

By kawarthaNOW -
Published

Adalsteinn Brown, co-chair of Ontario's COVID-19 science advisory table, presented a sobering assessment of the pandemic in Ontario at a technical media briefing at Queen's Park on April 1, 2021.
(CPAC screenshot)