

SOME OF THE GUEST SPEAKERS AT THE BIG ANNUAL PARTY

Keith Masters, of Chicago, was a head table guest. He brought greetings from the Chicago office, and paid a tribute to the ladies.

Dr. G. Larocque was a head table guest who brought greetings from the New York Daily News.

H. F. Grumhaus, assistant production manager at the Tribune Company, Chicago, spoke on the need of quality in newsprint.

Schmon expressed thanks to Bill McCarthy and the members of his committee who organized the dinner and dance, and the guests extended a warm ovation to this hard-working committee.

Posing for The Observation Post photographer at the president's annual dinner and dance are, left to right: Percy Climo, Mrs. Percy Climo, Mrs. Bruce Galow and Bruce Galow.

Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, paid and conveyed best wishes from the Canadian Paper Association.

