

NEWS

Medical officer of health talks rising COVID-19 cases, community transmission in HKPR

‘The majority of cases that we’re still seeing are kind of average community transmission’

By Sarah Hyatt Northumberland News

Wednesday, April 21, 2021

It’s mostly “average community transmission” driving recent COVID-19 cases, says the local medical officer of health.

In recent weeks, COVID-19 cases have been climbing in the Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit’s area, with the largest spikes in Northumberland