KAWARTHA LAKES-The Kawartha Lakes Police Service has joined a number of other services across Ontario in announcing they will not be arbitrarily stopping motorists or pedestrians.

Late Friday afternoon the Ontario government announced it was giving police temporary authority to stop residents and question them without cause. Many police services across the province has released statements saying their officers would not be making arbitrary stops including Peterborough Police, Halton Police, Ottawa Police, Guelph Police, Waterloo Police and Toronto Police and more.

Here is the statement from Kawartha Lakes Police Service
