We are free to travel divided highways, but not to travel the wrong way. We are free to use firearms to hunt, but not to discharge them where they will cause harm. We are free to breathe unhindered, but we are not free to jeopardize the lives of others.

Our hospitals are full of covid patients, and the situation is a race between variants and the vaccine. At the moment, the variants are winning. Thankfully, most people will not catch covid-19, and if they do, they will recover. I sincerely hope that Mr. Gouin, in the exercise of his rights, will remember that if he becomes ill and infects someone else like me that he will be sentencing them to a horrible hospital stay or death.

Adapt your business sir, stay safe and keep the citizens around you safe too.
