How Dunsford Kept A Privately Owned "Community Centre" Going, Despite The Pandemic

By Pamela Vanmeer December 2, 2021

KAWARTHA LAKES—"I think I can, I think I can" is the signature phrase from the beloved children's book The Little Engine That Could. It's also the catchphrase for the community of Dunsford who funded and maintain one of the only privately-owned "Community Centre" in the City of Kawartha Lakes.

The Dunsford Community Centre was built 27 years ago by the community. Five community members thought up with the idea and
